THE BOWLING CONTESTS.

Salisbury Again Victorious in Games With Somerset and Berlin Clubs—Home Club Carries off County Championship and $20.00 Prize.

There is no letup in the interest taken in the American game of Ten Pins, and the league formed some time ago by the Salisbury, Somerset, Berlin and Meyersdale bowling clubs has been furnishing lots of fine amusement for a large number of spectators and other interested persons residing in the four towns and their respective vicinities.

The contest arranged for was such that each club was to play each of the other three clubs six games, the winners over all to be declared the county champions until some other contest gives the championship to some other club. Furthermore, a prize of $20.00 is to go to the winning club.

Three games of the contest are yet to be played, but the championship and prize are already won by the Salisbury club, whose lead cannot be overcome, no matter who wins the remaining games yet to be played, which will be pulled off at Somerset, Nov. 15th, between the Somerset and Meyersdale clubs.

Three games pulled off in Salisbury, last Friday night, between the Salisbury and Somerset clubs, resulted as follows: First game, Salisbury 757 pins, to 631 for Somerset. Second game, 821 for Salisbury, 616 for Somerset. Third game, 763 for Salisbury, 658 for Somerset, giving Salisbury a lead in the three games of 436 pins.

On Tuesday night of this week, the Berlin club came over and played our home club three games, resulting as follows: First game, Salisbury 743; Berlin, 622. Second game, Salisbury 712; Berlin, 688; Third game, Salisbury 802; Berlin, 720, giving Salisbury a lead of 227 pins in the three games.

In the 18 games played by our home club, six games were won from Somerset, five from Berlin and three from Meyersdale, while the games lost by our own club were one to Berlin, two to Meyersdale, and one game tied with Meyersdale.

Hurray for the Salisbury club, the only club in the league that confined itself in each game to the five men originally selected to do the bowling! Our boys did not load up with outside material or play the baby act in a single instance, which cannot be said of some of the others. However, we must say that all the games played in Salisbury were singularly free from "rag chewing," all clubs interested doing the square thing while here. The only thing to mar the pleasure of any of the contests pulled off in Salisbury was some "smart aleck" talk indulged in by Dr. W. T. McMillan, after the first contest with Meyersdale was pulled off here. McMillan seemed to think it smart to slander our town in the presence of some of our people, thereby showing his littleness and exhibiting just how badly it hurt because the club of which he is a member was beaten in its first trial of skill with Salisbury. But in McMillan's case, the source must be considered. He dislikes our town, anyway, because our people soon took his correct measure when he started to practice his profession here, and the bushwhacker from Accident sought greener pastures.

BY REQUEST.

Recipe is Easily Prepared at Small Cost, and Many Swear By It.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive Kidneys, overcoming Backache, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1906, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

THE NEW PURE GOOD AND DRUG LAW.

WHAT NEXT?

Irvin J. Engle Runs First Steam Railway Locomotive Into Salisbury Borough.

Last Monday the people of Salisbury were somewhat surprised to see a steam locomotive come puffing up the trolley line from Boynton, and run right into the borough limits, with Irvin J. Engle at the lever.

Upon investigation it was found that the locomotive was one built for the Maust Lumber Company's standard-gauge road running from the Findlay bridge, up Pine Run, to their Red Ridge timber tract.

The engine was built in the works of the Improved Traction Engine Company, at Boynton, and it climbed the grade between Boynton and Salisbury without any trouble, which speaks volumes for the engine and boiler invented by Gideon Miller, an Elk Lick farmer's son.

At the north end of Grant street the lumbering engine was run onto heavy skids and then pulled to its destination, a distance of three miles, with one of our home-made traction engines, the handsomest and most powerful traction engines in the world, invented by Elk Lick brains and built by Salisbury and Elk Lick brawn and capital, in an Elk Lick factory.

Talk about old Elk Lick and Salisbury, gentlemen, why, this locality is in the forefront in nearly everything of a progressive nature, even in ten pins!

The Improved Traction Engine Works, the Miller Gasoline Engine and Sugar Evapor Works, near Springs, and M. Knecht & Sons' Elk Lick Foundry and Machine Works, are not in the quitter class of the Meyersdale Wooden Pin Factory, Meyersdale Iron Works and Meyersdale Lock Factory, but they increase their capacity and output each year, adding fame to this locality right along.

One of these days we're going to have "Scottie" Easton build an air ship, and that will add still more glory to Salisbury. But the trouble is, nearly all the other states in the Union are utilizing "Scottie's" valuable services, brains and ability by turns.

A RELIABLE REMEDY FOR CROUP.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 12-1
