We have quite a crowd around our place, but there's always room for one more, and our clerks are of the spry kind. They don't keep a customer hanging around half a day before being waited upon.

"Jim" Easton, the Arkansaw Traveler, Heard From.

Our friend James Easton, who is now in Arkansas, where we understand he is operating a drilling machine, has favored the editor of this great luminary with quite an interesting letter. In mentioning the progress, culture, resources, etc., in the locality where he is, he gets off the following:

"The weather here is fine, and you can, to some extent, appreciate the industry, activity and culture of this particular people when I tell you that the razorback hog is almost extinct."

"This section is noted for its rich wines and smokeless coal, a combination that could hardly brook the presence of the razorback, hence his goodness."

"Truly this is a land of promise. It simply awaits development. There is no reason why any of the inhabitants should be poor, and they aren't."

PAST EXAMINATION SUCCESSFULLY.

James Donahue, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several kidney remedies, and was treated by our best physicians for diabetes, but did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures back-ache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. Sold by all Druggists. 1-1

Two Very Old Men.

We glean the following concerning two very old men, from one of our exchanges:

Rev. John Schaffer, who claims to be the oldest minister in the world, celebrated his 102 birthday near North Benton, Ohio. He was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., in 1805, and when 21 was licensed to preach in the Lutheran church. Many years ago he identified himself with the Disciples of Christ, and is thought to be the only contemporary of Alexander Campbell, founder of that sect. He reads without glasses, his mind is bright, and he still enjoys a cigar and good health.

W. R. Chambers, believed to be the oldest man in Pennsylvania, is dead at Cecil, aged 106 years. Mr. Chambers was a native of County Claire, Ireland, but when young moved to London, where he married, and where his wife died 50 years ago. He came to this country shortly afterward, and worked as a moulder. For 40 years he had lived on a farm at Cecil, with his half brother, Robert Chambers. Until the time of his death he had complete possession of his faculties. He smoked a pipe all his life, and drank moderately. He could recall important world's incidents which occurred nearly 100 years ago.

A REAL WONDERLAND.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting, coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by E. H. Miller, druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 1-1

Agricultural Societies Get No More Donations From State.

Harrisburg, Dec. 9.—Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield has cut off the usual State allowance to organizations like the State Agricultural Association, the Dairy Union and the State Live Stock Breeders' Association, because there is no authority of law for these donations. The State Board of Agriculture gets an appropriation of $1,750 annually from the Legislature, and will not be affected by the action of Secretary Critchfield.

It has been the custom for years for the Secretary of Agriculture to give each of these organizations an annual allowance of $200 or $300 out of the contingent fund of his department toward defraying the expenses of their annual meetings.

WHEN TO GO HOME.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy, go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold, go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and a quick cure is certain. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 1-1

MIX THIS.

Prepare it at Home By Shaking Ingredients Well in a Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affections with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

A Sparrow Omen.

The following echo of the Hobnail wreck we reproduce for what it is worth. While that train was sidetracked at Somerset, the day prior to the wreck, two sparrows flew into the engine. The regular front brakeman, John Weaver, of Rockwood, noticed the birds, which were caught by one of the men, and afterward liberated. Mr. Weaver declared the visit of the sparrows was an unlucky omen and that something would happen the train. Mr. Weaver declined to come out on the train, the fateful morning, and Mr. Klump, an extra man, was called in his place. Mr. Klump was killed.—Meyersdale Republican.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend
