Heart Strength "GET OUT THE VOTE"

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Pos-itively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in ititively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault.
This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.
This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr.
Thono's Restorative has in the past done so much

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and alling Hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthen; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves — re-establish—them as needed, with

The Veteran"Uncle Tom"Cooper Calls Upon "the Old Guard."

A WARNING TO WORKERS

Governor Stuart Pays Another High Tribute to the Republican Nominee For State Treasurer, John O.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.

"Uncle Tom" Cooper, the sage of Media, and for many years the Re publican field marshal of the Key-stone state, has issued a call to arms for the "Old Guard" of Pennsylvania Republicanism to come out and vote for John O. Sheatz, the nominee for state treasurer at the approaching election.

For nearly 10 years "Uncle Tom" was at the head of the Republican state committee. He has gone through many a political campaign, and whether in victory or defeat, he always bobs up smiling and ready to go at his eld-time foe, the Democracy, with all the vehemence and ardor of John O. Sheats is going to be elected state treasurer, because he deserves to be elected," said the perennial Cooper today. "He is an ideal Republican candidate, and is entitled to the vote of every Republican in the state. He needs no platform in this campaign but his own personality and his own record in public and pri-vate life. I served with him in the legislature and know his character and his work. I also know that he is a typical Pennsylvanian and that he will allow nothing to interfere with a faithful and conscientious perform-ance of his official duties. No one could get him to vote for a bill in the legislature that he did not believe was in the interest of the people. I know the influences that were brought to bear upon him to do otherwise, and I was there when he boldly, time and again, voted 'NO' when the roll was called upon such measures. We want men of that stripe in the office of state treasurer

Warning to Party Men.
"There is just a word I have to say to the men in the party organiza-tion in the various counties of the state. Do not be fooled. The Democrats are wide-awake and are going to get out their vote. The independent movements have gone to smash, but the old-time Democratic enemy is still will be at the polls on election day No one, of course, looks for Mr. Sheatz's defeat, but it it just such conditions as exist today that have cost the Republican party dearly in the past. The Republican vote must be got to the polls.

"Taking it for granted that 'every-thing is all right' has been the undo-ing of many a party leader. What we want at the coming election is the greatest possible percentage of the vote put into the ballot boxes, and then we will be able to celebrate a victory of which every Republican can be proud, and which will put the party in this state in full strength upon the firing line for the presidential between the control of the presidential between the presidential between the control of the presiden tial battle of next year

"Get out the vote; get out the vote;

Probably no man in Pennsylvania is taking a keener interest in the canvass for the election of Mr. Sheatz than is Edwin S. Stuart.

The governor was intensely gratified when Mr. Sheatz received the nomination, and he was quick to give a cordial indorsement of the action of Governor Stuart's Advice.

The governor is just now busy with his attorney general in preparing the state capitol cases for trial. He does not neglect, however, upon any proper occasion, to urge the election of Mr.

While his official duties would not lican rally in Pittsburg on Saturday evening last, Governor Stuart sent a ringing letter, which was read at the meeting, advocating the election the Republican nominee for state

In this letter, Governor Stuart, among other things, said:

"I regret that an important business engagement made some time ago, which I am unable to postpone, will prevent me from accepting your kind invitation. I assure you that nothing would give me greater pleasure than to come to Pittsburg and speak to the people of Allegheny county in favor of the election of John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate for state treasurer. I have known him for upwards of 20 years. He has served the state faithfully as a member of the legislature, is absolutely incorruptible, and will conduct the office of state treasurer with credit to himself and honor to the Republican party, and I do not hesitate to say with entire satisfaction to the people of Pennsylvania, there is no reason why any citizen should hesitate to cast his vote for Mr. Sheatz." Candidate Sheatz has had a series of ovations since he started out upon In Bradford, Kane and the stump. In Bradford, Kane and Indiana, where he went prior to his visit to Pittsburg on Saturday last, visit to Pittsburg on Saturday last, he was met by great crowds and was assured of loyal support. Mr. Sheatz is not a professional orator. He is a plain, matter-of-fact talker, but he never faits to impressible audience with his sincerity of purpose and with his determination to meet every obligation of the trust which is surely to be imposed in him

A NATION LCOKS ON

Election in This State of Far Reaching Importance.

THE CITADEL OF PROTECTION

National Administration and National Party Policies at Issue, and Size of the Majority Will Be Sig-

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Oct. 22.

Just two weeks from today the voters of Pennsylvania will be called upon go to the polls and decide whether they shall be enrolled as members of the party of Republicanism, the party perity, or be enlisted with the Democ racy, the party of Bryanism, Hearstism and uncertainty and demoraliza-tion in governmental and business conditions on Tuesday, November 5th, will be a verdict that will be fraught with na-tional significance, that will mean much in its bearing upon the great presidential contest which will begin immediately after the result of this election shall be announced, and which will determine whether Pennsylvania is to be a potential factor in framing the policies and in selecting the nominee of the next Republican national convention.

The greater the majority for the rangement the majority for the momines of the Republican party, the greater will be the emphasis with which the voters of the state will herald to the world their continued featty to the administration and the cause of Republicanism in the nation.

While reports of the most encouraging character are being received by Chairman Andrews at the Republican state headquarters, it is also a fact that great danger is apprehended from a feeling of over confidence which exists among the great rank and file of the Republican voters. The fact that the party is united, that there is no fusion movement in any county in the state and that the organizations of the Lincoln Party and other independent elements have disintegrated, naturally gives a feeling of security to the county and precinct committeemen of the Republican party.

Danger In Over-Confidence.

But it is just such a condition of affairs that leads old-time campaign managers to be concerned about polling of the Republican vote. Taking it for granted that victory was assured, has resulted in many a defeat. A great faling off of the Republican vote, even though the candidate for star reasurer shall be elected, would, from the standpoint of national politics, be a Republican defeat in Pennsylvania this fall.

Within the last 10 days there have been undoubted signs of a revival of interest in the Democracy.

The Democratic state committee has, from some source or other, been supplied with ample funds with which to make an aggressive campaign. Their candidate for state treasurer is adlressing meetings nightly and a corps of spellbinders are at work in every county in the state lining up the Democratic voters for what they insist is the skirmish of next year's presidential battle.

Democrats Are Looking Ahead. These Democratic orators are telling their followers that the Democrats of the nation are getting together, that they have bright hopes of winning the presidency next year and that the Rethe coming national contest.

Colonel James M. Guffey, nounces that he is a candidate to succeed himself on the Democratic na-tional committee, is showing his inter-est in the national phase of the situation by rounding up his lieutenants in the several congressional districts of men for delegates to the national convention who will vote for his re-election as national committeeman. Guffey wants Pennsylvania's Republican majority to be cut down this fall so that he can then announce that the party is divided upon the tariff and that even in Pennsylvania, the citadel of protec-tion, there is a large constituency among the Republicans who agree with the Republicans of the western and eastern states, who are advocating the "Iowa idea" for scaling down the tar-

Clover Disease.

Prof. George C. Butz, of The Pennsylvania State College and Experiment Station, says: "In all the material gathered from the clover fields upon the college farms, and that submitted to us from York county, the destructive disease is what is known as Black Mould. The characteristic marks of this disease are the blackening of stems, petioles and publicans are divided upon the tariff leaves. It attacks the older leaves on issue and upon other questions that young plants and is quite common in will give the Democrats an opening in the latter part of the season upon the second growth of clover, when the ed. This fungus has been recognized as doing serious damage in many fields. Thus far I have found no ma terial affected by the destructive dis ease of the South, known as the Clover the state and getting them to pick out Anthracnose. However, this disease has been identified as far north as New York state, from which I would conclude that there is no valid reason why the disease could not appear in Pennsylvania, and if farmers would send specimens of diseased clover to this station we could readily determine whether it is this disease or some Ground the Whole Corn.

At the Wisconsin station experiments were held to determine the comparative value of whole and ground corn for fattening pigs. On an average 105 pigs required 5.16 pounds of grain on a ration of dry shelled corn and middlings, as compared with 4.8 pounds required by an equal number on a the tariff revisionists a slogan ration of corn meal and middlings. In give the tariff revisionists a slogan with which to go to the next Republican national convention proclaiming thirty-six pounds of feed for each 100 pounds of gain made by the hogs. This shows a gain by grinding the corn to meal of 9.9 per cent. or, say, seven falling off of the Republican vote and the reduction of the Republican mameal was about seven per cent., in tion with existing conditions and that there is a demand for a change in the bolicles of the party.

these experiments there was a second advantage secured, in that the hogs getting corn meal made more rapid getting corn meal made more rapid gains than those fed shelled corn.'
