STORE ROBBERY.

Two Salisbury Lads Rob a Store and Perform Some Bad Capers with Stolen Revolvers.

Last Sunday evening, Harry Romesburg and Albert Lung, two very bad boys of this community, gained entrance to C. R. Haselbarth & Son's hardware store by removing a pane of glass from a rear window. Their object was to commit robbery, and they succeeded in getting away with two Stevens rifles, 2 Iver-Johnson revolvers, a few pocket knives, pair of mittens, a lot of cartridges and a small amount of money. The next day they proceeded to celebrate the robbery by shooting at about anything and everything that came in their pathway, and in that way aroused suspicion which led to their arrest and confession. They at first denied the crime when arrested, but later confessed it, and told the officer where most of the stolen goods were secreted.

After a hearing before "Squire" Samuel Lowery, the boys were taken to Somerset by Constable Krausse, who turned them over to the Sheriff. No trial was necessary, as the boys had made a full confession, and we understand the court promptly sentenced them to a term in one of the state reformatories, the proper place for them.

They are exceedingly tough youngsters, aged about 16 and 15 years respectively, and they were constantly committing thefts and other depredations during the past few years. The Lung boy is the son of a widow who has no control over him, and the other boy is a natural born incorrigible. Both of them have been greatly influenced for bad by reading blood and thunder dime novels, and the general opinion is that their criminal career was checked none too soon to save them from a speedy landing on the gallows.

While the lads were in the Haselbarth store helping themselves to such goods as they wanted, they saw the senior member of the firm walk past the building. They told the officer they feared that Mr. Haselbarth was going to enter the store, and added that they had made up their minds to shoot and kill him if he did so. That they would have committed such a crime, there is but little doubt.

Before the young rascals were arrested, they met an Italian interpreter employed on the pipe line now being laid through this vicinity by the Southern Pipe Line Company, and they covered him with drawn revolvers and made him hold up his hands, dance, pray and do other stunts for their amusements. It is said that one of them also fired at another boy in West Salisbury, shooting a lock of hair from his head, and a report comes from the country saying that one of them fired a ball through a school house window while school was in session.

It's a wonder they haven't killed some one, long ago, and it is to be hoped that a term in the reformatory will make better boys of them. God knows there is lots of room for improvement.

A Bank With an Enviably Reputation.

The First National Bank of Frostburg, Md., has recently been sending out statements showing that well-known and popular banking institution's condition at the close of business on the 14th inst. The statement shows that The First National Bank of Frostburg is one of the strongest financial institutions in Western Maryland.

Its capital stock is $50,000.00, and its surplus and undivided profits exceed $72,000.00. Total resources, $1,200,349.17; loans and discounts, $543,856.13; bonds, securities, etc., $417,948.86; banking house, furniture and fixtures, $25,381.17; individual deposits, $1,021,478.65. These are only a few of the figures, but they will give our readers, many of whom are patrons of the bank, a foretaste, an idea of the great volume of business done by that institution. It is acknowledged to be one of the strongest banks in the country, and its patrons have the advantage of every safeguard and protection known to the banking business. Its officers are business men of the highest integrity, and they give every accommodation consistent with good banking. It pays three per cent. interest on time deposits, compounded semi-annually, and gives small depositors the same courteous attention as accorded to large ones.

SUFFERING & DOLLARS SAVED

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 3-1

"Kidnapped," Next Tuesday Night.

The theatre-goers of Salisbury and vicinity will have an opportunity, next Tuesday night, March 3, of seeing a first-class comedy drama presented by an excellent company composed of talent from Lonaconing, Md., which has met with great success during the past week. The performance will be given for the benefit of St. Michael's church, of which Father J. J. Brady is pastor. Rev. Brady witnessed the performances in Lonaconing and Barton, last week, and was so favorably impressed with the character of the play and the ability of the performers that he invited the company to come to Salisbury to repeat the performance here.

The play itself is a commingling of pathos and comedy, and the scenes depict life in New York City at the present day. The comedy work of Messrs. Dixon and Brady, as the German and Irish characters, has received favorable comment from all who have witnessed the production. There are very many funny situations and incidents throughout the drama, all of which are of the high-class order. There is a tragic scene in the second act, where the villain murders his discarded wife. This makes a very thrilling scene, and is one of the most startling situations in the play.

The play is in four acts, and with the specialties introduced, will provide an entertainment of rare enjoyment and pleasure.

Tickets are now on sale at Miller's drug store, and it is hoped the people of Salisbury and vicinity will give the visitors a crowded house, and at the same time assist Father Brady in procuring additional funds for the prosecution of his good work here. The very best reports of the play and the company have come to us from the George's Creek region, and from the endorsements received, The Star can unreservedly recommend the performance next Tuesday evening.

CHILD'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Mrs. John Englehardt, of Gera, Mich., tells of the anxious moments spent over her little two-year-old daughter who had taken a hard cold resulting in croup. She says: "I am satisfied that if it had not been for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy she would have choked to death. I gave this medicine every ten minutes, and she soon began to throw up the phlegm. I can recommend it in the highest terms, as I have another child that was cured in the same way." Sold at Miller's Drug Store. 3-1

Kind Words for the Editor and Others.

In a letter recently received from Eld. Howard H. Keim, one of the brainiest and best all-around men Salisbury has ever given to the world, that gentleman says:

"I regret to learn of the passing of brother Abraham Thomas. There was an Israelite without guile." Sad, too, about Laura Loebel Winterberg. She was one of my good girls in school—a really lovely girl. It hardly looks fair that she should suffer so.

"I fully endorse what the Connellsville Courier has to say about your candidacy. I am only sorry I am not on the ground, so that I could be of real help to you. But I have faith in your candidacy."

NEIGHBORHOOD FAVORITE.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier, makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alternative tonic is sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. 3-1

He Has the Right Idea.

Mr. D. W. Weller, who is a candidate for Recorder, and whose announcement appears in this issue of the "Tinkler," has the right idea of the best means to reach the voters in this locality. In sending copy for his announcement, he wrote as follows: "I am aware of the fact that your community is a good one, and I know of no better way to make my candidacy known than through your paper. I therefore enclose copy of announcement, which please insert. Also please enter my subscription for one year and send me bill. Will send you more advertising later."

Is Not Non-Committal on Anything.

From the Berlin Gleaner, Nov. 28, 1907. Editor P. L. Livengood, of The Somerset County Star, published at Salisbury, created quite a surprise, last week, by announcing that he would be a candidate for legislative honors at the next primary. "Pete" may be a plain, blunt spokesman, but he insists that he is not a dodger, and will "speak right out in meetin'" between now and the time of the primary, and let the people know where he stands on every question that is likely to come before the Assembly at the next session. Pete is not non-committal on anything, but we venture to say that some of his opponents will be.
