

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man. If physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strictly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Casaca Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Casaca bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No gripping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

The Sanitary Water Purifier, CALVANIZED Steel Chain Pump
It is the Best Pump on the Market.
Operated over cisterns and wells where depth does not exceed 20 feet. It will not freeze, rust or rot. It is the most beautiful, strongest and serviceable, and will produce more water. It is entirely sanitary. The water coming up the first tube goes into the pump, the over production into the wheel box, draining through the center tube. The base is so constructed that the water never splashes through the sides. We have used this pump in the finest homes in the city in kitchens, porches and yards and it has always proven satisfactory. It is sanitary because it is clean. It purifies the water by the action of the chain and the drainage through the center tube which agitates the water, there being enough air ventilation in the pump, when in action, to keep the water pure and tasteless. Ask your dealer to show you. Manufactured by
EVANSVILLE PUMP & MFG. CO., EVANSVILLE, INDIANA.

PROTECT THE SWALLOWS.

Government Urges the Protection of Insectivorous Birds.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin urging the people of this country to use all their efforts to induce the return of the various species of swallows which have been practically driven out of this part of this country by the English sparrows. The bulletin states that while it is true that while nesting these birds are sometimes infested with parasites, these are not species of vermin which could in any way annoy human beings.

The experts of the Department pronounce the swallows, including in this designation purple martens, barn swallows, tree swallows and bank and cliff swallows, the most valuable insect destroyers among the birds. The bulletin says: "From the standpoint of the farmer and orchardist, perhaps no birds more useful than the swallow exist. They have been described as the light cavalry of the avian army. Specially adapted to fight, and unexcelled in aerial evolutions, they have few rivals in the art of capturing insects in mid air. They eat nothing of value to man, except a few predaceous wasps and bugs, and in return for their services in destroying vast numbers of noxious insects, ask only for harborage and protection."

Mail for Jamestown Exposition.

Mail, whether ordinary or registered, intended for delivery at the Jamestown Exposition, should be addressed to Exposition Station, Norfolk, Va., and not to Jamestown, there being a post-office of the latter title distant from Norfolk and the Exposition grounds. Care should be exercised in this matter to avoid annoying delays.

An Old Spelling Book.

We have in our possession an old spelling book which was in use in this vicinity as far back as about 1840. It was the property of the late Christian C. Livengood, who for many years lived in the house on the southwest corner of Ord street and Smith avenue. The book was found in the attic of the old Livengood house and given to the editor by Mrs. W. H. Dill, of Meyersdale, who is a daughter of the man who owned the book.

The old volume, with its old-time pictures, ancient proverbs, wise old "saws," etc., is quite a curiosity at this age of the world, and the pictures of engines, cars, implements, ships and many other things appearing therein are in strange contrast with things of modern construction.

Following are some of the verses that appear beneath the pictures contained in the book:

A lamb delights to skip and play.
A swan can swim or fly away.

The sportsman with his dog and gun,
Has much less good than evil done.

Squirrels have nails to climb with ease—
They live upon the tallest trees.

A wheel is made for turning round—
A plow for turning up the ground.

The man who by the plow would thrive,
Himself must either hold or drive.

The rooster crows to give us warning
Of the near approach of morning.

The faithful watch dog keeps awake at night,
And barks to warn us when all is not right.

The shepherd and his dog protect the sheep;
Which feed securely, or lie down to sleep.

This is the Index, or man's hand.
The camel walks through desert sands.

This cruel hawk is watching for his prey.
That pretty quail should keep out of his way.

Though the noble horse is held in high repute,
Yet the humble cow is a more useful brute.

The modest chapel stands below the hill.
Ready for pious worshippers to fill.

Here is the black or common bear,
With long sharp nails and shaggy hair.

The leopard is a pretty spotted beast.
That loves on other animals to feast.

Things to Quit.

Gossiping.
Fidgeting.
Grumbling.
Hairsplitting.
Saying fate is against you.
Finding fault with the weather.
Going around with a gloomy face.
Fault finding, nagging and worrying.
Taking offense when none is intended.

Dwelling on fancied slights and wrongs.
Talking big things and doing small ones.
Boasting of what you can do instead of doing it.
Scolding and flying into a passion over trifles.
Thinking that life is a grind, and not worth living.

Depreciating yourself and making light of your abilities.
Saying unkind things about acquaintances and friends.
Exaggerating and making mountains out of molehills.

Pitying yourself and bemoaning your lack of opportunities.
Comparing yourself with others to your own disadvantage.
Waiting around for chances to turn up. Go and turn them up.
Writing letters when the blood is hot, which you may regret later.

Thinking that all the good chances and opportunities are gone by.

ALL SHE WANTS.

All she desires is love, you say?
That shows how much you know.
She wants to see the matinee
And to the circus go,
She wants a handsome diamond ring,
She wants a rope of pearls,
She wants a poodle on a string,
She wants some extra curls,
She wants a bonnet twice a year,
She wants an Easter hat,
She wants to read her title clear
Unto a stylish flat,
She wants a four-seat motor car,
She wants a real Worth gown,
She wants a trip to Europe,
Or at least to Newport town,
She wants a sack of rare cologne,
She wants a diamond pin,
She wants a carriage of her own
To go out calling in,
She wants the earth, the Milky way
And half the stars above,
And yet you have the nerve to say
That all she wants is love!
