For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the blood is in proper condition. A sluggish liver gives a coated tongue, bad breath, constipated bowels. Get rid of these by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar coated.

A story is told of a Bradford county politician (the sharp and shifty kind) who was urged by his wife to hoe the garden. He could not think of any very good excuse, so he went at it. Soon he came in with a silver quarter he said he had found. He washed it, put it in his pocket and went back. In a few minutes he showed up with another coin, this time a half-dollar. He said there must be a buried treasure in that garden. Then he unearthed a couple of dimes and another quarter. Being tired, he announced his intention of taking a nap, and duly went to sleep. When he awoke his wife had a dangerous look in her eye, but the garden was all hoed.

An old woman from the country bought three boxes of matches from her grocer in town. It rained when she was going home, and the matches became so damp that not one of them would strike. On the following Saturday she took the matches back to the grocer and upbraid him for selling such useless stuff. The grocer took out one or two and struck them quite easily on the leg of his trousers, for by this time the matches had become perfectly dry. But the old woman did not think of this explanation, and exclaimed: "Tut, tut! That's not good enough for me. I can't tramp six miles to your trousers every time I want to strike a match. Give me three boxes of a kind I can light at home."—Ex.

We are apt to think that a great city containing the comforts and elegancies of modern life, cannot exist without railroads at its gates. Bogota, the capital of the republic of Colombia is an exception. Having a population of 125,000, fine residences, excellent schools and colleges, literary, artistic and musical societies, elegant society that knows the Parisian fashions. Bogota lies on a plateau which no railroad has yet reached. There is, however, a short railroad on the plateau itself; but to get to it by the most used route, one must journey two and a half days on muleback. Another way to approach, reducing the mule ride to seven or eight hours, requires several days of river navigation. But the railroad is coming, although late.—Ex.

That the sheep industry is waning is pretty evident from the fact that dogs are becoming more numerous than sheep. Some of the counties in Pennsylvania have already paid out for killed and wounded sheep all the money that was assessed and collected from the people who own dogs. The dog tax forms the sheep fund, and when this becomes exhausted, no more sheep claims can be paid. It is also evident, too, that unless hundreds of these worthless dogs are killed in every county, sheep will become extinct just as the buffaloes did by the reckless Indians. Years ago persons could see flocks of sheep on every farm. Now you seldom see any; but in place of these sheep you can always see scores of one-cent dogs. In fact, dogs are so numerous in some counties that they outnumber the population. Save the sheep.—Ligonier American.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite, but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by E. H. Miller. 10-1

One hour a day withdrawn from frivolous pursuits, and profitably employed, would enable any man of ordinary capacity to master a complete science. One hour a day would make an ignorant man a well informed man in ten years. One hour a day would earn enough to pay for two daily and two weekly papers, two leading magazines and a dozen good books. In an hour a day a boy or girl could read twenty pages thoughtfully—over seven thousand pages of eighteen large volumes in a year. An hour a day might make all the difference between bare existence and useful, happy living. An hour a day might make—may, has made an unknown man a famous one, a useless one a benefactor to his race. Consider, then, the mighty possibilities of two, four, six, eight hours a day that are, on the average, thrown away by some of our young men and women in their desire for fun and diversion.—Oakland Republican.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc. A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 10-1

There is no class of people more favorably situated for easily profiting by the growing of nuts than the farmers. They have the land in odd corners of fields, along lanes and public roads, about the farm buildings, where trees of any kind could be planted to improve the appearance of the farm and really enhance its selling value. In the selection of trees for shade or ornament, nothing fills the requirements better than the nut tree suited to the locality. In the New England states the hickory nut is available; in the Central states and along mountain ranges, even into Southern territory, the chestnut is well adapted to the soil and climate; in the Central west and in the great river basins, the walnut and hickory are important native forest trees, which have been ruthlessly destroyed, while further south and along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts the pecan is in its home. All of these trees will yield rich dividends in time, are ornaments for years to come, and are all valuable for timber.—Ex.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Many Killed in Coal Mines.

More than 1,000 persons were killed last year in the coal mines of Pennsylvania, according to the report of the department of mines. The statistics show that of 557 persons killed at anthracite mines, 274 deaths were the result of the victims' carelessness; 69 due to carelessness of others; 188 were unavoidable, and 26 resulted from accidents for which responsibility could not be fixed.

Of the 447 killed at bituminous mines, 307 victims died from their own carelessness; 10 by the carelessness of others; 142 deaths unavoidable, and 18 were due to accidents for which responsibility could not be placed.

SUDDEN ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.

A prominent lady of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes to inquire where she can obtain Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She says: "While stopping at a ranch in South Dakota I was taken ill of what seemed to be cholera. They gave me some of this medicine and it cured me. I brought a bottle home and have just used the last of it today. Mother was taken suddenly ill of dysentery and it helped her immediately." For sale at E. H. Miller's Drug Store. 10-1

Should Take Pride In It.

Every Pennsylvanian, born or adopted, should take pride in the magnificent showing made by the Keystone State in the production of coal.

Pennsylvania has long been preeminent among her sister states by reason of her mineral resources, but few are prepared to think that one-sixth of the total coal production of the civilized world comes from the shafts of the Keystone State. We are not far behind Great Britain in coal production, and in this country our lead is unquestioned.

It is also gratifying to note that the Pennsylvania miner is surrounded by better and more perfected safeguards than those of any other state, and that, especially in the anthracite region, steps are being taken to insure that speedy and efficient aid which often saves life through promptness. Mr. Roderick mentioned the advance made in this respect in the hard coal region and most wisely stated his hope that before long the soft coal operators will provide the same facilities.—Harrisburg Telegraph.
