SHAKE WELL.

Advice of Noted Authority. Also Gives a Simple Home Prescription.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

DENVER surgeons have given a man a silver jawbone. He ought to make a great 16-to-1 orator.

An Eastern scientist is contending that long fingers are a sign of nobility of soul. Every pickpocket in the country will be glad to hear it.

"The ex-President," says Grover Cleveland, "is a melancholy product of our government system." And it would cheer Mr. Bryan up wonderfully to have a chance to become a melancholy product.

A PITTSBURG contemporary advises a correspondent to write to his Congressman for a record of President Cleveland's vetoes. And yet some people think Congressmen earn their salaries by simply looking wise.

In his annual statement the New York forest commissioner asserts that the forests of the state will disappear in twenty years. But it will be many, many years before New York reports a shortage of Presidential timber.

CONGRESS is hard at work, now, trying to disagree on some kind of an "elastic currency" bill. If there is anything in the world that will be popular with the people, it would be an element of elasticity in our currency, sufficient to make it go around. Most of the leaders in Congress are favorable to asset currency, by which is meant that national banks shall be allowed to deposit first class securities with the Treasury Department and issue notes against them, the same as they now do against Government bonds. At the present time our currency rests principally on gold, silver and Government bonds, and the proposed measure would simply enlarge our monetary basis, which ought to be done with all haste. There is a division, however, in Congress, as to whether anything but State and Municipal bonds should be accepted as collateral or basis for bank note circulation. One class holds that the limit should end here, while another class holds that to the above two kinds should be added first class real estate mortgages, and marketable bonds of all sorts having established values. It will be well to watch the influence of Wall Street in this legislation, for it is well known that Wall Street does not want to see too much of an enlargement of our currency, as it will lessen its waning power.

BANK SUES A BANK.

Officers of Defunct Meyersdale Bank Must Meet Charges from Pittsburg.

A sequel in the closing of the Farmers' Bank of Meyersdale developed today when the Second National Bank of Pittsburg issued two actions in assumption against S. D. Livengood, president of the defunct institution, and H. M. Berkley, assignee, for $10,498.80, with interest.

In the first suit it is alleged that on June 23, 1907, the Glendale Coal Company, Fred Rowe and J. C. Reed, of Meyersdale, executed a judgment note to S. D. Livengood for $5,000. The note, it seems, was assigned to the Second National Bank of Pittsburg, which alleges the makers of the note failed to meet the obligation when demand was made. In the other case it is alleged the same persons gave their note to Livengood for $5,498.80, and that he assigned it to the plaintiff institution, says a news dispatch, dated Jan. 13th.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY BENEFITS A CITY COUNCILMAN AT KINGSTON, JAMAICA.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Fogarty, who is a member of the City Council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble, and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me, there is no doubt, and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 2-1

State Dispensary Located at Meyersdale.

Patients with pulmonary tubercular troubles will be treated at the State Tuberculosis Dispensary No. 30, by the County Medical Inspector, Dr. C. P. Large.

Somerset county is to have a free dispensary for consumptives. It is located in Meyersdale, and under the care of Dr. C. P. Large. It is now open, and is located in the offices of Drs. Meyers & Large, on Meyers avenue. It will be open on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from 1 o'clock to 3 o'clock in the afternoons.

These public dispensaries are intended for the treatment of patients who are unable to pay for medical attendance, and the object is to give instructions regarding sanitary conditions and health, to patients who are unable or unwilling to go to the State Sanitarium at Mont Alto, where they can be treated. There the State has built specially designed houses for those suffering from pulmonary troubles, but only those patients are accepted who have a chance for improvement or recovery. A number have been discharged, cured of the disease. There will be seventy-five of these dispensaries in the state, one in each of the counties, and the remainder of that number distributed in the large cities. The one in Meyersdale will be known as Tuberculosis Dispensary No. 30.

Commissioner Berkey Active.

Commissioner of Banking J. A. Berkey has announced a districting of the state for bank examinations, and the new scheme went into effect January 1st. The state has been divided into nine districts, to which sixteen examiners have been assigned.

Philadelphia is one district, with five examiners, and Allegheny county another, with four. The rest of the state has been split into seven districts, each with one examiner, and each having an average of forty-five institutions. There are fully 500 concerns on the Banking Department list.

Banking Examiner James M. Cover, of Somerset, has been assigned to one of the Pittsburg districts.

Mr. Berkey says his department will, if all plans work well, examine 470 State chartered banks and trust companies, having combined assets of $1,538,890,000, at least twice a year. The aggregate assets of these concerns is half a million more than that of the 612 national banks in Pennsylvania, says the Somerset Standard.

SUICIDE.

J. T. Jeffery, a Former Salisbury Merchant, Dies by His Own Hand.

Jesse T. Jeffery, a well known former merchant of Salisbury, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid, Monday evening last, at his home in Brownsville, Pa. For a number of years he conducted a grocery in Salisbury, doing a lucrative business, but finally failed through intemperate habits acquired just at the time when he began to prosper.

Last June he moved his family and household effects to Brownsville, Pa., where he obtained employment in a power plant operated by the West Penn. Railways Company. He worked steadily and faithfully in his new position until a few weeks ago, when he took to drink, lost his position, became despondent and took his own life, committing the deed in the presence of his family, expiring instantly.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeffery, who were residents of this town for many years. His mother died some years ago, and the father, who is aged more than four score years, is an inmate of a home for aged people at Harmony, Pa., where at the present time he is quite ill.

Before Jesse T. Jeffery became a victim of intemperance, he was a most excellent citizen, and even to the end he retained many admirable qualities. He was an honest merchant, and at no time was he ever known to misrepresent anything he sold or to take advantage of a customer. He was a natural business getter, and when not drinking was a most affable, obliging and courteous gentleman. He possessed generosity and kindness of heart in a large degree, and in spite of his weaknesses he always had many warm friends.

An eminently respectable family, consisting of a wife, two sons and a daughter, to whom deceased seemed much devoted, survive him, and they have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement. Deceased is also survived by a half brother and a half sister—James P. Lutz, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Z. W. Miller, of Lonsconing, Md.

The funeral took place today at one o'clock p. m., under the auspices of the Meyersdale lodge K. of P., of which deceased was a member. The Rev. Mr. Stover, pastor of the St. Paul Reformed congregation, was the officiating clergyman, and the remains have been laid to rest in the Salisbury I. O. O. E. cemetery.

Jesse T. Jeffery was aged 40 years and six months, lacking two days. Peace to his ashes. We respect his memory for the many good qualities he possessed, and may the mantle of charity cover all his faults.

A HIGHER HEALTH LEVEL.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at E. H. Miller's drug store. 25c. 2-1

DRASTIC ACTION

Will Be Taken by Anti-Saloon League Against Liquor Interests in Washington County.

The Anti-Saloon League has determined upon unusual steps in the fight in Washington county. R. H. Meloy, local attorney for the organization, announced, Saturday, that proceedings would be begun at once to declare every brewery in Washington county a nuisance. He says he is confident such a declaration will be made by the court, for he asserts sufficient evidence will be produced to show that each of the three local breweries is operating as such.

According to the anti-saloon agents, they have the co-operation of manufacturing concerns and coal operators. "Coal companies," said Mr. Meloy, on Saturday, "claim that this deluging of mining communities with beer frequently renders the miners, especially the foreigners, unfit for work, and at times the mines are almost forced to close down for lack of men." If the movement is successful in Washington, similar proceedings will be taken against other breweries in the country, says the Connelsville Courier.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

If you would be immune from disease, keep the system healthy. Each successive cold weakens the constitution and renders infectious diseases more liable. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure your cold promptly and restore the system to its normal condition. For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 2-1
