Our friend W. H. Powell, the well known auctioneer, came over from Boswell, Monday, to cry the Mrs. Wells Garlitz sale, next day. He called at THE STAR office while here to renew his allegiance to the "Twinkler." He was in his usual good humor, and he carries sunshine with him wherever he goes. The latch string is always out for him at the office of the "Great Luminary."

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochrane returned home from a pleasure trip of about three weeks duration, several days ago. They visited Philadelphia, the state of Kentucky, Chicago, Detroit and other places. They had a very pleasant trip, but their pleasure was somewhat marred by Mrs. Cochrane taking sick, which caused them to abandon some of the pleasures they had planned. We are glad to report, however, that the lady has again recovered her health.

"Old Jack Frost" acted very decently with this locality, this year, and didn't put in his appearance until Oct. 1st. We had a ripping good frost on the first two days of this month, but we think about all the late corn had thoroughly matured before the frost came. Even the huckleberry crop is a marvel for lateness, this year. Only last week Jerry Shoemaker came down from Negro Mountain with a nice lot of huckleberries, and he said he would bring another lot to town this week. The chestnut crop, he says, is a failure in his locality, this year.

Richard Beachy, of Esbon, Kan., has our thanks for three "plunks" to apply on subscription to the "Twinkler," and to J. W. Watkins, of Boswell, Pa., we return thanks for two "plunks" for the same worthy purpose. The "stuff" ought to keep rolling in from about five or six hundred other subscribers in amounts ranging from $1.50 to $10.00 and upwards. We have lots of money coming to us all the time, but most of it is too all-fired slow in arriving. Cash up, all ye delinquents, for it costs "dough," and lots of it, too, to feed and clothe a family of nine, to say nothing of our two libel suits in court and such other little incidental expenses as belong to our business.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eighty per cent. of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by head-aches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by E. H. Miller. 11-1

QUINSY, SPRAINS AND SWELLINGS CURED.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 11-1

Well Known Citizen of Elk Lick About to Sell Out.

On the 29th of this month, Reuben Johnson, one of the well known and respected citizens of Elk Lick township, will sell his personal effects at public sale, and he will also offer his little farm at public outcry, same day, if he does not sell it sooner.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson intend to make their home with one of their sons, who is a farmer and market gardener, near Cumberland, Md. The best wishes of the community will go with the worthy old couple, and all their old friends and neighbors will be sorry to see them depart.

Judge Kooser Overrules Assignments of Error in Trolley Cases.

On Saturday afternoon Judge Kooser overruled the numerous assignments of error cited in the trolley cases against his opinions, and entered final decrees in favor of the Pennsylvania & Maryland Street Railway Company. In the S. P. Maust case the attorneys alleged 83 assignments of error by the Court, and the averments covered 63 pages of typewritten matter. In the Meyersdale & Salisbury case there were 180 assignments of error. These averments cover nearly one hundred pages of typewritten matter. The cases now go to the Supreme Court, and if the plaintiffs fail to win, it certainly cannot be because they have not alleged error by the lower court.—Somerset Standard.

An Interesting Number.

No story illustrates the curious mixture of associated ideas better than the following: I asked a small boy one day after a long and labored Scripture lesson: "What did Peter do to prove that he was penitent?" Up rose a dozen hands, and I selected one. "Please, teacher," came breathlessly, "he crowed three times!" Another time I was explaining about the gathering of the manna in the wilderness, and how the Israelites had to collect a double quantity on the Saturday so as to last over Sunday. "But if," I pointed out, "they gathered enough for two days on the Monday, the heavenly food would be unfit to eat on the Tuesday." A little girl of five was deeply interested, and anxiously asked, "But, teacher, s'pos'n that Toosday was Washinton's burf-day?"—"Humors of the Schoolroom," in The Ladies' World for October.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY Will Surely Stop That Cough.

Can't Match Our Prices on Clothing!

We are the leaders in low prices and high quality, as a visit to our large store will readily convince you of. Competitors can neither match our low prices nor the high quality of our new line of Boys' Clothing, made by W. & T. Allen & Co., the great Philadelphia outfitters, whose clothing we handle exclusively and are making a special drive on at this time.

JUST THINK OF IT,

Boys' Suits at $1.75 to 5.00! Corduroy Suits for boys from 10 to 13 years at $3.00. Very fine Rain Coats for men at $10 to 12.50. A nice new line of Men's Overcoats at $8 to 12. About 25 Men's Suits Left over from last Spring will be closed out at half price.

Come in and let us fit you out. Now is the time to get your boy a good, serviceable school suit at an extremely low price. By all means call and let us show you our Boys' Clothing. The great values we are offering you will be doubly apparent to you when you see the style and excellent quality of the goods, and you'll wonder how we can sell such excellent goods for so little money.
