PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—cacaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Itseffect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely its surely conaliges the blood circus. though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circu-

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a sertainty, for Dr. Shood's Headache Tablets stop tin 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute a unnatural-blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and cell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's constion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain—always. It's simply Common Sense.

VETERANS AROUSED

Old Soldiers Quickly Block a Democratic Trick.

THEY INDORSE MR. SHEATZ

War Veterans With Resolutions and Ringing Speeches Line Up With Enthusiasm For the Republican Nominee For State Treasurer.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 17. Democratic campaign managers have been foiled in an attempt to trick the old soldiers of Pennsylvania into opposing John O. Sheats, the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

They had a cleverly planned game to spread broadcast stories that Mr. Sheatz was not a friend of the men who fought for the Stars and Stripes when the honor and continuance of the Union was at stake.

They sought to use the veto of the soldiers' pension bill by Governor Stuart to the detriment of Mr. Sheats, and to that end they had Democratic politicians, who happened to have served in the Union army, help along their scheme.

Early in the canvass there was a circular distributed which emanated from men identified with the Democratic machine of Lycoming county. attacking Mr. Sheats upon the soldier

The receipt of these circulars by old soldiers throughout the state stirred up a storm of indignation. Protests began to come from every section. Republicans connected with the Grand Army of the Republic quickly denounced the game of the Bourbon politicians.

The subject was the principal topic of discussion at every gathering of War Veterans Take Action.

The temper of the great body of soldiers of the Keystone state was forcibly expressed at a meeting held in Philadelphia, when the following reso-lution was adopted amid an outburst of applause:

"The War Veterans' Club of Philadelphia resolves that in John O. Sheatz, the candidate of the Republican party for state treasurer, we have a true friend, and one who is ever ready and willing to serve the veteran, his widow and or-

'We cordially indorse him for has been nominated, knowing that if elected he will fill the position with honor and credit to himself and a benefit to the people. He is an honorable and capable man, with a stainless reputation, and we call upon our comrades throughout the state to use their influence and all honorable means secure his election and make his majority, as we believe it will be, overwhelming." General St. Clair A. Mulholland, U. pension agent, made a speech, in which he called upon his comrades to do their utmost to disabuse the minds of those old soldiers who had already been influenced by the Democratic campaign literature and to enlighten them concerning Mr. Sheatz's attitude toward the pension bill.

General Mulholland explained that Democrats in Williamsport are circu-lating a pamphlet in which Mr. Sheatz is malignantly blamed for the failure of the passage of the pension bill. Said the general: "There was never a movement more blind; never one more, I might even say more blasphemous, than that on the part of cer-tain Democrats to defeat John O.

"Mr. Sheatz is the friend, if they but know it, of every veteran in Penn-sylvania. That man who blames him for the governor's veto of the pension bill is politically blind. Those of us who can see know that he had no hand in the matter, and we are indorsing heart and soul, all the time."

General Latta Speaks Out.

General James W. Latta also spoke, and he used no uncertain terms in re-ferring to those who are opposed to the election of Mr. Sheatz.

"It is a singular thing to me," said the general, "that while practically everybody in this state is heartly in the general. favor of John O. Sheatz for the treas urership, a few old Democrats, soldiers, the very men who should stand by him to the bitter end, are against him. And not only are they arrayed against him, but they are malignant and defamatory in their opposition. He will be elected, of course, but I characterize it as a singular state of affairs, it is the work of disgruntled Dem-

Dr. Henry Bullen spoke, saying that who fails to vote for Mr. Sheatz stands in his own light.

Sheatz Stands On Record. Candidate Sheatz is eager that his record in regard to the soldiers' pension bill shall be fully investigated.

"I am glad for every one to know all the facts regarding the passage of the soldiers' pension bill and of the action of the committee on appropriations, of which I was chairman," said Mr. Sheatz. "There are three men, mem-Sheatz. "There are three men, members of the Grand Army, who are doing their utmost to mislead their more confiding associates by using the names of their comrades in circulars of an entirely different nature for which their consent was given, and in fact the name of an honored Grand Army man which was used as press sent on one of these circulars set only sever attended such a meeting, but when he found that his name was being used to give strength to such glaring misstatements, immediately sent word that his name should not be used for such purposes.

Not a Party to Trickery.

"The few men who are making the statement that the original amount named in the bill, which was $1,000,000, would have been sufficient, are making wrong statements, and they know it and do not deceive those who have taken the time to look into the have taken the time to look into the facts. We did everything possible to keep the amount down to the lowest figure, and to those men who might have some doubts on this matter, I sincerely hope they will look up the records—the only true guide.

"It would have been much easier to have left the amount at a million dollars, as the bill originally called for. Had I done so I would have deserved all the censure you could heap on me for trying to hoodwink and deceive the old soldier. But I have never been a party to any trickery.

"For the men who were brave enough and patriotic enough to fight for the preservation of our Union may depend on it that anything that I had to do or will have to do with soldiers' pension bills will be done fairly and squarely, but I want a square deal in return. I want the truth and nothing more."

SHEATZ IN DEMAND

Citizens Crowd to Hear Repub-Ilcan Nominee For Treasurer.

HE IS THE MAN OF THE HOUR

Ovation Given the Former Apprentice Boy at Baldwin's By Shipyard Work ers in Kensignton and County Meetings Are Largely Attended.

> [Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Sept. 17.

With remarkable earnestness and enthusiasm for an off year the Republicans of Pennsylvania are pushing their campaign for the election of John O. Sheatz as state treasurer in every county in the state.

The demand from the voters to hear Mr. Sheatz is unprecedented under the circumstances. Two weeks before the time for which his canvass was scheduled to be opened, he has had to keep upon the go responding to calls to address meetings, to attend county fairs. and to take part in gatherings of Grangers and other bodies of citizens of the grand old commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sheatz does not claim to be an orator. He is a plain, matter of fact business man; an honest, sincere, un-sophisticated man of the people. Wherever he has spoken he has made friends and wherever his pledges to conduct the office of state treasurer in accordance with the promises made at the outset of his campaign are heard, they

He has made votes wherever he has gone, whether he spoke to his old neighbors of Berks county, or to the sturdy Republicans of the adjoining county of Lehigh, where he addressed several thousands at the Republican county meeting at Emaus, or to the great assemblage in Northampton that cheered him to the echo at the county meeting at Bethlehem, or at the Elks' clam bake in Allegheny county, where fully 20,000 citizens gave him a tremendous ovation, or at the meeting last week in the Kensington district of Philadelphia, where 5000 employes of the ship yards in that section saluted him as a former apprentice boy working in overalls in Baldwin's locometive works, and resolved to roll up a handsome majority for him on election day—it was the same story.

Sheatz-the Man of the Hour. The man of the hour—a man to meet every requirement of a faithful, honest, economical administration of Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, who is working night and day to keep up with his correspondence with Republicans in every county in the state who are enlisted for Mr. campaign, is looking forward to great results as the outcome of the activity of the members of the State League of Republican Clubs, of which Mr. Sheatz is vice president.

After addressing the club men's convention, Candidate Sheatz will go to the Hanover fair in Susquehanna county on Thursday of next week, and on the following day he is booked to address a meeting in Wilkes-Barre, where great preparations are being made by prominent Republicans to give him a cordial reception. Former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith will accompany Mr. Sheatz to Wilkeswill accompany Mr. Sheatz to Wilkes-Barre and make a speech in favor of

Wants to Meet the People.

After next week Mr. Sheatz will have a regular itinerary and will speak once or twice almost every day

"I want to meet the voters face to face," remarked Mr. Sheatz, a few days ago. "I want them to see what manner of man I am, and to talk to them frankly upon the issues of the cam-paign. I want to leave it to them to judge whether my record at Harrisburg as a member of the legislature does not justify confidence in my ful-filling all my pledges regarding the administration of the office of state
