

Coffee—A Question of Taste

Don't let anyone tell you what coffee to buy. Connoisseurs and expert coffee judges differ in their tastes. The point is to get a coffee that suits your taste. GILLIES' COFFEES—"the finest obtainable," are blended to suit different tastes—all tastes. There are four distinct flavors, characteristic of coffees from different parts of the world, consequently four different prices. These different prices mean that some coffees cost more to import than others. If your choice is the lowest or the highest priced—you may be sure that you have the very best of its kind. GILLIES' 35 cent coffee is mellow, aromatic and very delicately flavored, while GILLIES' 30c coffee is rich, full-bodied and delicious—the 25c or 20c blend each has a distinctive flavor which may please you.

WHEN a man gets in trouble we always "look for the woman," but when he succeeds, we do not, though we have more reason, says the St. Louis Globe Democrat, and in so saying that paper utters a great truth.

A LONDON paper predicts that the time is likely to come when all the best hotels in Europe will be closed to Americans. But it is not likely to come while the Americans appear provided with a sufficient amount of the long green.

A NEW Act of assembly governing the sale of cigarettes and cigarette paper was recently signed by Governor Stuart, making it a misdemeanor for any person to sell or cause to be sold or given cigarettes or cigarette papers to persons under twenty-one years old. The law carries with it a penalty of from $100 to $300 fine for each and every offense, and the law should be rigidly enforced.

MEMORIAL DAY was not set apart as a prize fight carnival or a drink feast. It is a sacred day, and if it cannot be so regarded, in some degree at least, it should forever be dropped from the catalogue of our days memorable. It was no time of giddy joyance that our fathers knew 40 odd years ago, when the Potomac ran red with their life-blood to the sea; when the sides of old Lookout were carnadined; when the horror of Chattanooga might have made guardian angels weep; when Pittsburg Landing was the landing of death; when the sunny south was turned into the gray land of desolation, and the blood of her sons mingled in one red tide with the blood of the sons of the north. This was not a time of joyance, I say, and the persons who would devote to a prize fight the day set apart to its memory are less than men. Fools and fiends might do a thing so unseemly, but higher beings would not.—Sacramento Union.

THE SHEARS AND SAWBUCK WAY.

Shears & Sawbuck kept a store, Such as never was before. City folks they couldn't sell, Wouldn't let them have a smell; Fetched their money—but by jing, Couldn't buy a blessed thing; Couldn't meet 'em face to face And then sell 'em with good grace.

Country trade was what they sought, Folks who'd pay for what they bought, 'Fore they saw it, hide or tail, They sent catalogs by mail Out to ev'ry blessed one Gettin' mail at 'Possum Run. We set up at night and read When we'd order been in bed. Book was 'bout as big as sin— Had a lot of pictures in. Had a list of merchandise, Ev'ry kind and ev'ry size— Givin' prices that they swore Knocked out ev'ry country store; Looked so good and seemed so true, I bit at it—Jim did, too.

Well, we, like a pair of fools, Sent off—got some hayin' tools; Jim got harness and a plow, I a range—I see it now; Drat the thing it was so light, Used it for a torch one night; Threw'd the darn thing in the yard, Use it now for renderin' lard.

Fore Jim used the plow an hour, Found the blame thing wouldn't scour; Tried his harness—broke a tug— Sought for solace in his jug— In the cooler all that night, Jim reflected on his plight; In the morning, Richard Stout, Hardware merchant, bailed him out.

Jim said after that he'd stick Close as bark to good ol' Dick; Since he left the 'Possum jail, Says he won't buy goods by mail, Says Dick's cheaper, anyhow— Might have saved some on the plow. On the other goods some more, At his ol' friend's hardware store.

Jim says, "We can't sell no truck To sich folks as Shears-Sawbuck; They'll take all our cash away, But won't buy our corn or hay." That seemed purty strange to me, So I told ol' Jim I'd see— So I wrote to them that night, Jist to see if Jim was right.

As 'im "what they pay for oats? Could they use some likely shoats? Had about four tons of hay I could send them right away: Could I furnish Mr. Shears With his family roastin' ears? Also would my friend Sawbuck Buy some of my garden truck?"

Answer came one summer day, Said "They couldn't use our hay, Couldn't use our oats or shoats, Didn't like our billy goats; When they needed truck to eat, Bought it down on Water street. Sorry, but they must refuse Anything but cash to use."

I sat down and wrote 'em then, "Hate to trouble you again, But I want to thank you, sirs, For your bunch of cockle burrs. If you love your feller man, Do him good, sirs, if you can.

MORAL.

While our merchants sweetly sleep, Shears & Sawbuck shear the sheep. —Ex.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by E. H. Miller. 7-1

Another Old Soldier Mustered Out.

Henry Kidner, who was stricken with paralysis about a year ago, while at the home of his brother-in-law, Henry Keister, near Somerset, where he had gone to attend the funeral of Mr. Keister, died very suddenly at his home in this borough, last Friday evening.

After he was first stricken by the disease which eventually caused his death, he had to remain at the Keister home for some months before he had sufficiently recovered to be taken to his own home. However, his condition improved in time, and eventually he was brought back to his residence in Salisbury, where he lingered a few months more in practically a helpless condition until death came to his relief.

Mr. Kidner was a man of eminent respectability, and he was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a veteran of the 10th Penna. Reserves in the War of the Rebellion. In religion he was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran church, and in politics a lifelong Democrat.

His wife, who was a daughter of the late Samuel Rubright, died a few years ago, but he is survived by two sons, G. B. Kidner and R. A. Kidner, both residents of Salisbury.

Deceased was aged 69 years, 5 months and 5 days. The funeral took place last Sunday at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. E. S. Johnston, D. D., in accordance with the request of the deceased.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 7-1
