FEW KNOW.

Simple Home-Made Treatment Said To Overcome Rheumatism.

When an eminent authority announced in the Scranton (Pa.) Times that he had found a new way to treat that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common, every-day drugs found in any drug store, the physicians were slow indeed to attach much importance to his claims. This was only a few months ago. Today nearly every newspaper in the country, even the metropolitan dailies, is announcing it and the splendid results achieved. It is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows: Get from any good prescription pharmacy, Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost. Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter which, if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism. This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and backache. He also warns people in a leading New York paper against the discriminate use of many patent medicines. If Cortelyou is still running, it's on rubber tires. The click of the water jug is heard all over Georgia. TILLMAN says John D. is an optimist. John D. hasn't returned the compliment. ANYBODY could feel like a Hungarian nobleman with a $5,000,000 wedding dowery. ANOTHER Pennsylvania woman dead at the age of 120. Hard winter, this, on our young people. Just because he has a habit of throwing her out of hotels, an actress is suing her husband for divorce. WHEN a man reads the figures on the Panama canal, he finds there is one thing more expensive than being married. ENGLAND will build two battleships for every one Germany lays down—a war of long purses, the longest winning. "KEEP dry when shopping," advises a Chicago physician. That will be much easier after the Prohibitionists get through with Chicago. THERE were 51,079 marriages in New York, the last twelve months. In spite of a few discouragements, it becomes more popular every year. ALTHOUGH some physicians are insisting that hydrophobia is an imaginary disease, most people will continue to prefer a dog's bark to his bite.

As the matter now stands, there is nothing left for Mr. Bryan to do but to plunge headlong before the Republican steam roller and get flattened out once more.

LESLIE M. SHAW has resigned his $25,000 job as president of the Carnegie Trust Company, in New York. Some of our former life insurance presidents will wonder why he ever consented to work for such ridiculous wages, anyway.

Gov. HUGHES' letter to the New York Republican club in relation to his candidacy for the Presidency is in refreshing contrast to the feverish and often demagogical self-seeking that characterizes present-day politics. It recalls the early days of the Republic, when the office sought the man, and not the man the office.

M. E. STEERE, a citizen of Berlin, died last Thursday morning from the effects of excessive drinking. Deceased was a shoemaker by trade, and a wife and two children survive him. Of course, the fellows who sold or gave the poor, weak man the booze that killed him, will smile as supinely and look just as innocent as though they were in no way responsible for his death. But they are, just the same.

The changed condition of political affairs and the scrupulous care required of candidates in the expenditure of money while soliciting votes, are pointed out by the Harrisburg Telegraph, when it says: "The corrupt practices act, which has been interpreted by the courts to mean that an aspirant for public office cannot influence a voter, even to the extent of purchasing a cigar for his enjoyment, has changed the old order of things in political campaigns. Time was when the rounds of candidates were looked forward to by the patriotic voter as an occasion of great personal interest. But all these things have given away to straight argument in favor of the candidate, either by himself or his friends."

CHILD'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Mrs. John Englehardt, of Gera, Mich., tells of the anxious moments spent over her little two-year-old daughter who had taken a hard cold resulting in croup. She says: "I am satisfied that if it had not been for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy she would have choked to death. I gave this medicine every ten minutes, and she soon began to throw up the phlegm. I can recommend it in the highest terms, as I have another child that was cured in the same way." Sold at Miller's Drug Store. 3-1

Liquor License Applications.

There is no falling off in the number of applications for liquor license in Somerset county, this year, there being in all 83 applicants. Of these 74 are applicants for retailers' license, three for brewers' license, five for distillers' license, and one for wholesalers' license. Attorneys have been employed by the applicants, as follows: Berkey & Shaver have been employed by 23, Scott & Scott by 20, Koontz & Ogle by 12, Fred. W. Biesecker by 10, Geo. R. Scull by 6, H. L. Baer by 3, J. H. Uhl by 3, James L. Pugh by 2, Chas. F. Uhl, J. C. Lowry, A. L. G. Hay and C. W. Walker by one each.

Some Interesting Pennsylvania Statistics.

During the year 1906, there were 167,256 children born in the state, the birth rate among the foreigners being about double the per thousand rate among the native born. Of the total number of children born, there were over 7,000 more boys than girls. There were 183 sets of twins, and 15 sets of triplets. Illegitimate births numbered 4,128. More children were born in August than in any other month, while the lowest number occurred in April. During the same year, 10,180 violent deaths occurred in the state. These deaths were distributed among the principal forms of violence as follows: Suicides, 708; fractures, 537; burns and scalds, 847; drowning, 155; accidental gunshot wounds, 149; injuries in mines, 983; railroad accidents, 2387; homicides, 365. Of the total suicides, 605 were males and 175 females. Of the various forms of suicides, 254 were by firearms, 183 by poison and 150 by hanging. Seven suicides were less than 15 years of age, the youngest being 12 years.

EDITORS GRATEFUL TO PENROSE.

The Pennsylvania State Editorial Association, composed of newspapers from all over the state, and of every political belief, adopted resolutions thanking United States Senator Penrose for his fight against what are considered oppressive unfair regulations of the Postal authorities.

The resolution recites that the Post-office department has issued an order that subscribers to daily newspapers in arrears three months, subscribers to tri-weeklies in arrears six months, subscribers to weeklies in arrears one year, and subscribers to other publications in arrears a proportionate period of time, shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed to such persons shall not be accepted for mailing at Second class postage rates, and that Senator Penrose, who is chairman of the committee on postoffices and postroads, has succeeded in having the enforcement of this order postponed until April 1, so that the publishers of the United States may be given a proper hearing. The Association protests against the enforcement of this "unjust and iniquitous" ruling, and urges all publishers in the state to communicate at once with Senators Penrose and Knox, and also with their respective congressmen, urging them to use their utmost endeavors to have this obnoxious order revoked.

An Interesting Political Fight.

The coming contest for Justice of the Peace, in Elk Lick township, promises to be a battle royal. The Republican nominee is the venerable David Fuller, aged about 84 years, but still as full of life, snap and energy as most men of 40. David of old, when little more than a youth, calmly walked out to do battle with the mighty giant Goliath, and Scripture records that he easily vanquished his antagonist with three smooth stones taken from the bed of a brook. The David in this case is neither a youth nor a shepherd, nor will he throw stones at his opponent. But his friends and backers declare that by the time the votes are counted, his opponent will feel much as did the shorn lambs in the flock of David of old, when the winds of those ancient times blew fierce and chill. Christner is a man aged about 54 years, and he, too, has his friends and backers. Although the candidate of the minority party, the friends of Christner argue that he is more than a match for the venerable David, who is the victor of more than one hotly contested political battle, and who has served in the capacity of Justice of the Peace.

Both candidates, in physique, conform to the description of Shakespeare's typical "Squire" mentioned in his Seven Ages of Man, and that fact added to the fact that both men have long been bitter and unrelenting political foes, will make the contest very interesting. We have nothing in it, but we will snuff the smoke of battle from afar, and may the best man win.

Receiver for M. & S. Street Railway Company.

Following closely upon the adverse opinion of the Supreme court to the Meyersdale & Salisbury Street Railway Company, was the appearance of attorneys in the United States court, asking Judge Buffington to appoint a receiver for the company. The request was made at the instance of R. W. Marshall & Co., of New York.

In 1906 the New York company furnished five interurban cars and two work cars for the railway company, and received $12,500 in bonds and $1000 cash. A balance of $9000 is claimed to be due them.

NEIGHBORHOOD FAVORITE.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier, makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alterative tonic is sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. 3-1
