NORTH DAKOTA LETTER.

M. P. Lichty Again Heard from After a Long Silence.

ZION, N. D., Sept. 13, 1907.

EDITOR STAR:—As this is a rainy day with us, I will seize the opportunity to write a short article for your worthy paper and for the satisfaction of many of my old acquaintances who are likely eager readers of the "Merry Twinkler." And for once again I wish others from the various sections of this great commonwealth would occasionally send in a communication for publication. It would make the old home paper all the more enjoyable reading to former residents of the grand old "burg" and Elk Lick township. I have often wished that the town could or would drop the present name and adopt the name of Elk Lick, for Salisbury always did seem to be a misnomer.

Just now we are in the midst of our busy season, harvesting and threshing. All shock grain is cut, but most flax is standing yet. However, it is ready for the sickle. For the past few days a wet spell has set in, and there is a general cessation from all kinds of field work. The numerous thresher hands have an opportunity to try their marksmanship on the prairie grouse and wild ducks.

Game seems to be quite plentiful, this season, as the summer season was dry, and many fine coveys of birds were hatched, so also jackrabbits and squirrels.

The crops, however, are below the average, this year, because of the lateness of the spring season, followed later with dry weather, and damaging frosts in August three nights in succession, just at the milk stage of the kernel. The great grain experts claim that North and South Dakota and Minnesota, at best, will have only a two-thirds crop, this year. We also had very violent wind storms of late that whipped out a goodly per cent. of the ripening grain. Early barley caught it bad, only making a yield of 15 bushels per acre; oats, 20 to 30; wheat, 10 to 20.

Of course, the yield varies all over the great Northwest, from very poor to good. However, the prices are good, which will largely make up for the shortage yieldings. Here at Zion the crops are about as good as anywhere in the great wheat belt. As we have mostly fine upland and dry, the quality is comparatively good. On the whole we have no special kick to offer, but feel thankful for what we have.

Our telephone lines are about all up and the phones are nearly all in. Soon we'll have a "hello" of a time.

Several of my Beeghly relatives, Mrs. Anna Clark and her brother Mahlon Beeghly, are getting themselves ready for the Beeghly reunion of the former "Johnny Beeghly" farm, near Ashland, Ohio. The day is set for the 27th of this month.

As for myself and my sister, we have enjoyed good health all summer.

We enjoyed many good meetings of friends who were visitors here, this summer, some of whom we had not seen for 10 or 12 years, and some strangers, who proved to be agreeable and pleasant callers. But I must "say off," as the mail is ready to leave in a minute. Yours, M. P. Lichty.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY
ONE OF THE BEST ON THE MARKET.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold at E. H. Miller's Drug Store. 10-1

Tom Daugherty Struck by a Locomotive and Badly Injured.

Tom Daugherty, of this place, who for some time has been in the employ of the B. & O. Railroad Company, working with a gang of bridge carpenters near Fair Hope, Pa., was struck by a locomotive and badly injured, Wednesday evening of last week.

He and some other men had been at work on a bridge on one of the main tracks, and while the bridge was undergoing repairs, trains would pass from one track to the other track by means of a switch connecting the two tracks at each end of the bridge. On the day of the accident some person either through malice or ignorance turned one of the switches, causing an empty engine to run across the bridge undergoing repairs.

Daugherty and one of his fellow workmen were struck by the locomotive and hurled down an embankment a distance of some forty feet. Both were more or less hurt, but we are glad to note that neither of them had any bones broken. Daugherty was hurt far the worst of the two, but while his injuries were very severe, they consisted of bruises and cuts from which he is recovering nicely, but he will not be able to do any work for a week or ten days yet. He was unconscious for a good while, and after spending a few days in the Cumberland Hospital, was brought home.

Tom looks a good deal like the traditional bull that tried to butt the locomotive off the bridge, but he stood the awful jar better than the bull did, and he is now able to be out walking around.

LOST AND FOUND.

To Be a Great Event.

Next week, Tuesday, September 24th, the Great Meyersdale Fair and Races open a four-days meeting, September 24, 25, 26 and 27, and this promises to be the greatest in the history of the association. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad is making a very low rate from all points between and including Johnstown, Connellyville and Cumberland, and these tickets will be placed on sale the 24th, and are good returning until the 28th, the day after the fair closes.

There will be a large field of high grade race horses, and the purses offered, $400 each, insure some very fast racing. There will be two harness races and one run each day.

The society will offer as a free attraction, this year, the Royal Tokyo Troupe of Japanese, eight in number, and they will do eight different and distinct fifteen-minute acts during the afternoon. They are well worth the price of admission. The Salisbury Band and the Citizens' Band of Meyersdale, will furnish plenty of good music. Go to Meyersdale and thoroughly enjoy yourselves these four days.

IT IS BAD BUSINESS to allow people to look in vain through the columns of THE STAR for an advertisement of your business. 11
