MANY mistakes are made in starting the New Year tight instead of right.

Last call in Georgia: "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we go dry."

TOM WATSON advocates the immediate issue of $100,000,000 in greenbacks to tide over the financial stringency. Tom always did believe in the power of the printing press.

A WRITING paper has been invented that crumbles into dust in twenty-four hours. It is especially recommended for the married men who write fool letters to women not their wives.

ON the same afternoon, New York courts awarded $10,000 to one boy for the loss of his leg, and $800 to parents of another who was killed. It is cheaper to be thorough with in New York.

We don't want to fight, but, by jingo! if we do, we've got the men, we've got the ships, we've got the bichloride of mercury, the chloroform, the scalpel, the bandages, the calomel and soda, the quinine, the formaldehyde, and the little liver pills, too.

P. & M. Trolley Company Wins in Supreme Court.

The officers of the P. & M. Street Railway Company were notified, Monday morning last, that the Supreme Court decision sustained the verdict of Judge Kooser in the litigation between the P. & M. and its would-be rival, the M. & S. Street Railway Company.

The decision is what all sensible people who kept in touch with the litigation between the two companies expected, and the old faking M. & S. gang of schemers will now have to be good. They have made their last bluff, and some of them will no doubt be poorer, but wiser men by the time all the costs are paid.

People who want to play for big stakes and win out on bluff, pretense and hot air, should not make the mistake to go up against such men as the P. & M. company is composed of.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY BENEFITS A CITY COUNCILMAN AT KINGSTON, JAMAICA.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble, and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me, there is no doubt, and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 2-1

A Thing We Have Often Wondered at.

Why any person who gets any mail worth mentioning should subject himself and a postmaster to the annoyance of having his mail placed in the alphabetical list, where it cannot be seen at a glance by the postmaster or the person calling for it, is a thing we have often wondered at during the eight years we had charge of the postoffice in this borough. An ordinary call box costs but five cents per month, and the convenience of it, time saved in getting one's mail, etc., is worth at least five cents a day. No postoffice patron who gets his or her mail regularly at one office can afford to be without a postoffice box. But the kind of a box needed by the professional postoffice loiterer who doesn't get a letter in a month on an average, but who is always on hand when the mail is distributed, is the kind that is bought from the undertakers.

RANK FOOLISHNESS.

"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. MIX IT.

Says Many Persons Here Can Be Made Happy Again By Using This.

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice by an eminent authority, who writes for readers of a large Eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons, acids and waste matter, which cause not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while. Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

New Coal Operation.

Reuben C. Loughnor, of Windber, and some of J. W. Ringler's sons, have leased Richard Glotfelty's coal, and intend to open up a mine for country trade, from which coal may also be shipped by rail, later on. They have opened up a nice seam of coal, which shows 38 inches in thickness near the outcrop, and they think it will be found about four feet thick further in the hill. All persons connected with the new enterprise are young men of excellent quality, and we wish them abundant success.

Two Wives and Thirteen Children.

Last week, one Thomas Plum, of Garrett, was admitted to the County Home, having been afflicted with paralysis at the age of sixty-five years. But, according to a report in the Berlin Gleaner, paralysis is not the least of the aged man's trouble. It seems that Mr. Plum left York county about five years ago, deserting a wife and thirteen younger Plums, and took unto himself a second wife at Garrett. There was some talk of the members of Mr. Plum's first family suing him for bigamy, but in view of his present condition, that probably will not be done.—Somerset Standard.

AN INSIDIOUS DANGER.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Sold by all Druggists. 2-1

Where Is New York?

It was during the desert course. He had been sitting next to her for the last hour and a half and was deeply conscious of the beautiful contour of her arms and shoulders.

"Do you know," she said suddenly, "I've been in misery for a week. Sometimes I could almost scream with pain."

"Why, what's the matter?" he exclaimed sympathetically.

"I was vaccinated last week and it has taken dreadfully."

His eyes fell and his gaze was curious. But he saw no scar. "Why, where were you vaccinated?" he asked impetuously.

She raised her eyebrows and smiled sweetly. "In New York," she replied.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

WOOD PULP.

A Great Famine in this Commodity Almost a Certainty.

Washington, Jan. 5.—"An area half as large as the state of Rhode Island is stripped of its spruce every year to make wood pulp. Wood has been stripped from the hills eagerly, and trees have not been planted to take its place. Every material interest is threatened by the present wasteful methods."

These statements from a leading paper trade journal seem extravagant on first reading, but their authenticity receives good support in the report of the United States Forest Service, that the publishers of the country are using more than three and one-half million cords of pulp wood each year. Further support to the statements is given by the estimates which show that a New York daily, one of those with various morning and evening editions, which are said to have an aggregate daily circulation of nearly a million copies, used 77,333,875 pounds of white newspaper, last year. This is an average of 211,873 pounds a day.

The large Sunday edition is estimated to require 30 per cent. of the paper used each week, while the week-day editions take up the remaining 70 per cent. Figuring the composition of this paper at 80 per cent. of ground wood, and 20 per cent. of sulphite fiber, the average Sunday edition of this paper requires the cut from 29.7 acres of land, and a single week-day edition requires approximately 11.5 acres.

These figures allow a stand of nine cords of wood to the acre, which is considered the average for a large area, although certain small stands can be found where the yield is much heavier. The amount of wood pulp used by this one New York paper seems to afford a good excuse for the white paper scare, which is making publishers cut down the size of their papers, or take the other alternative and raise the price. Experts say, however, that the final solution of the wood pulp question will have to come from the adoption of a system of forest management by mill owners, together with the adoption of less wasteful methods in working up their products, and the study of the utilization of woods other than spruce for the manufacture of pulp.

A HIGHER HEALTH LEVEL.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at E. H. Miller's drug store. 25c. 2-1

Accident to Samuel A. Beachy.

On Monday afternoon, Samuel A. Beachy, a well known farmer residing but a short distance south of Salisbury met with quite an accident in Barchus & Livengood's store room, where he fell through an open trap door to the cellar beneath. He was somewhat stunned by the heavy fall, but fortunately no bones were broken. However, the fall was a severe one, and Mr. Beachy has not yet fully recovered from its effects.

Messrs. Barchus & Livengood sent the unfortunate man home in a buggy, and everything possible was done from the time the accident happened to make him as comfortable as possible. We trust that no permanent injury will result, but Tuesday morning the injured man did not feel like arising from his bed. Since then we have heard nothing of Mr. Beachy's condition, but we trust that he will soon be feeling as well as usual.

People who have trap doors which are sometimes open, in their places of business, cannot be too careful for the safety of their customers. Such places are a constant menace to shoppers, when open, unless equipped with a suitable railing to insure safety.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY A SAFE MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 2-1
