

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is also directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with Trio of Distinguished Pennsylvanians Blaze the Way.

REPUBLICAN LINES SOLID

Senator Knox, Governor Stuart and Former Postmaster General Smith Unite in Call to Elect John O. Sheatz State Treasurer.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 1.

United States Senator Philander C. Knox, Governor Edwin S. Stuart and former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith make a distinguished trio that have gone upon record, within the last few days, in most emphatic terms in favor of the election of John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Not only have they eulogized Mr. Sheatz in the highest terms, but they have sent a note of warning to Republicans of the Keystone state of the danger that would come to the Republican party in the nation as the result of a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania this fall.

Upon the eve of a presidential campaign, they plead for the wiping out of all factional lines, the cementing of the party organization, and a vigorous and aggressive onslaught upon the works of the common enemy in this, the skirmish of a great national political battle.

Knox Points the Way.

Senator Knox, who is taking a lively interest in the state campaign, has, over his own signature, just given expression to these sentiments: "We have in Pennsylvania this year a perfectly simple proposition, and one in respect to which I do not think it is possible to mislead the public. "The Republican party has presented a good candidate on his own and his party's good record; and, after all, how much more substantial a record is than a prospectus. There are no side issues this year and no middle ground. The issue of the campaign now on is the approval or disapproval of the party's unswerving continuity of act and purpose to express the public will in legislation and administration.

Live Issues Are Met.

"The Republican party in Pennsylvania has responded to the awakened political and commercial conscience of the people in a way which would commend itself to all to whom political and commercial rights are dear. The reform measures for the protection of the elective franchise; the abolishing of fees in elective offices; the safeguarding of the state's funds and other legislation of the late extra session of the legislature of the commonwealth, to which has been added the legislation of last winter of almost equal importance in character and effect, constitute a record of real achievement for which the Republican party can justly claim credit.

"The last time we tried conclusions in Pennsylvania with our friends of the opposition we marched to victory with Edwin S. Stuart at the head of the ticket, who, as governor, has fulfilled all the expectations and predictions expressed of him.

"Now, with a record of permanent reform to our credit, one of the fruits of which was the untrammelled selection of John O. Sheatz by delegates directly chosen by the people, we should poll a vote for this candidate of unassailed integrity and large public experience that will set at rest once and for all the shallow pretense that Republican success in this campaign involves anything beyond the endorsement of Republican policies and the calling of a well-tryed and tested public servant to higher honors and graver responsibilities for which he is eminently qualified."

Governor Goes Upon Record.

Governor Stuart, who has promised to make one or more speeches in favor of Mr. Sheatz's election, in commenting upon the issues in the state canvass, said: "This campaign turns solely upon the election of a state treasurer, and next to the election of an honest man it is important to elect a Republican. I do not propose to indulge in personalities. Mr. Harman is an upright, honest man. I have known Mr. Sheatz for 20 years, and there is no reason why every Republican cannot vote for John O. Sheatz for state treasurer. I was in almost daily contact with Mr. Sheatz during the legislative session. He was chairman of that most important committee, appropriations, and I know no man who ever held public office or trust who took care of the purse strings more honestly than did he.

"Every act that he performed was for the good of the commonwealth. I say this from a personal knowledge of the man. Sheatz stands for honesty in politics and decency in the management of public affairs. Any man who stands for anything else is not a Republican and not deserving of the name."

A Tip to the Independents.

Former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, and one time minister to Russia, is already upon the stump advocating the election of the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

Mr. Smith is looked upon as expressing the views of those with whom he has been associated in independent political movements in this state, and his pronounced stand in behalf of Mr.

Sheatz has discouraged the Democrats, who had been counting upon independent support for their ticket.

"I am glad," says Mr. Smith, "that the Republican party is now united in Pennsylvania in support of an exceptionally strong candidate for the office of state treasurer.

"The party is harmonious, and I am asking all who have stood with me in the past, for the principles which I have championed, to give loyal and earnest support to the Republican nominee for state treasurer, Mr. John O. Sheatz.

"Mr. Sheatz has a splendid record as a member of the general assembly. "In 1905 he alone of all the members of the legislature from Philadelphia had the courage and independence to stand up and vote against the ripper bill. He was chairman of the committee of appropriations, and in all the work of that important committee, around which the cormorants of the state flutter, there is not a single blot or blemish, and there has not been a criticism of any of its actions."

Messrs. Knox, Stuart and Smith all predict the election of Mr. Sheatz by a large majority.

SHEATZ IN DEMAND

Many Calls For Nominee For Treasurer to Address Voters.

TOUR A SERIES OF TRIUMPHS

People Have Confidence in the Earnestness and Sincerity of the Republican Candidate, Who is a Great Vote-Maker.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Oct. 1.

With but five weeks of the state campaign remaining all signs point to the election of John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, by an unprecedentedly large majority for an off year.

This prediction is based, however, upon the belief that the calls that are being made by the party leaders for Republicans to qualify themselves to vote and to go to the polls on election day, Tuesday, November 5th, will be responded to generally.

While it is true that up to date there has been considerable apathy manifested in certain quarters, there is reason to believe that for the remaining days of the canvass Republicans in the various counties will be up and doing and will evince a determination to get out the party vote on election day.

The Democrats are looking ahead for the presidential election. Democratic National Committeeman from Pennsylvania James M. Guffey, by his appearance on the stage at the Democratic rally in Pittsburgh last Saturday night and his activity in other directions, clearly indicates his purpose to get his party organization into line at once for next year's great political struggle.

Colonel Andrews' Timely Talk.

The interest which the Democrats are showing in national politics has not been overlooked by their Republican fellow citizens.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, said today: "Pennsylvania Republicans are alive to the importance of the present contest. The opening guns of the presidential battle of next year will be fired upon election day—the 5th of next November.

"We have no fear that the grand old Keystone State will falter. We know that the young men of our state, especially, are enrolling themselves for the campaign, the outcome of which means so much to the industries of Pennsylvania.

"We know that it is everywhere admitted that the greater the Republican majority in this state this year the greater will be the recognition that will be given to Pennsylvania when the national councils of the party shall be held next year.

"Pennsylvania's vote this fall will be watched by Republicans all over the United States and will be the subject of comment as soon as it shall be announced.

"It will be the duty of every Republican to go to the polls and by his vote emphasize Pennsylvania's continued fealty to the policies of the Republican party that have resulted in the wonderful development of Pennsylvania's industries and in national prosperity."

Chairman Andrews is receiving encouraging reports from every county in the state and his headquarters in this city are daily thronged with influential Republicans manifesting a keen interest in the state canvass.

Sheatz In Great Demand.

Nominee Sheatz is in great demand. Difficulty has been experienced in arranging a schedule of meetings, owing to so many conflicting requests for dates.

Following the great demonstration given in his honor by his neighbors of West Philadelphia, Mr. Sheatz attended the meeting of the State League of Republican Clubs at Harrisburg, then he visited the Susquehanna county fair, and afterward addressed big mass meetings in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton.

"Wherever he has gone, Mr. Sheatz has made a fine impression. His frank, manly and business-like talks have the ring of earnestness and sincerity, and he is making votes every hour.

HATTIE'S COMPLEXION BEAUTIFIER.

My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by F. H. Miller, Druggist. 50c. 11-1

A distinguished lady of wealth and influence, noted for models specimens of children, was asked by a friend and mother: "Why are my children sickly and croupy, and yours are always free from such conditions?" The reply was: "You rear your children indoors; I mine out; yours are educated to be waited on by servants; I discipline mine to wait upon themselves; my children are early to bed, you give parties for yours with late hours, and allow them to attend parties and keep late hours from home, fashionably dressed; my children have plain, wholesome food, adapted to their years, yours sweetmeats, rich and highly seasoned dishes, and are overfed generally; I teach mine to love nature, and to feel that there is nothing arrayed so finely as the lily of the field, the bees and butterflies, that there is nothing so mean as a lie, nor anything so miserable as disobedience, that it is a disgrace to be sick, and that good health, good teeth and good temper come from plain food, proper clothing, plenty of sleep, and being good."
