DESPITE the fact that railroads are contesting the new two-cent-a-mile passenger fare law, claiming that the law has caused a big decrease in net earnings, the Ohio state railroad commission claims that reports for the first full year show that Ohio railroads have profited by the new law. The commission has compiled these passenger earnings from the annual reports of the railroads doing business in that state for the year ending June 30, 1907, and the commission claims that the total increase in passenger fares for the first year, under the new law, was $1,387,927.80, says the Berlin Record.

EDWIN McNEAL. Guest of Levi Lichliter and Family Drops Dead at Supper Table.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McNeal, of Onawa, Iowa, arrived here a couple of weeks ago for a visit with Levi Lichliter and family. Mr. McNeal and Mr. Lichliter both being natives of the Turkeyfoot region, near Confluence, where they grew to manhood. They were friends from boyhood, and Mr. McNeal's wife was a cousin of Mr. Lichliter, and a sister of Elias Younkin, of Meyersdale.

It is needless to say that the McNeals were enjoying their visit to the limit at the hospitable home of the Lichlitters, but the pleasure of the visit was cut short on Tuesday evening, the 15th inst., when Mr. McNeal suddenly expired at the supper table, at about 5.30 o'clock.

Deceased was aged 65 years, and his death was attributed to a stroke of apoplexy or heart failure. His appearance indicated the best of health, and he was not known to have any sickness or ailment while he was here enjoying his visit.

Edwin McNeal went to Iowa from this county in 1868, where he became an extensive and wealthy farmer. He was a man highly esteemed by those who knew him, was a man of fine physique, and in personal appearance strongly resembled the noted Confederate general, Robt. E. Lee. He is survived by his wife, six sons and one daughter, one of the sons being a district or state's attorney in Oklahoma, and the other a law student in the University of Chicago. He is also survived by a sister, a Mrs. Barron, an aged lady residing at Barronvale, this county. His remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Reich, of Meyersdale, and shipped to the family home in Iowa, yesterday.

Miss Almira Lichliter accompanied the sorrowing wife on her journey as far as Pittsburg, where she was met by her son from Chicago.

HIS DEAR OLD MOTHER.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by E. H. Miller, Druggist. 50c. 11-1

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Coal Run Woman Dies from Burns Received While Pouring Kerosene into Kitchen Fire.

Last Thursday night the wife of John Clossco, a Slav miner residing at Coal Run, arose from her bed about midnight to poke up the kitchen fire and have hot water ready for her husband to wash with when he arrived home from the mines, where he had been working on the night shift.

The fire being low, Mrs. Clossco proceeded to pour kerosene oil into the fire, which caused an explosion and threw burning oil over the woman, setting fire to her clothing and burning her most horribly. She called frantically for help, running to the stairway and trying to arouse a boarder who slept in an upper room, but before the boarder could come to her assistance, the clothes were all practically burned from the poor woman's body.

A doctor was hastily summoned, and everything possible was done for the sufferer's relief, and later she was taken to a Connessville hospital, where she died last Saturday morning. Deceased is survived by her husband and two children, one a babe aged only two months.

Scriptural Injunction.

The good book says, "ask and ye shall receive." Does this advice include the editor? Well, if it does, we want quite a number of our subscribers who have no doubt thoughtlessly permitted their subscriptions to get in arrears, to square up their accounts. We need the money, is our only excuse for asking for it.

QUINSY, SPRAINS AND SWELLINGS CURED.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 11-1

TELLS HOW. Directions To Prepare Simple, Yet Remarkable Home Mixture.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from a good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers if asked to.

TEN PINS.

Much Interest Being Taken In the League Games—Result of Games Thus Far Played.

As per announcement in last week's STAR, the first game of ten pins played by any of the league ten pin clubs of Somerset county, was a contest between the Somerset and Meyersdale clubs, at Berlin, last Thursday evening. The contest was an easy victory for the Meyersdale club, which won by a score of 1909 to 1830.

The second game took place at Meyersdale, Oct. 11th, and was a contest between Salisbury and Berlin, Salisbury winning by a score of 1670 to 1680.

The third game was pulled off in Salisbury, Oct. 15th, between the Salisbury and Meyersdale clubs, Salisbury winning by a score of 1908 to 1770.

All of the games have been drawing many spectators, and thus far all of the contests have been conducted in an orderly and friendly spirit, free from wrangling, etc., and that's the way we trust that the balance of them will be conducted. The true sporting man or gamester is never a "rag chewer" and "chin music" should be tabooed to the greatest possible extent at all gaming contests.

The league games yet to be played in the championship contest now on, are scheduled as follows:

Berlin and Somerset, at Somerset, October 18.

Berlin and Meyersdale, at Berlin, October 22.

Somerset and Salisbury, at Meyersdale, October 25.

Salisbury and Meyersdale, at Meyersdale, October 29.

Berlin and Somerset, at Berlin, November 1.

Meyersdale and Berlin, at Somerset, November 5.

Somerset and Salisbury, at Salisbury, November 8.

Berlin and Salisbury, at Salisbury, November 12.

Meyersdale and Somerset, at Somerset, November 15.

NOTICE TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law, as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. Sold by all Druggists. 11-1
