TEN PINS.
Somerset Bowling League Reorganized.

The Somerset County Bowling League was reorganized, last week, under new rules. The first three games of the second championship contest were played in Meyersdale, last Tuesday night, between the Somerset and Meyersdale clubs, Somerset winning two of the games and by a lead of 37 pins in the three.

Tonight Salisbury plays Berlin on the Berlin alleys.

The first county contest was won by Salisbury, both in games and number pins.

Following are the totals of the different members of the Salisbury club for the first county contest:

Thomas Clark	2499
Orville Ross	2365
Chas. Gibson	2365
Q. A. McClure	2246
John J. Walker	2192

Mabel Beachy Gets Verdict for $7,625 as Result of Suit Against B. & O.

Miss Mabel Beachy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Beachy, of Somerset, Pa., secured a verdict against the B. & O. Railroad Company, last Friday, for $7,625. Miss Beachy was one of the victims of the Kauffman's Run wreck on the Somerset & Cambria branch of the B. & O., which occurred Aug. 30, 1905. Miss Beachy was badly injured and brought suit for damages in the sum of $25,000.

Another case lost by the B. & O. before the special civil court now in session, was that of Catherine Tressler, of Northampton township, who had asked $3,000 for the death of her husband, William Tressler, on November 10, 1905. Tressler was struck by a train, it was alleged, while driving across the B. & O. tracks at Philson station, between Sand Patch and Glencoe. There was a dispute as to whether the required signal had been given as the train approached the crossing. The jury returned a verdict of $1,500 for the plaintiff. A motion for a new trial has been filed.

Quite a Difference.
"Pa., what's the difference between the meaning of prepared and ready?"
"Well, there's many a person who may be prepared to die, but I never saw one who was ready."

A METHODIST MINISTER RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Excellent Program to be Rendered at County Institute, at Somerset, Beginning Nov. 25th.

County Supt. D. W. Seibert recently issued a nicely gotten up program for the County Teachers' Institute, which will convene at Somerset on Monday, Nov. 25th, 1907, and last until the following Friday. A large attendance is anticipated, owing to the extraordinary excellence of the program and the high class instructors, lecturers and other attractions provided for.

The instructors in the institute will be Dr. Ruric N. Roark, of Richmond, Ky. Dr. S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, Ohio. Dr. George W. Little, of Washington, D. C., and Prof. Jerry March, of Philadelphia, Pa. The music will be rendered by Prof. U. D. Miller, Violinist, Miss Edna Louthier, Vocal Soloist, and Miss Bertha Hough, Pianist.

The evening entertainments will be given by Will Carleton, Monday; The John Thomas Concert Co., Tuesday; Senator J. P. Dolliver, Wednesday; and the Katharine Ridgeway Concert Co., Thursday.

Seats for the Evening Entertainments can be reserved at the Book Store of C. H. Fisher & Son.

A GOOD LINIMENT.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 12-1

The Shortest Will.

Probably the shortest will ever probated in Somerset county was entered for record November 13, 1907. It was the will of Sarah Cook, signed by a mark. She lived in Somerset township. All it contained was:

"November 11, 1907. This is my last will and testament. I bequeath unto my husband, Samuel Cook, all my money, and all notes coming to me, as my estate. I hereby appoint J. M. Louthier my executor." Witnessed by S. J. H. Louthier and Emma Barron.

LINGERING COLD.

WITSTOOD OTHER TREATMENT, BUT QUICKLY CURED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale at Miller's Drug Store. 12-1

HUNTER KILLED.

Both Barrels of Gun Accidentally Discharged, and Victim Bleeds to Death.

Rockwood, Nov. 18.—Jacob Phillippi, a well known citizen of Black township, is dead as the result of an accidental shooting. Phillippi was hunting alone, Saturday afternoon, near his home, about four miles from here, when his gun fell from a log and both barrels let go. Both charges took effect, one tearing off an arm, and the other landing in his leg.

This occurred about 4:30 in the afternoon. The injured man laid where he was shot until after 6 o'clock, when his faint cries were heard by John Phillippi, a brother. He was taken to the Burkholder home nearby, and died a short time later from loss of blood.

Phillippi was 35 years old, and married. His wife survives him. He was the son of Noah Phillippi. He loved to hunt, and during each open season was out nearly every day. The family is well known throughout this part of Somerset county.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elнора, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by All Drug-gists. 12-1

A New Counterfeit.

Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service, reports the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 national bank note. The counterfeit is on the Wells-Fargo Nevada National Bank of San Francisco, and is a poor photographic reproduction printed on heavy bond paper with no silk fiber. The Treasury numbers have been traced over with red ink. The back of the note is better than the face, being a fair imitation of the genuine, except the coloring around the charter number, which is a muddy green.
