JAPS STIRRING UP STRIFE

Radicals Seek to Inflame Their Countrymen to Revolt.

WANT BARON AOKI RECALLED

Say Ambassador Is Too Lenient in Alleged Insult to Nation in Coast City.

That the Japanese of the Pacific coast, and the Progressives, a party of Japan, have entered into an alliance, which has the earmarks of ar International conspiracy, with the overthrow of the present ministry in overthrow of the present ministry in Japan, and the annulment of the clause in the immigration bill excluding Japanese coolles labor from continental United States as the ultimate objects, was learned authoriteitively in Washington. The preliminary steps in this scheme, it is said, will be to induce the Tokio government to recall Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassedor to the United States and to demand an apology and perhaps an to demand an apology and perhaps at indemnity from this government for the alleged acts of violence against Japanese subjects residing in Sa Takahashi, representative of the Seattle Japanese Society: O. Noda representative of the San Francisco Japanese Society, and K. Kawakemi, staff representative of the Yerozu, a daily newspaper of Tokio, came to Washington on April 21 and remained until May 12, during which time they were negotiating with the Japanese ambassador looking to the annulment of the Japanese immigration limitation law. They also saw Assistant Secretary of State Bacon.

This delegation failed in its nurpose, it is stated, after charging Ambassador Aoki with treachery to the Japanese of the Pacific coast, and with misrepresenting conditions to Japanese Society, and K. Kawakam with misrepresenting conditions his home government, they telegrate to Ototaka Yamoaka, the persential to County Okuma, was awaiting their report in Seattle

Wash:
Yamaoka sailed for Japan on May 14 and, it was pointed out, the renewal of the anti-Japanese agtration in the Japanese press has begun since his arrival in Tokio.

Yamaoka is regarded as one of the shrewdest politicans in the em-pire, and it is said that by means of public meetings and otherwise, will as leader of the anti-adminis the Saionij ministry, and will charge that Foreign Minister Hayashi be allowed Ambassador Aoki to pursue too conciliatory course in dealing wit the American government regarding the San Francisco questions.

OVER A SCORE KILLED

Cloudburst Nearly Destroys a Town in Kentucky.

Advices from Gradyville, Ky., which Advices from Gradyville, Ky., which suffered a cloudburs!, show that 21 lives were lost. Ellis Walker of Columbia, who was one of the first to respond to the call for aid, reports that Gradyville is practically destroyed. In addition to the residences destroyed, and in which the loss of life occurred, a big rolling mill, employing many hands, was swept away, as were several stores.

The storm began at 10 o'clock at

The storm began at 10 o'clock at night, and increased in intensity until 12:20, when its height was reached. The claudburst turned Big creek into a torrent and quickly overflowed pouring much water down upon Gradyville.

Nearly every house in the town was washed away, and those who met death were drowned or crushed to death in their houses as they were torn from their foundations. Colum-bia was telephoned for assistance, and a large number of citizens left that place at once. Every stream in the vicinity is out of its bounds. All es in this vicinity were washed and thousands of acres of corn

Gradyville has a population of about 150, and is 18 miles from a

FOUR KILLED

Wabash Train Crashes Into Freight Cars on Open Siding.

miles west of Pittsburg, St. Louis express, train No. 5, of the Wabash railcrashed into a freight engine was standing on a siding, kill-our persons and injuring 14. Both engines were mashed four into a mass of torn and twisted iron and steel, the smoker was crushed into kindling wood, all the passengers were badly shaken by the force of the collision. The brakeman, who left the switch open in violation orders, disappeared after the Caught With the Money.

On the arrival of the steamer Lazio, from New York, at Naples, Jose Sanche and his wife, Maria, were arrested at the request of the Cuban authorities. Sanche is wanted on a charge of theft from a gas company of Havana. In his luggage $20,000 was found, and on his person $170,000. Senora Sanche had $40,000 and bonds valued at $20,000.

Anti-Lottery Fight Ends.

At Mobile, Ala., Judge Toulmin im posed fines in cases of defendants who entered pleas of guilty to an indictment charging conspiracy to cause the interstate carriage of lot-tery advertisements. The defendants agreed to surrender all lotter also agreed to surrender all lottery books, plates and other paraphernalia and also dispose of the printing es-tablishment of the Honduras Natton-al Lottery Co. in Wilmington, Del. Some of the fines aggregated $284,-

FOREIGNERS SEEKING SAFETY

Leader of Revolt Urges People to Support It-Earthquake Kills Thousands.

A special dispatch from Hong Kong says that S. Pollard, a Method-ist missionary at Chao Tung Fu, has been mercilessly beaten by the Chinese. His lung was pierced by a weapon.

The missionaries are flocking into Hong Kong from the Swatow and Pakhoi districts.

Chao Tung Fu is a city in the north part of the province of Yunna, China, with a population of about 50,000. The Bible Christian Home and Foreign Missionary Society, an English organization, has a station there, which consists of fonur missionaries, men and women, a native sionaries, men and women, a native worker, an elementary school and a

The leader of the insurgent forces
Amoy, China, has issued an ad ess exhorting the people to sup rt the movement and to confine themselves for the present to guerilla tactics. The attack on the officials at Juan precipitated the outbreak against the government, the date fixed for the uprising being June 20th.

The disorders at Lien Chow and Pakhoi bave been suppressed and all the missionaries are safe.

The steamer Shawmut brought news of a disastrous loss of life following an earthquake at Hsing King Charles and the same state of the same state o lowing an earthquake at Hsing Ki-ang. Four thousand persons were crushed to death, a vast number of houses destroyed and many persons left starving. The Empress Dowager has telegraphed bright instructions to the local governors to take mea-sures of relief.

PETITION DENIED

Trustees for Mrs. Eddy's Property

Lose in Court.

The petition of the three trustees to whom Mrs. Mary Baker has transferred her property, asking that they be substituted as plainting in place of next friends in the suit to secure in accounting of Mrs. Eddy's property, was denied by Judge Robert M. Thomberlain, of the Merrimac Superfor Court. The trustees are Henry Marketing and the court of the trustees are Henry Marketing and the court of the trustees are Henry Marketing and the court of the trustees are Henry Marketing and the court of t we commend the Congress for its ty, was denied by Judge Robert M. In the congress for the proper regulation consistency of the congress and trusts and the congress of the con Waterbury, Va., an adopted son:
to laker of Bangor, a cousin, and red W. Baker of Epsom, N. H., a asin. The suit is for an accountg of Mrs. Eddy's property, which is alleged is under control of Caln A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary, and achor Christian Science leaders. vin A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary, and other Christian Science leaders, who are named as defendants. The question of Mrs. Eddy's physical and mental condition figure in the ac-

CITY ALMOST DESTROYED

Kurrachee, a Seaport in India, Struck by Cyclone.

Kurrachee, a town of 120,000 population, situated on the Arabian sea, has been swept by a disastrous cyclone. Many lives are believed to have been lost, although details from the scene are lacking.

It is reported that practically every house in the town was destroyed. Several vessels in the harbor, one of the best in India, were driven ashore the dependency was businesslike adm to individual an and for its important properties. The Republic stand for dishore the best in India, were driven ashore the dependency was businesslike adm to individual and for its important properties.

A tidal wave is reported to have accompanied the cyclone, sweeping far inland, over the low lying land on which the city was built.

57 INJURED IN WRECK

Passenger Train Hurled Off Embankment; Unknown Cause.
A Southern railway passenger train plunged off a 15-foot embank train plunged off a 15-foot embankment at Black Branch, injuring 57 persons out of the 60 passengers aboard. The severely wounded are:
Mrs. J. L. Jennings of Lebanon, Tenn.; Mrs. Sarah Lawrence of Nashville, and George Phillips of Hopkinsville, Tenn. Most of the others were slightly injured.
Two passenger coaches, the mail
and the baggage cars left the track.
No one seems to know just what seems to know just what caused the wreck.

Minnesota After the Standard

ping charges.

The state of Minnesota, Plunging into an open switch at Acheson station, near Hickory, 19.2 will be based upon an alleged violawill be based upon an alleged viola-tion of the so-called Hinton law, which provides that the prices of oil must be uniform throughout the state, allowance being made for ship-

Western Furniture Men Indicted. United States District In the In the United States District Court at Portland, Ore., indictments were returned against 180 furniture dealers in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California, for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The list includes nearly every manufacturer and jobber in the states named, and a large number of retail Koreans Move to Russia. It is said that Koreans are moving into Eussian teritory at the rate of 2,000 weekly, and that already some 36,000 have expatriated themselves in this way. They are influenced to this course by the treatment accorded them by the Japanese.

Wabash Convicted.

The Wabash railroad came in for the largest number of convictions ever had in the United States ever had in the United States District Court for the southern district of Illinois on June 6. A jury, after being out 45 minutes, returned a verdict finding the road guilty on 15 of 17 counts alleging violations of the interstate commerce law by falling to have any freight cars equipped with safety appliances. Attorneys for the road will file a motion for a new trial.

Barrios, Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemalan Atlantic coast, which makes it dangerous for application of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there are along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there are along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there are along the Guatemala, reports that a condition of terror prevails there and along the Guatemala.

SENATOR KNOX ENDORSED

Pennsylvania Republicans Nom inate Him for President.

SHEATZ FOR STATE TREASURER

Platform Endorses the Administra tions of President Roosevelt-and Gov. Stuart-Proud of Knox.

John Oscar Sheatz of Philadelphia was nominated for state treasurer by the Pennsylvania Republican state convention at Harrisburg. The nomination was made by acclamation and amid great enthusiasm.

The convention adopted a platform in which P. C. Knox of Pittsburg was indorsed for the presidency of the United States. The mention of Knox's name for the high office evoked much enthusiasm.

The platform made a strong statement on the state capitol frauds, declaring that the Republican party was not responsible for the graftwas not responsible for the grati-ing, and would not stand for corrup-tion of that kind. The platform, which was read by Congressman Jas. F. Burke of Pittsburg, was adopted by unanimous vote.

Wesley R. Andrews was re-elected chairman of the state committee and the convention, adjourned after a session lasting an hour and a half.

The substance of the platform adopted follows:

The wisdom of continuing Republican supremacy in both state and national affairs is abundantly shown by the growth of our commerce, internal and foreign, and by continued unexampled prosperity throughout the commonwealth and country.

President Roosevelt's principle of the equality of right and opportunity to all must meet with loyal adherence.

ence.

We commend the Congress for its him and support him earnestly; his capacity and experience, motives and purposes, integrity and character fithin for this highest of honors.

From the beginning Mr. Knox has been foremost in support of the poli-cles for the regulation of corporate power which have endeared the President to the people. The psyroll of American labor must continue higher than that of any other nation.

We give unfaltering adherence to the principles of a protective tariff.

We indorse the bold, fearless, in-Kurrachee, a Seaport in India, Struck by Cyclone.

Kurrachee, a town of 120,000 population, situated on the Arabian sea.

We indorse the bold, learness, independent, ruggedity honest, wise and businesslike administration of Gov.

Edwin S. Stuart.

We commend the Legislature for the commend that the commend independence.

its freedom from and independence of individual and corporate control and for its important, wise and salu-

The Republican party will stand for dishonesty, graft and improper conduct.

We demand that every detail of the capital scandal be laid bare.
When the investigators shall have reported we demand of the governor the further fulfillment of his pledge and feel that we may rely upon him and his attorney general to bring the guilty to punishment.

North Carolina to Fight Railroads.

Gov. Robert B. Glenn, in an address announced that North Carolina would vigorously fight the suits of the railroads attempting to set aside the acts of the Legislature reducing freight and passenger rates. He said that this act of the railroads would still further widen the breach be-tween the people and the corpora-tions in North Carolina, and that while he regretted that the railroads had taken the course they had he felt that the reduction of rates was a just one and that all the powers of the state would be used to uphold the acts of the courts.

WEALTH OF MRS. McKINLEY

Estate Valued at Barber Sole Heir.

Mrs. M. C. Barber, sister and sole heir of Mrs. McKinley, was apopinted administrator of Mrs. McKinley's estate, which is valued at $155,000 in personal property and $67,000 in

This is exclusive of the estate the late president, which by will goes to his direct heirs after his widow's death. They are Mrs. Duncan and Miss Helen McKinley of Cleveland. Hermanus Baer, daughter of his brother, Abner McKinley.

To Start New River Line.

The Ohio river is to have a new steamboat line. The Cincinnati Packet & Pleasure Co. was incorporracket & Fleasure Co. was incorpor-ated at Cincinnal with $15,000 capi-tal, to carry freight and passengers on the Ohio river, and other waters. Attorney M. C. Lykins, Jos. Gerson, Thos. L. West and others are the incorporators. Three boats will be purchased and run from Pittsburg to Terror Along Coast.

The steamship Anslem, which arrived at New Orleans from Puerto Dis- Barrios, Guatemala, reports that a spected.

KNOX WOULD ACCEPT

Pays Graeful Tribute to Mr. Roose velt in Announcing His Candidacy for President.

Senator Knox, who is stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, learned of his indorsement by the Harrisburg convention through the press dispatches. Having read these, including an abstract of the platform adopted, he said:
"I am deeply sensible of the great honor done me by my fellow Republicans of Pennsylvania.

"In their convention, composed of "In their convention, composed of delegates elected directly by the peo-ple, they have increased my many obligations to them by coupling with the indorsement of the administra-tion of Theodore Roosevelt, the suggestion of my name as his succes note the convention's reference "I note the convention's reference to the fact that as attorney general and senator I was privileged to aid in the formulation and carrying into legislation and judicial decision those just policies for the protection of the people, which have so greatly endear-depreciated Proceedings and Proceedings Reasonable to the people. ed President Roosevelt to the people. I value the action of the convention approving such public service as I have been enabled to render in the past with a satisfaction, not exceeded past with a satisfaction not exceeded by my grafitude for the unsolicited pledge of support for higher honors and graver duties for the future. I have too profound a sense for the dignity of the chief magistracy and too intimate a knowledge of its labors and responsibilities to have sought this indorsement. If, however, the wishes of Pennsylvania Republicans and the reasons they assign for their action should commend sign for their action should commend themselves to the National Republi-can convention, I wand accept its action with full appreciation of its

Senator Knox added that would have nothing further to say at present concerning his candidacy.

80 FISHERMEN DROWN

Turkish Captain Blows Up His Ves-

The vessel had on board a number of rifes and 500 barrels of powder. The local authorities learned she was about to take advantage of the about the take advantage of the about the take advantage of the about the take advantage and take advantage and the take advantage and the take advantage and take advantage

It is believed the captain fired his vessel to avoid capture

BERTHA BEILSTEIN CEAD

Report That She Passed Away in Hospita! at Los Angeles.

Bertha Beilstein, the Allegheny girl who about ten years ago fur-nished the most sensational criminal case in the history of the city by killing her own mother and attempt ing her own life, and who last Oc tober escaped from Dixmont Insane tober escaped from Dixmont Insane Asylum and disappeared, died recently in the County Hospital at Los Angeles, Cal. She had lived there more than six months under the name of Olga Miller. The autopsy showed that a tumor on her brain, which had been developing for years, had affected her mind.

Victory for Hague Conference.

The refusal of a parliamentary committee to recommend the appropriation of $40,000,000 asked for by committee to recommend the appropriation of $40,000,000 asked for by the Italian war office, is considered significant. The committee recommends a grant of only $6,000,000. As the money was required for artillery, the committee's action is considered to amount practically to a reduction of armament on the eve of the meeting of The Hague conference.

DEATH IN ENDURANCE RUN

bile and Electric Car Collide.

Clarence McKenzie of New York, president of the Standard Brake Co., was killed and Howard Mosher, well-known bicyclist of Brooklyn, and another man were badly injured in a collision between their car and an Al bany & Hudson railroad electric car Clinton Heights, near Rensselaer,

The motor car was one of those en route to Albany in the 200-mile endurance run of the New York Motor Club, which began at New York.

Woman Ranks Highest in Law School Woman Hanks Highest in Law school of New York University were won by Miss Florence Edith Bruning, 20 years old, she standing first in a class of more than 100 students, of whom 96 were men. The honor carries with it a prize of $100. This is the second time in the history of the New York University law school that a woman won first honors. The previous winner was Miss Alice Dilprevious winner was Miss Alice Dillingham, in 1905.

Mayor McClellen Ignored.

By a vote of 116 to 11, the New York Assembly passed over Mayor commission's bill, putting in the hands of two commissioners complete control of all public service corporations in state and city.

The Arbutus Oil & Gas Co. of Indiana, Pa., was incorporated at Doer, Del., by Harry W. Wilson, J. Wilson and Jos. W. Clements. The capital stock is $100,000.

TOLD OF DREADFUL CRIMES

Witness in Haywood Case Tells an Awful Story.

TELLS STORY WITHOUT FEELING

Claims He Was in Communication With Others Who Aided Him and Commended His Work.

Alfred Horsley, alias Harry Orchard, the actual assassin of Frank Steunenberg, went on the stand at Boise, Idaho, as a witness against Wm. D. Haywood and made public confession of a long chain of brutal, revolting crimes committed, he said. at the inspiration and for the pay of the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners.

An undertaking by the special prosecution that they would by later proof and connection make his testimony legitimate, opened the way like a floodgate to the whole story, and throughout the entire day Orchard work on the story and the story was the force weight with the story was the story was the story with the story was the story with the story was the story was the story was the story with the story was the stor ard went on from crime rec ne that preceded.

Orchard confessed that as a member of the mob-that wrecked the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine in the Couer d'Alenes he lighted one of the fuses that carried fire to the giant powder explosion; confessed that he set the death tray in the Visiliants. set the death trap in the Vindicator mine at Cripple Creek that blew out the lives of Superintendent McCormine at Cripple Creek that blew out the lives of Superintendent McCor-mick and Foreman Beck; confessed that because he had not been paid for his first attempt at violence in the Vindicator mine he had been treacherous to his associates by warming the managers of the Florence & Cripple Creek railway that there was a plot to blow up their trains; confessed that he cruelly fixed three charges of buckshot into the body of charges of buckshot into the body of Detective Lyte Gregory of Denve killing him instantly; confessed the contraland ammunition and bound for Tripoli, has been blown up in the vicinity of Port Zarziss. Her entire crew, as well as 80 fishermen, who were alongside at the time, were drowned.

The vessel had on board a number of the contralation of the properties of the charges of buckshot into the body of Detective Lyte Gregory of Denve killing him instantly; confessed that for days—he stalked Gov. Peabody of Colorado about Denver awaiting the and Sfeve Adams set and dicharged the mine under the static at Independence that instantly killing him instantly killing him instantly.

about to take advantage of the absence of the guardships to try to disembark her cargo on the beach.

They thereupon ordered a number of armed boats belonging to sponge fishers to prevent the landing Twenty-four of these boats went out and surrounded the vessel, and the men from them were just about to swarm aboard when a terrific explosion occurred.

It is helieved the captain fired his

-Harry Orchard crowned his admis-Harry Orchard crowned his admissions of grave crimes when, continuing testimony against Wm. D. Haywood, he made a detailed confession of the murder of Frank Steunenbers by an infernal machine that directly opens the way for his own conviction and execution.

He swore that the assassination of Steunenberg was first suggested by

He swore that the assassination of Steinenberg was first suggested by Haywood; was ploted by Haywood, Moyer, Pettibone and himself; was financed by Haywood and was exe-cuted by himself after the failure of an attempt in which Jack Simp-line hed participated.

of an attempt in which kins had participated.

Orchard lifted the total of his own murdered victims to 18 and detailed the circumstances under which he circumstances former Governor Gab. tried to murder former Governor Peabody, Judge Goodard, Judge Gabbert, General Sherman Bell, Dave Moffat and Frank Herne. Incidentally he confessed to a plan to kidnap the child of over of his former associates.

former associates.

Then, under cross-examination by the defense, Orchard confessed to deserting his young child and wife in Ontario, fleeing to British Columbia with Hattie Simpson, wife of another man, and committing bigamy by marrying a third woman at Cripple Creek. It was when he deserted his wife that he changed his name from Horsley to Orchard. Horsley to Orchard,

LETTER CARRIER 55 YEARS

Manufacturer Killed When Automo- Eighty-Year-Old Ohioan Easily Trips Over Route Twenty-two

Miles Long.

Miles Long.

Elijah P. Wright, who carries the mail on rural delivery route No. 2 from South Columbus to Shadeville, O., probably is the oldest mail carrier in the country, in point of service, as well as age. Mr. Wright is said to be 80 years old, and has delivered the United States mails for 55 years haying served on a private 55 years, having served on a private route prior to his appointment as a rural carrier in 1901, when his route included in the rural delivery service.

He is hale and hearty and regularly covers his route, which is about 22 miles long.

A tornado swept over New Minden, Ill., killing five persons and seriously injuring several others. A score were bruised by debris. A number of houses were demolished.

A dozen families were made home less and several persons were injured by a tornado that passed through Pleasant Valley, Iowa, Sunday.

Will Execute Twelve Prisoners.

According to a telegram received 12 of the 19 men condemned to death McClellan's veto the public utilities by court martial proceedings because of an alleged attempt on the life of President Cabrera of Guatelama, will

> The Pennsylvania railroad announce ed that, while it is confident the two-cent fare bill will be nullified by the courts, it prepares for an adverse do-cision by ceasing to sell cheap rate-tickets good after October 1.

NEW RAILROAD

Will Cross the Hoosier State and Pass Through Coal Territory.

A new railroad company has just been financed to build a line across Indiana A Pittsburg firm will do the work. J. B. Carter, who was located in Pittsburg for a number of years, and who is at the head of the Carter Construction Co., which built a number of local railroads, is president of the new railroad company. Wm. Kenefick of Kansas City, who is also identified with the Carter Company, is one of the principal backers of the company.

Mr. Kenefick has succeeded in financing the Chicago, Indianapolis & Evansville to the extent of $15,000, 400, the money being obtained on a mortgage to the Wesern Trust & Savings Co. of Chicago. This assures the building of the new line, which the work. J. B. Carter, who was lo-awings Co. or Chicago. This assures to building of the new line, which is to run the length of Indiana, taping rich coal, stone and oil terribry. The main line will extend from Evansville, Ind., to Chicago, buching Indianapolis, with branches touching Indianapolis, with branches from Crown Point to Gary, from Logansport to South Bend, and from Boonsville to Owensboro, Ky. The principal terminal of the road will be at Gary, where a big steel plant is to be completed next year by the United States Steel Corporation. The new road will enter Chicago over the Chicago Belt Line on equal terms with other Chicago railroads.

CAR OF POWDER LETS GO

Several Sightseers Attracted by Fire Blown to Fragments.

At least five persons are dead as the result of an explosion of a car-load of giant powder on the Chicago, Indiana & Southern Railroad at Red-dick III dick, Ill A car loaded with matches caught A car loaded with matches caught fre and a crowd gathered. It is sup-posed, the burning matches set off the the powder in the adjoining car. The bodies of the dead were torn to fragments. The explosion was felt for 20 miles.

Spiritualist, Weds Vanderbilt

Spiritualist, Weds Vanderbilt.

There was general surprise in Brooklyn when cards were received by many residents there announcing that the Rev. Mrs. Mary Scannel Pepper, a well-known Spiritualist, that been married on Saturday last to Edward Ward Vanderbilt. Mr. Vanderbilt, who is 65 years old, is a wealthy lumberman, and lives at 197, Waverly avenue. Mrs. Pepper has a handsome home at 587-St. Marks avenue, Brooklyn.

American Express Gets New Roads.

Beginning July 1 the American Ex-ress Co. will operate the express usiness exclusively on the Lake hore & Michigan Southern and Lake trie & Western roads. At present the American Express operates on the Lake Shore only from Buffalo to Usyseland, the remainder of the road Cleveland, the remainder of the road and the Lake Erie & Western being operated by the United States Ex-Hoosier Miners Quit. The executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, Eleventh district, ordered about 5,000 miners strike. President Vanhorn of the to strike. President vannorn of the miners said the strike will involve 1,400 men of the Deming mines, 1,000 in the-Shirley Hill mines, 1,500 in the Coal Bluff Co.'s mines, 800 in the Jackson Hill mines and 500 in the Jackson Hill mines and 500 in the South Indiana Railway mines. There are eight or ten grievances of the miners. Sentence for Oleomargarine Fraud. Johnson R. Morris was sentenced to imprisonment for two years and was fined $6,100 by Judge Treiber in the United States District Court at St. Louis, Mo., for selling colored oleomargarine without paying the government tax. The government charged that Morris had defrauded it out of $9,000 in taxes.

Mrs. Helen M. Gougar Dead. Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, the well-known temperance leader and lecturer, dropped dead at her home in Lafayette, Ind., of heart failure. She was 70 years old, and for many years had been a leading temperance agitator.

CURRENT NEWS ITEMS.

Richard Croker's Orby, ridden by ohnny Reiff, won the Derby stakes if sixty-five hundred sovereigns at Johnny Reiff, wor of sixty-five hun Epsom, England.

Five persons were killed injured, four probably fatally, in a wreck on the Cuban Eastern Railroad mear Guantanamo. One car loaded with workmen rolled down a steep embankment.

At a dinner and reception given in London by Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Choate, the ex-Ambassador had the opportunity or renewing his friendships with English leaders.

Girl Note-Raiser Gets Five Years.

Girl Note-Raiser Gets Five Years.

Miss Dessie L. Bond, aged 26, pleaded guilty in the United States Court at Baltimore, Md., to note-raising, and was sentenced to five years in jail at hard labor. Miss Bond was treasurer of a church conference fund, and raised a $10 bank note to $100 with ciphers cut from action yets. other notes.

Negro Slain by Posse. Geo. Hudson, a notorious negro, was killed at Trenton, S. C., by a posse of white and negro men who had searched for him since Sunday morning. Hudson entered the house of Will Mickins Saturday night and struck down Mickins and his wife, leaving them unconscious on the floor. The woman gave the afarm a few hours later and a search was begun. Hudson was shot while resisting his pursuers in a swamp near