The assessment and election books of Somerset county, for the coming year, are said to contain the names of about 15,000 voters, which indicates that the present population of Somerset county is about 75,000. Few counties in the state are making more rapid strides in wealth and population than Somerset.

Some years ago Miss Fannie B. Johnson's father, of Houma, La., killed B. E. Johnson because he would not marry her. Then a breach of promise suit was brought against his heirs, and recently a verdict was obtained for $20,000 and 5 per cent. interest. And that is the Louisiana way of dealing with fellows who trifle with the affections of the girls they profess to love.

The apple crop this year was a "frost" in Somerset county. Careful estimates show that not more than 500 bushels of apples were harvested this year. Last year hundreds of thousands of bushels were marketed, and a probable half million bushels rotted on the ground for a want of market. So says a news dispatch now going the rounds of the press, and it is about the truth of the matter.

General Superintendent Frank R. Lyon, of the Somerset Coal Company, is still confined to the house, nursing his foot which was disabled five weeks ago, when he accidentally tramped on a rusty nail, at Jenners. With the assistance of telephone receivers which have been installed in his library, he is able to keep in touch with his subordinates, and with mines over which he exercises authority. At the present rate of progress, Superintendent Lyon will be able to visit the local offices in a few days, says a Somerset exchange.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often do turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow this to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good reliable and safe digestant like KODOL. For Dyspepsia, KODOL is the best remedy known today for heart burn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords relief promptly. Sold by E. H. Miller. 12-1

A little girl of four or five years was quietly playing on the porch, one afternoon, says Harper's Weekly, while her father and one of his friends were enjoying a smoke and a chat on political matters. They paid no attention to the little girl, who in turn seemed entirely absorbed in her dolls and her Teddy bear. When the guest had gone, and bedtime came, the child's mother noticed that she was unusually silent and thoughtful, and when she knelt to say her prayers, there came a pause after the usual petitions, and then she resumed very earnestly: "And now, God, please take great care of Yourself, for if anything should happen to You, we should have only Mr. Roosevelt—and he has not come up to papa's expectations."

One of the incomprehensible things in the religious observances of the day, is that when the pastor of a church is discouraged and disappointed at the lack of spiritual activity, and seeming indifference of his members, especially at their non-attendance at church, and his heart is almost breaking because greater success is not crowning his efforts to do his Master's work, he dispenses with all or part of his sermon on some occasion and lectures the few faithful who are present for the faults of the multitude who are engaged in worldly pursuits. Would it not be better to talk love and harmony, and "peace that passeth understanding" to the faithful, and then go out and make his complaint individually to the unfaithful? Who can doubt the result? pertinently asks the Somerset Democrat.

Fred Petry had hardly opened his new barber shop until he was approached by a member of the barbers' trust, who demanded to know on what principles he proposed to run his shop. It is needless to say that the principles didn't suit the trust member, who then got very nasty with his meddlesome mouth. The people have no use for trusts, whether barbers' trusts, doctors' trusts or whatever kind of trusts they may be. The business or professional man who dares to own himself, gives his patrons good service, and opens and closes his place of business at such hours as meet the requirements of his patrons, cannot fail to get his share of the business, and have the good will of his patrons as well. If some meddlesome "sissies" would put in more hours shaving faces, and less time playing poker, they would not only make more money, but would stand much higher in the estimation of their fellow men. Even going to church on Sunday, looking as sanctimonious as a sick monkey and carrying a hymn book or bible under his arm, will not avail a poker fiend very much when the public is once onto him.

Simon Miller Heard From.

Our friend Simon S. Miller, who some weeks ago started to make a tour of the West, in company with his wife, sent us a post card message from Pasadena, Cal., under date of the 9th inst., which reads as follows:

"We reached this place this morning. Stopped at Denver, Manitou, Salt Lake City and Oakland. I am beginning to be almost as much impressed with the 'whopperishness' of the size of this country as 'Mony' Stevanus was when he took a trip to Conemaugh. All well."

The State Game Department has issued instructions to all wardens to make special efforts to apprehend and prosecute all violators of the law. Wardens who fail to make a "showing" will be dropped. In addition to the regular force of deputies, it is said that the department has employed twenty-five detectives, who will visit every county, try to catch violators, and also see if the wardens are doing their duty, says the Oakland Journal.

A tickling cough, from any cough, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by All Dealers. 12-1

WHEN A MAN TELLS YOU it does not pay to advertise, he is simply admitting that he is conducting a business that is not worth advertising, a business conducted by a man unfit to do business, and a business which should be advertised for sale. tf
