There is no case of indigestion, no matter how irritable or how obstinate that will not be speedily relieved by the use of Kodol. Just after Mr. A. J. Sembower, a merchant at Markleton, had closed his place of business for the evening, he was alarmed by a knock at the front door. Thinking some customer had gotten there a little late, he looked out the window, when he saw a masked man make another powerful lunge against the door. Seeing a revolver pointed at his head, he retreated, and later discovered two others in the background. While the merchant was assembling his arsenal for a vigorous defense, the besiegers left in the darkness. Mr. Sembower thinks, from the description given of the men who entered the store of Merchant L. L. Weimer, of Casselman, an account of which was given in last week's Leader, that they are the same individuals. The parties suspected are known, and it is hoped they will soon be brought to justice.—Rockwood Leader.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 7-1

Body of an Unknown Man Found Lodged on a Rock in the Casselman River.

While Bruce Uphouse and Walter Wilkins, citizens of Casselman, were on their way to work at the Southern Coal Company's Mines, they discovered the body of a man lodged in midstream of Casselman river, against a rock, one mile west of Casselman. These gentlemen immediately returned to Casselman and informed "Squire" Harrah, who accompanied them to the place of the discovery.

This fatality seems to have happened some time during Tuesday night. The dead man seems to be about 40 years of age, medium height, weighing about 160 lbs., and evidently a working man, because of callous hands. There was no means of identification about his person. Some of the citizens of Casselman claim to have seen him on the streets, yesterday. The body was turned over to Undertaker Jacob Snyder, of Rockwood, who prepared it for burial, says the Rockwood Leader.

CURED HEMORRHAGES OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all Druggists. 7-1

Another Casselman Hold-Up.

Late Saturday evening when Mr. Harrison Bittner, who owns the Casselman meat market, closed his market, and started for his home in Black township, on the heights opposite Casselman, he was held up by two masked men at the Northern approach to the county bridge that spans the Casselman river above Casselman.

The masked villains emerged from behind the embankment, and pointing two revolvers at Mr. Bittner, ordered him to throw up his hands. Mr. Bittner not only failed to raise his hands, but whipped out his own revolver and fired at his assailants. The masked men returned fire, but shielded their bodies behind the embankment.

Mr. Bittner emptied his revolver at the crouching figures behind the embankment, and the would-be robbers emptied their weapons, ten shots in all, at Mr. Bittner, none of the shots wounding him, but one shot went through the brim of Mr. Bittner's hat. Mr. Bittner, when the fusillade had exhausted the ammunition of the highwaymen, started across the bridge, reloading his revolver; but the robbers did not further pursue him.

There is a gang of desperadoes in the Casselman region who need the immediate attention of a county detective—if Somerset county's administration of justice were not too antiquated to afford something like a competent detective service. The people of Somerset county must assert their right to the law's protection, or there will be further murders committed, and more murder trials to prove abortive of results.—Rockwood Leader.

BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Sixteen Year Old Girl Bound and Gagged.

A news dispatch from Cumberland, Md., dated June 22nd, says: "Possessed with bloodhounds, stout ropes, etc., searched the woods west of here tonight for an unknown man who committed an inhuman assault upon 16 year old Nellie Ott, whom he left with her arms outstretched and tied to two trees, her eyes blindfolded and a rough handkerchief stuffed in her mouth, in the deep forest on a mountain side today."

"The girl remained bound for two hours, so frightened and so weak she was unable to move. At length she worked the gag out of her mouth and with her teeth gnawed in two the cords that bound her. John Ott, her father, is at the head of one of the searching parties. If they come upon the man it is believed he will be lynched."

Races at Meyersdale on the Fourth.

Prospects for some excellent races at the Fair grounds at Meyersdale, July 4th, are very good. There are at this time twenty race horses at the grounds, and the public may look forward to some exciting races. This will be true of the running race and the colt race. There will be five starters in the colt race, and as they will be half-mile heats, best three out of five, it will be hard to pick a winner. These are all colts that have never been driven in a race before, and as they are either owned at Meyersdale or at Salisbury, a great deal of interest is centering about it. William Knecht, of West Salisbury, Norman Keim, of Elk Lick, Charley May, of Salisbury, Harvey Stahl and S. S. Rickard, of Meyersdale, all have colts that will start.

There will be four starters in the 2-25 pace or trot, and there may be the fifth horse in this race. "Lady Smith," "Dudley," "Margaret W." and "Web Good" are among the starters in this class.

The race of the day will be between "Swift and True," owned by Clayton Stotler, of Salisbury, and "Oregon," owned by Harvey Koeppel, of Meyersdale, and as there is a large side bet up between these owners, it will be a race for blood.

There will be plenty of good music during the races. There will be a boys' foot race, a sack race, a potato race, a greased pole and other amusements sandwiched in to make up an afternoon's sport. Go to Meyersdale on the Fourth, and thoroughly enjoy yourself.

TAKE NOTICE.

Now is the time to take out a policy with the Continental Casualty Company, health and accident insurance. Do it now, before it is too late. The time to think of these things is when you are in good health, not when some misfortune has overtaken you. It is too late then to think of how you threw dime after dime away foolishly, and did not lay anything aside to tide you over your misfortunes, which are sure to come sooner or later.

The cost of this sick and accident insurance is a mere trifle when compared with the benefits. If every man would make proper provisions for himself and his family when he is sick or hurt, he would be doing his full duty by himself and family, and the poor houses and charity hospitals of this country would not be overflowing, as they are at the present time.

This company has organized a local club in this vicinity, and has enlisted quite a bunch of men, mostly business men. Why do the business men go into it? Because they are well satisfied they are going into one of the strongest companies of its kind, the old, reliable Continental.

Through the company organizing here, it is more convenient for the working class, and everything will be looked after promptly. Now, men, it is up to you to decide on this. Are you going to lay aside $1.00 per month for a time when you need it badly? Better insure at once, and be on the safe side.
