If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. But we know what he will say; for doctors have used this cough medicine over 60 years.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for hard colds, bad coughs, and influenza. It has done me great good, and I believe it is the best cough medicine in the world for all throat and lung troubles." ELI C. STUART, Albany, Oregon.

Ex-Burgess J. D. Swank, and Merchant Tailor Rupert Kimmel, both of Somerset, came to Salisbury on both business and pleasure, yesterday.

Last Saturday night a heavy, wet snow fell, and on Sunday morning we had about 8 or 9 inches of it. Many telephone wires were broken down by it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth went over to Friedens, last week, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Miller, the parents of Mrs. Haselbarth. They returned home on Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Haselbarth's little brother.

The hotels Vannear, Belmont and Arlington at Somers-et will on and after December 1 discontinue their station busses under a compact made between themselves. The Somerset House buss will continue to meet the trains, says the Berlin Record.

Babies and children need prompt attention when suffering from coughs and colds. The best remedy for mothers to use is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It contains no opiates, and it is laxative and drives the cold out of the system by gently moving the bowels. Sold by E. H. Miller. 12-1

Now is the time to plant your Christmas "ads." THE STAR is better prepared than ever to carry your advertisements into the good homes of this locality. Let your light shine, and the way to do that best is to let it shine through the columns of THE STAR.

A prominent and truthful citizen was recently heard make the following remarks: "THE STAR sometimes gives some very hard knocks, but I never knew it to jump onto an innocent person." Right you are, "Mr. Man." Only the guilty howl when rottenness is exposed.

Don't forget the Farmers' Institute in Salisbury, Friday and Saturday of this week. Be sure to attend, for it will be interesting. See program elsewhere in this paper. Don't forget that the farmers are the life blood of the nation, and it won't cost you a cent to attend their institutes.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some little Candy Cold Tablets called Preventics. Druggists everywhere are now dispensing Preventics, for they are not only safe, but decidedly certain and prompt. Preventics contain no Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will prevent Pneumonia, Bronchitis, La Grippe, etc. Hence the name, Preventics. Good for feverish children. 48 Preventics 25 cents. Trial Boxes 5 cts. Sold by All Dealers. 12-1

We see in the daily papers that the price of meat is coming down, and we know the reason why. Frank and James Murphy, Salisbury's popular restaurant keepers, recently killed six hogs, the combined weight of which netted 634 pounds of dressed pork. John Kann is not the only man noted for raising big hogs.

The editor of THE STAR is going to make a try to get into the next legislature, and George B. Walker is going to make a try in court, next Monday, to get the same editor into jail, on a charge of criminal libel. However, we are not in the least discouraged, for there are lots of people who think we could rub elbows with more honest men in jail than in the legislative halls in Harrisburg.

There is nothing better for stomach troubles than KODOL, which contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. KODOL is offered on a guaranteed plan for the relief of heart burn, flatulence, sour stomach, belching of gas, nausea, and all stomach troubles. So at times when you don't feel just right, when you are drowsy after meals, and your head aches or when you have no ambition, and you are cross and irritable, take a little KODOL. It digests what you eat. It will make you healthy. Sold by E. H. Miller. 12-1

The Meyersdale Orchestra, under direction of Wm. P. Young, will give a fine concert in the Grand Opera House, Meyersdale, Pa., on the evening of Dec. 3d. The orchestra will be assisted by Mrs. C. P. MacLaughlin and Mrs. G. W. Collins, soprano singers, and Prof. J. Irven Beals, tenor singer. Admission 35 and 50 cents. The concert will be well worth hearing.

Over at Berlin they have a racoon club, but they ought to send for the genial proprietor of Hotel Wagner, of this place, to come over and show them how to catch 'coons. Frank Wagner has a 'coon dog that he can go out with and catch more 'coons in a single night than the Berlin club can capture in a week, to say nothing of 'possums, wildcats, etc. But of course, Frank's brag dog hasn't captured Silas Durst's panther yet.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample sent, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by All Dealers. 12-1

The Eagles' Minstrels in the Grand Opera House, Meyersdale, Pa., tonight, will be a fine attraction, but it is not correct, as printed in the Meyersdale Republican, that S. L. and P. L. Livengood will sing in the chorus. S. L. is knocked out by a bad cold, and P. L. is knocked out by a combination of hoarseness and business that requires all of his attention. However, the non-appearance of the two Salisbury vocalists (?) will not in the least detract from the excellence of the show.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often do turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow this to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good reliable and safe digestant like KODOL For Dyspepsia. KODOL is the best remedy known today for heart burn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords relief promptly. Sold by E. H. Miller. 12-1 service as assistant postmaster, by P. L. Livengood, Notary Public. Postmaster Folk is at present very badly disabled, owing to a very sore hand with which he has been suffering for some time. His wife is a woman of good ability, and that she will conduct the postoffice in a satisfactory manner until John's hand gets well, is a fore-gone conclusion.

Elsewhere in this paper appears an item telling of a snug fortune in Germany which the wife of Jacob Diehl, late of West Salisbury, but now of Robbins Station, Pa., is a sharer in. We met Jacob's brother Fritz, the other day, and Fritz says he is looking daily for his brother Jacob to make him a visit and bring the entire fortune with him. "Then," said Fritz, "I will butcher two fat hogs, and me and Jake will show everybody in the neighborhood a good time." That may all come to pass, Fritz, but Jake's wife may object. Then what?

A tickling cough, from any cough, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by All Dealers. 12-1

Poker Joint Burned.
About four o'clock, last Sunday morning, a small frame building owned by John J. Livengood, and formerly used for a wagon-maker's shop, was destroyed by fire.

The place has for the past few years been used as a gambling resort by certain single and married men about town, who ought to be in better business.

Mr. Livengood, the owner, is a man past three score years and ten, and he has on more than one occasion routed the gamblers, we are told, but they would soon return to ply their hellish trade, even breaking the lock to the old shop to gain entrance.

The famous joint has long been running wide open, and the proper officers to suppress such places knew all about it, but for some reason refused to put a stop to it. The shame is upon the officers, therefore, while the loss falls upon people who are scarcely able to bear it.

The building was not only destroyed by the fire, but two buggies stored therein, one belonging to Mr. Livengood, and the other to W. B. Stevanus, also went up in smoke, as did other things of more or less value that were stored in the building. The total loss is about $200, and as near as we can learn, the fire originated through a "scrap" over a game of cards, which is thought to have resulted in an overturned lamp or stove.

There is talk of arrests to be made, but just how matters will terminate for the persons responsible for the fire remains to be seen.

WITHSTOOD OTHER TREATMENT, BUT QUICKLY CURED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale at Miller's Drug Store. 12-1

Birthday Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foy, of Meyersdale, Pa., was the scene of a merry birthday party, last Thursday evening, the occasion being the 18th birthday anniversary of their daughter Maude.

An enjoyable evening was spent in playing games, music, etc., and a bounteous supper was served at a late hour, after which the guests departed, feeling that they had a good time, and wishing Miss Maude many more happy birthday anniversaries.

The young hostess was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. The following named guests were present: Mr. Levi Cochrane and Misses Susan and Charlotte Cochrane, of Salisbury; Mr. Walter Blum and Misses Emma Tipkie, Bertha Tipkie and Sara Hartle, of Johnstown, Pa.; Messrs. Hartung, Thomas Lynch, Thos. ## CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by All Druggists. 12-1
