When the Hair Falls

Then it's time to act! No time to study, to read, to experiment! You want to save your hair, and save it quickly, too! So make up your mind this very minute that if your hair ever comes out you will use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the scalp healthy. The hair stays in. It cannot do anything else. It's nature's way.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

NEWSY ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE, WITH AN OCCASIONAL JOKE ADDED FOR SPICE.

The workman who is afraid of working himself out of a job often succeeds in doing so.

Miss Alice Beal went to Confluence, Tuesday, for a week's visit with relatives at that place.

A Methodist reunion will be held at Rockwood, next Thursday. The reformed reunion is held there today.

Mrs. J. L. Beachy, of McKeesport, Pa., and Mr. Griffin, of Glassport, Pa., are visiting Salisbury friends, this week.

Miss Ada Beachley, of Johnstown, Pa., arrived here last week for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Keim.

Miss Berta Baumgardner, who had been teaching school in Morgantown, W. Va., arrived at her home in Salisbury, last Friday.

The Leesville (Col.) Light tells how the members of a lodge at Leesville "turned out enthusiastically" at a funeral of a lodge brother.

There is no liar on earth equal to the man who pretends that he doesn't mind being bow-legged or red-haired, says the Hyndman Bulletin.

On Wednesday of last week the Misses Adaline and Elsie Boucher went to Milton, Pa., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Billmeyer, and daughter.

V. L. Blocher returned from Baltimore, recently, and is again clerking in E. H. Miller's drug store, where he will remain for a couple of weeks only.

Mr. and Mrs. Zobel, of Washington, D. C., arrived here several days ago for a visit with Mrs. Zobel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Haselbarth, and other friends.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel-capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 9-1

George Krause returned to Pittsburg, last Sunday, to resume work at carpentering. He came home with typhoid fever, some time ago, but it didn't take him long to recover.

An English daily had the following advertisement: "Wanted—A gentleman to undertake the sale of a patent medicine. The advertiser guarantees it will be profitable to the undertaker."

Ernest Livengood has just returned from a trip to Franklin and Oil City, Pa., where he went with Hon. Ira Milliron, last week, in the latter's automobile. Ernest reports a very pleasant trip.

With thanks the editor of this paper acknowledges a complimentary ticket to the evening entertainments of the Great Grangers' Picnic Exhibition, at Williams Grove, Pa., Aug. 26 to 31st, 1907.

Some men point out the silver lining in a cloud, then borrow your umbrella before the rain starts, says an exchange. Yes, and they usually borrow it without asking, and generally fail to return it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stotler went to Johnstown, Pa., last Thursday, on business. The train they were riding on struck Hiram Blough, an aged farmer, at Holsopple, injuring him so badly that he died the same day.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is sold under a positive guarantee to cure constipation, sick headache, stomach trouble, or any form of indigestion. If it fails, the manufacturers refund your money. What more can any one do. Sold by all Druggists. 9-1

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth, Miss Hattie Haselbarth and Miss Lottie Boyer went to the Chautauque, at Mt. Lake Park, Md., last Thursday, to remain a week. Mrs. Haselbarth took a bad cold, however, and on Monday she and her husband returned home.

One hundred and seventy-six thousand farmers in the northwest have pledged themselves to sell wheat at not less than $1 a bushel. When the price drops below that figure they will store their wheat in steel bins, erected on their farms, each holding 2,000 bushels.

If parents would keep their children off the streets late at night, they would feel better satisfied, and it would be a good thing for the boys and girls. A street education will never fit young America for a place of trust and responsibility, wisely remarks an observing exchange.

Don't accept a cough-cure that you may be told is just as good as Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, because it isn't just as good—there is quite a difference. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and clears the whole system of coughs and colds. It promptly relieves inflammation of the throat and allays irritation. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

On Monday Frank Maust, E. H. Miller, John L. Beachy and Harvey Fogle went to the Patomac, somewhere below Cumberland, to fish for bass. We haven't learned whether they took Overholt, Topper or just plain red eye along for bait. Well, we wish them a good catch, anyway.

We acknowledge with thanks the honor of being appointed on the publicity staff of the Maryland Home-Coming Association, of which Governor Warfield, of Maryland, is chairman. We greatly appreciate the honor, and will do all we can to make the occasion one to the credit of Maryland, our native state.

John Riah, a prominent dealer of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

The Farm Journal says: "Encourage the country merchant, stand by all the village artifices, back up every neighborhood enterprise, keep the cash at home and in circulation at home, maintain all village life in full vigor, and so promote your individual welfare and that of the community in which you live."

A Grantsville young lady recently had a quarrel with her beau, and returned to him all the letters and little gifts she had received from him during their courtship. He, not to be outdone, sent her a half-dozen boxes of face powder, and with them a note explaining that he had probably carried that much away on his coat collar.

Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

Remember the Lutheran Reunion at Edgewood Grove, Somerset, on Tuesday, Aug. 27th. Fine speeches by Revs. L. B. Wolf, D. D., of India, Chas. P. MacLaughlin, of Meyersdale, and Henderson N. Miller, Ph. D., of Columbus, Ohio. Berlin's famous band will furnish music. Extra coaches on trains from Berlin, Confluence and Johnstown.

According to a recent rumor, a very mean man lives in Meyersdale. At a dance he spied a girl put her chewing gum under a chair when she started to waltz. Taking the gum he spread it out, inserted a piece of tobacco, rolled the gum up again, and stuck it under the chair. When she put the gum in her mouth again and the tobacco began to work, she was too homesick to dance any more.

People who wish to take advantage of the new postal law regarding special delivery by placing ten cents worth of ordinary stamps on a letter, in addition to the regular postage, must not fail to write the words: "Special delivery" somewhere on the face of the envelope, otherwise their ten cents is thrown away, the letter being delivered in the ordinary way and not by special delivery as intended.

Seventy-five persons who placed writing in Fourth class mail matter were fined $10 each by United States Attorney Dunkle, in Pittsburg, in one week. Coupon fiends are the offenders. In sending coupons to companies that give prizes, directions are invariably placed in the packages. Do not write on that class of mail matter, as the Postoffice department is keeping a close watch on mail of that class.

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by E. H. Miller. 9-1

There is nothing unfair in judging a community by the newspapers it supports. When you find a country paper well edited, neatly printed and well filled with live advertisements, your first impression of that place is favorable. There must be some live people in such a community. But if it is a shabby-looking sheet, minus news, "ads" and interesting matter, there must be a serious lack of the elements that go to make a place worth living in.—Ex.

Wm. P. Cochrane and D. I. Hay have returned from Kentucky, where they had been to take a look at a coal mining property, they are interested in. They report themselves well pleased with the property, and they also like the country. W. S. Martin and Port Hartline, who went with them, remained. Mr. Cochrane will also return to the Blue Grass state in the near future. We understand he and Martin will supervise the running of the mine and greatly increase its output.

After all that has been said or can be said about the big mail order houses, the simple fact remains that they get the business by thorough and persistent advertising, showing cuts of goods and giving prices. If home merchants would take the same methods, much of the trade now going to the mail order houses in cities would come to them. A man we know recently made up a list of tools and hardware from one of the mail order catalogs and took it to a home dealer to get prices. He was surprised to find that he could get the same articles at home for less money, save the express charges, and also see the goods he was buying.—Ex.

Exaggeration and misstatement of facts are the evils of the day. It is a habit with some people; they do it unconsciously. This habit is not confined to the people of any particular age or class. The story is told of a girl who became so accustomed to exaggeration and misstatement that nobody could believe her, and her parents were greatly annoyed by the unfortunate reputation she was acquiring. One afternoon her mother said to her: "Now, listen, Lillian, and heed my words. What has happened to one sinner may easily happen to another; you know what happened to Ananias and Sapphira, don't you?" "Yes, I do; they fell dead on a street corner; I saw them carried into a drug store."

William A. Gibson, of the C. & P. Telephone Co., Monday came into possession of a paper dollar with the following inscription written in ink: "This is the last dollar of a fifty-thousand dollar fortune left me," and signed "Kid" Sullivan. Kid Sullivan is a native of Washington, and at various times has fought for the lightweight championship in the prize ring. It is said that Sullivan was left the above amount of money, and that the dollar bill referred to represents the tail end of that fortune. Mr. Gibson, it is said, will have the money framed. The same dollar bill was in this city, three years ago, at which time it was in the possession of C. A. Smeltz.—Cumberland Evening Times.

Mr. C. K. Rumiser and Miss Ella Reitz were recently married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Kann, in Pittsburg. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reitz, of this place, and it can be truthfully said of her that she is one of Salisbury's best young women. The groom was born and reared near Berlin, but he is well known in Salisbury, having worked here for several years. He is an excellent young man, and now holds a good position with a plumbing firm in Duquesne, Pa., where he went to learn his trade a couple of years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Rumiser have our best wishes for a long, pleasant and prosperous matrimonial career. They were here on a visit for a few days, but are now visiting at the groom's home, near Berlin.

Considerable news matter must go by the board, this week, owing to the fact that the editor and his eldest daughter start for the seashore, this morning, and there has been much job printing and other work to get out of the way first. We expect to visit Atlantic City, Philadelphia, Elizabeth, N. J., New York, Boston, Albany and other interesting places during the next ten days. The paper will be left in charge of our efficient assistant, Mr. John O. Johnston, who will do the best he can during our absence to give you the local news and do such other work as he may have to do. Do not expect too much of him, for he will have much to do; but make his editorship as easy as possible by reporting to him such news as you happen to come across. We will also help him some at long range, and in that way we think the paper can be kept pretty close up to its usual standard.
