Have You a Friend?

Then tell him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Tell him how it cured your hard cough. Tell him why you always keep it in the house. Tell him to ask his doctor about it. Doctors use a great deal of it for throat and lung troubles.

"I had a terrible cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it gave me quick and perfect relief. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—RINA E. WHITMAN, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.

One of Ayer's Pills at bedtime will hasten recovery. Gently laxative.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds and lung troubles. This is because the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Guard your health by refusing any but the genuine. Sold by all Druggists. 1-1

Walter Easton returned home from Goldfield, Nevada, Christmas eve. He will remain with his family for some time, but intends to go back to Nevada again, where he is interested in some mining claims that give promise of being very rich. His brother Sidney is still out there, and will look after his own and Walter's interests during the latter's absence. Walter had some interesting experiences and saw many interesting things during his long absence, and his accounts thereof are both entertaining and instructive.

Whenever you feel that your stomach has gone a little wrong, or when you feel that it is not in good order, as is evidenced by mean headaches, nervousness, bad breath, and belching, take something at times, and especially after your meals until relief is afforded. There is nothing better offered the public today for stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, etc., than KODOL. This is a scientific preparation of natural digestants combined with vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in every healthy stomach. KODOL is guaranteed to give relief. It is pleasant to take; it will make you feel fine by digesting what you eat. Sold by E. H. Miller. 1-1

Undertaker W. A. Clarke, of Meyersdale, was one of the first volunteers to answer the call for assistance at Jacob's Creek, where a great mine explosion occurred last Thursday, killing about 200 employes. He was there when the first bodies were brought to the surface, but found the rescue work progressing slowly. Mr. Clarke is from near Johnstown, and he claims that the bodies so far recovered at Jacob's Creek are not as badly burned as those killed in the Rolling Stock mine explosion, near Johnstown, a few years ago.

A tickling cough, from any cough, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh, used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by All Dealers. 1-1

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rumiser, of Duquesne, Pa., arrived in town several days ago to spend Christmas with relatives and friends here. Mr. Rumiser, however, was telegraphed for, Monday morning, to return to Duquesne at once, as something turned up to make his services almost indispensable to his employers at this time, and he complied with the request. We are sorry indeed that he couldn't remain with his friends here until after Christmas, and we know that his short visit was a disappointment to him and to them.

Vin Baumgardner, Miss Harriet Haselbarth and Miss Bessie Miller, a sister of Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth, all figured in a sleigh up-set, last Friday evening, while returning from the Lichty school house, where Miss Haselbarth teaches. In driving across the P. & M. trolley line, one of the sleigh runners slid some distance along a rail and made a noise that frightened the horse, causing it to run away. The sleigh was pretty badly damaged, but the occupants were merely spilled out, and not hurt. The horse escaped with a few slight injuries.
