If you are rich, it is a mistake to bring up children with the idea that they are better than anybody else; and if you are poor, it is a greater mistake to hold the notion that you are not as good as those who have riches. To be honest and industrious is the whole thing, and with these qualifications one man is just as good as another—and, as Pat would say, "a little bit better."

The bride is the daughter of our Constable Jones, who made a good officer and will undoubtedly be re-elected in the spring. He offers a fine horse for sale in another column. The groom runs a grocery store on Mainstreet, is a good patron of our 'ad' columns and has a new line of bargains this week. Salisbury Lecture Course. The Salisbury lecture course which Rev. L. P. Young arranged for, last year, was not only a rare treat for the people of Salisbury and vicinity, but it was also a great benefit to the whole community.

We are pleased to announce that Rev. Young has arranged for an even better course, this year. It will consist of five attractions, as follows: Nov. 9th, The Dunbar Bell Ringers; Dec. 4th, Rev. M. P. Fikes; Feb. 13th, Rev. Dr. E. T. Hagerman; Rev. Dr. John M. Driver, for whom no date has yet been fixed; Apr. 2nd, The Broadway Jubilee Singers.

All the attractions are of the highest order, and no person in the community can afford to miss a single one of them. We owe it to Rev. Young to do all in our power to make the course a success in the way of patronage, for with him it has thus far been largely a labor of love, and it takes more than love to subsist upon and bring up a family.

This man Young is the kind of a man that has long been needed here. He does not belong to the class of preachers good only to draw salaries—the kind that are mere parasites on society. He is doing a work among us that is worthy of encouragement, and if you are not aiding the lecture course by your financial as well as your moral support, you are not doing your duty to yourself or to the community.

This advertisement is absolutely free and unsolicited, and we mean every word of it.

A CRIMINAL ATTACK on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 11-1

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP—USED FOR TEN YEARS WITHOUT A FAILURE.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 11-1

A Grave Problem.

In the training of children, the gravest problem that confronts the conscientious parent is the formation of habits of truthfulness and the eradication of deception, the inherent trait which has been the defense of the weak against the strong since the infancy of the human race, when the cave child hid its bit of marrow bone, licked its greasy fingers and told a lie.

Admitting that your child will lie, the next thing to do is to find its motive; what kind of lies does he tell? There is always a motive, and the only way to build up a character of truthfulness is to find what this is and use it as a working basis. Motives are many, and include the shrinking from physical pain, a fear of censure or ridicule, the desire for praise, selfishness, and oftentimes to avoid hurting the feelings or prospects of another.—"Family Problems," in The Ladies' World for November.

Thomas A. Edison, the great American inventor, says: "Fully eighty per cent. of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it, or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them. It is at such times that the stomach needs help; it demands help, and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by E. H. Miller. 11-1
