Buckle down to work, little boy of the public school. Remember that destiny awaits you around the corner. If you do not, she will meet you with words of reproach and a future filled with unhappiness and disappointment.

A rector having a parishioner of great fluency of speech, and also addicted to profanity, considered it his duty to talk to the man about his fault. The man listened for a while, respectfully, and then replied, seriously: "I know it is a bad habit, but, you see, my words flow so rapidly that I have to throw in a 'dam' now and then to prevent a flood."

The large turnip which was brought to the Democrat office, several months ago, has developed larger ones all over the county. In the last issue of the Somerset Standard an account was given of a turnip raised in a garden in Windber that measured thirty-two inches in circumference, and weighed nine and three-quarter pounds. This item brought J. W. Broucher to town on Saturday with a turnip that weighed eighteen pounds, and measured forty inches in circumference, which he took out of his cornfield. At the suggestion of the editor of the Democrat, he presented the monster to the editor of the Standard.—Somerset Democrat.

Sam Livengood is thinking of addressing the farmers' institute to be held here in November, on profitable potato culture. Last spring he planted 6 bushels of potatoes, for which he paid $4.50. His plowing, planting, cultivating and harvesting the crop cost him about $8.00, making the total expense $12.50. He harvested a crop of 8 bushels of fine tubers, the other day, which he values at $8.00. It is just as clear as mud to Sam that there's money in farming if a fellow knows how to farm. His experience is fully as interesting as the experience John Kann had a few years ago at raising a fat hog. The hog grew smaller the longer he fed it, and the meat supply therefrom was not large, but the porker had a luxuriant crop of long bristles, and everybody knows how valuable hog bristles are.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says "Fully eighty per cent. of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headache, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by E. H. Miller. 11-1

"BROKEN HEARTS."

Govey and Taterka's beautiful comedy drama, "Broken Hearts," will be introduced at Hay's opera house, on Wednesday night, October 16th. The play is one of great heart interest, reaching the hearts of all, rich in comedy and pathos, telling a story you will not forget the moment you leave the theatre. The scenes are similar to those of "Old Homestead" and "Way Down East." The story runs as follows: A farmer's young daughter is enticed away by a fashionable city "gentleman;" the true, honest lover who is rejected, follows her to the great city, disguised as an Italian. A member of the Black Hand society is engaged by the fine-clothed "gentleman" to put her out of the way, so he may be able to obtain her fortune. A very effective scene in the play is the asylum, showing the brutality of the keeper and the heroic escape of the heroine, aided by her little friend and the country lover.

During the play a number of specialties will be introduced. Seat tickets will be on sale at the Nickelodeon, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, between 5 and 7 o'clock. Price, 50 cents.

OUT OF SIGHT.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by E. H. Miller, Druggist. 25c. 11-1
