

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, ceases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

DANGER SIGNALS UP

Manufacturers Send Warning to Pennsylvania Republicans.

FEAR OF TARIFF TINKERING

Capital and Labor Seriously Concerned Over Agitation of "Iowa Idea" of Revision in the Stronghold of Protection.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Oct. 8.
A committee of manufacturers of this city has started a movement to impress upon the citizens of Pennsylvania their direct and vital interest in the maintenance of the protective tariff policy of the national government.
Following up the formal action taken at a recent meeting of the Manufacturers' club, when vigorous resolutions were adopted in opposition to any "tinkering with the tariff," influential men, prominently identified with the industrial interests of this state, have inaugurated an educational agitation to awaken the voters of Pennsylvania to the danger confronting them from the development of sentiment, in the west and elsewhere, in favor of a revision of the tariff.
The assistance of Chairman Wesley R. Andrews and his colleagues of the Republican State committee, has been sought to further the campaign for a "stand pat" policy on the tariff issue.
Manufacturers Are Alarmed.
The manufacturers admit that they are concerned over the persistence of the tariff revisionists, and they look to Pennsylvania Republicans to come to the front, as they have done in the past, and emphasize their continued fealty to the principles of a protective tariff.
The tariff revisionists have been sending tons of literature into Pennsylvania for the purpose of breaking the lines of the protective tariff Republicans, and they have been banking upon cutting down the vote of the Republican state ticket at the coming election and thus weaken the voice of the state in the councils of the Republican party of the nation.
The enemies of protection are making a great play to have delegates elected to the coming Republican National convention who will favor the insertion of a plank in the platform calling for a revision of the tariff.
The manufacturers who have started in to combat this proposition realize the gravity of the situation and look to Pennsylvania to block the game of the revisionists.
Chairman Andrews' Call to Action.
After a conference with some of the leading manufacturers interested in the movement, which means so much to the industrial and business interests of this state, Colonel Andrews today said:
"Pennsylvania's industries are endangered by the agitation for a revision of the tariff, and none can appreciate what I say better than those who have their capital invested and who depend upon the protective tariff to shield them from ruinous competition from the products of the poorly paid labor of foreign countries.
"There must be no tinkering with the tariff, either before or after the presidential election, and Republicans of Pennsylvania must be alive to the situation. If any move shall be made to change existing tariff schedules, even in the slightest degree, it will inaugurate a period of doubt and uncertainty which would be reflected in the utter demoralization of Pennsylvania's manufacturing interests, and there could be but one result, a condition that would bear heavily upon the farmers and wage workers of our commonwealth, and seriously embarrass the capital employed in vast fields of commercial activity.
"Pennsylvania will not lose an opportunity at the coming election to proclaim to the other states in the Union that she has no sympathy with the 'Iowa idea' for a scaling down of the tariff.
"In no more effective and solemn manner can the Republicans of Pennsylvania meet this issue than by registering at the November election their emphatic decree that by no act of theirs shall the bars be let down which now exclude foreign competition with American labor.
"The contest this fall is but the skirmish of the great presidential battle of next year.
"If Pennsylvania shall roll up a pronounced majority for the cause of Republicanism in November, the state will continue to wield a potent influence in the national councils of the party.
"If, as the result of indifference and of paying heed to the shallow and sensational charges of the opposition, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer should be elected, of which, in my judgment, there is not the remotest chance if Republicans perform their full measure of duty, the shout would go up all over the land that the Republicans of Pennsylvania were indifferent as to the continuance of the tariff, and, thereby greatly weaken the influence of the Republicans of Pennsylvania in the next Republican national convention.
Necessity For Action.
"The consequence of such a state of affairs would be illustrated by a cessation of all industrial enterprises within our borders, with the inevitable result that the workingman and the farmer would in the end bear the brunt of the disaster.
"Face to face with these conditions and with the full knowledge as to the embarrassments that would follow, all Republicans are appealed to as members of the great party of protection and prosperity to recognize the necessity for earnest, active, and patriotic work in order not only to bury the opposition beyond the hope of resurrection, but to strengthen the position of our great state at next year's Republican national convention in the battle that must inevitably be fought there for the preservation of the protective policies which have made Pennsylvania the keystone of the industrial arch of the federal union. None should be deceived by those who affect not to see disaster in Republican indifference, but all should go to work at once with a will to discharge their full measure of duty.

"Every Republican committeeman should work to circumvent the designs of the Democrats to obtain possession of the state treasury, which, by the way, they will attempt to accomplish by the circulation of false statements and by aspersions upon the honesty of the Republicans of Pennsylvania. Their unsavory methods should inspire every Republican heart with the resolve to defeat their machinations by vigorously supporting the Republican candidate for state treasurer, Hon. John O. Sheatz, whose name is a synonym for integrity, and who enjoys to the fullest extent the confidence of the party from one end of the state to the other.
"In consideration of the approach of an important presidential campaign," said Chairman Andrews, "Republicans of Pennsylvania should set the pace by rolling up a large majority at next November's election to accentuate their fealty to the principles of the Republican party and their adherence to the policy of 'leaving well enough alone,' a matter of vital importance to the manufacturers, farmers and wage earners of Pennsylvania, and also to emphasize their approval of the progressive policies of the national administration."
"SCAN MY RECORD"
So Says Nominee Sheatz to Voters of Pennsylvania.
HE IS A CANDIDATE
Republican Choice For State Treasurer Takes People of the State Into His Confidence and Rests His Case With Them.
[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 8.
John O. Sheatz, Republican nominee for state treasurer, is making a personal canvass of the state, and wherever he goes he is received with enthusiasm and there is reason to believe he will be elected by a splendid majority.
"I am meeting the people face to face," said Mr. Sheatz, as he chatted about his campaign, as he stopped off here between trains, "and I am more than pleased with my receptions.
"I want the people to scan my record in the legislature and vote accordingly.
"While acting as chairman of the appropriations committee at Harrisburg during the last session of the legislature, I was particularly interested in the matter of increasing the public school appropriation for the counties.
"With the help of the rest of the committee and the consent of our good governor, we succeeded in increasing the former amount $4,000,000, thereby making the total $15,000,000 for the next two years.
"Besides providing this great amount for the public school system, there were also large sums appropriated for the state normal schools, for the State College and the Universities of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh—all of which was for the benefit of the young men and women of our state, and I am looking forward to the time when the state government of Pennsylvania shall appropriate all the money necessary to educate her children.
"No state in the Union gives nearly as much to her counties as Pennsylvania for the public schools. We want to give to each child better opportunities to become a well educated citizen, to be better qualified to do his or her part toward keeping our state in the front ranks of the Union, for these advantages should lead to a higher standard of citizenship and better government.
"When the people of Pennsylvania elected that splendid representative American, Edwin S. Stuart, governor of this commonwealth, they laid the foundation of better government and the people need have no anxiety as to the welfare of their state, for their government will be conducted safely and honestly.
"The assertions made by members of the opposing party, that there should be a minority representative in the board of public grounds and buildings in order to insure economy and honesty, does not appeal to the people of broader minds who know the sterling qualities of Edwin S. Stuart, our governor, and Robert S. Young, auditor general, two of the three men comprising that board.
"As a candidate for the office of state treasurer of this state, I am free from any obligations whatever, excepting my duty to the people of this commonwealth, and if my fellow citizens believe in me and feel I will be true to the trust I ask them to repose in me, then I hope they will vote for me."
