FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs

For Recorder of Deeds, MISSOURI HEARD FROM.

DANIEL W. WELLER.

The subject of this sketch was born and reared in Somerset township, three miles north of Somerset. He is a son of the late William F. Weller. He received his early education in the public schools of this county, and later graduated from the Central State Normal School, at Lock Haven, Pa. Mr. Weller taught a number of terms in the public schools of this county, his last term being taught in Somerset borough.

When the Farmers' National Bank was organized in Somerset, Mr. Weller was employed as clerk in that institution, which position he filled in an able and creditable manner for nearly two years, after which he secured a similar position in the Somerset County National Bank, where he is employed at the present time.

Aside from being a man of good, practical education, Mr. Weller is a man of good natural ability and precision. Whatever he does, he does well, and he is never afraid of doing more than he gets paid for. His habits are most exemplary, and his manner most pleasant and affable.

Mr. Weller makes friends wherever he goes, and his best and truest friends are those who have known him the longest. If elected to the office he seeks, there can be but one result—a creditable official record, creditable alike to himself and to the county. It

THIS IS WORTH REMEMBERING.

Whenever you have a cough or cold, just remember that Foley's Honey and Tar will cure it. Do not risk your health by taking any but the genuine. It is in a yellow package. Sold by all druggists. 4-1

FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

Frank M. Forney, of Somerset.

I am a candidate for the Assembly and will be grateful for the support of Republicans at the Primary Election to be held on Saturday, April 11, 1908. Should I be unable to see all of the Republican voters before the primary election, I assure those whom I may not meet, that I will appreciate their votes. If elected, I shall be guided by conscientious motives, and endeavor to represent the intelligent judgment of the people of the county. It

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IS BOTH AGREEABLE AND EFFECTIVE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 4-1

Several Persons in Jail as Result—Booze Figured, as Usual, in the Ruction.

Last week's issue of the Rockwood Leader gave the following account of a sensational ruction at Casselman: There were five cases on trial last Saturday in which the principals and witnesses all hailed from Casselman. In the first Harry Barnes was defendant and A. M. Johnson, proprietor of Hotel Wabash, was prosecutor, the charge being carrying concealed weapons, and the result was an equal division of the costs of prosecution between plaintiff and defendant.

In the second case Frank Scott and others were defendants, and A. M. Johnson the prosecutor, and the charge was assault and battery with intent to kill. In the third prosecution David Barnes and others were defendants, and Landlord Johnson was again plaintiff, and the charge assault and battery. But in the fourth case Johnson was defendant and Frank Scott was prosecutor, the charge being surety.

In the fifth and last case Johnson was also defendant, and Scott prosecutor, the charge being pointing firearms. The outcome of the last four cases resulted in the acquittal of Johnson in which he was defendant, and conviction of other defendants as follows: Frank Scott, 60 days in jail; David Barnes, 30 days in jail; Charles Barnes, 15 days in jail; each to pay a fine of $50 and one-third of the cost of prosecution.

The facts in the case seem to be that Johnson made some accusations against Harry and David Barnes, two brothers residing at Casselman, and against Frank Scott, a negro, that they had stolen a jug of whisky and $10 from his saloon. The Barnes Brothers met Johnson, and according to the testimony, one of them drew a revolver and covered Johnson with the weapon, inquiring whether Johnson had made any remarks about the Barnes brothers stealing a jug of whisky. Johnson denied that he had accused them. Shortly afterward Frank Scott, the negro, met Johnson and told him in very forcible language that he, Scott, had not taken the whisky. Johnson then got a revolver and walked about with it in his hand, to protect himself. A fight ensued, and Johnson brought his criminal charges against the Barnes brothers and Scott. Counter charges were brought by the Barnes brothers and Scott, and the case came before the court. The case was on trial for two days, and was watched with considerable interest by Casselman citizens.

Moral: Let booze alone, and do not quarrel over it or about it; and on April 11th go to the polls and help to give P. L. Livengood, the outspoken Local Option and Anti-Vaccination candidate for the Assembly, as big a lift for the Republican nomination as you can.

John H. Shaffer for Prothonotary. John H. Shaffer, the genial and popular painter who resides at Listie, is one of the latest candidates to announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Prothonotary. He was a welcome caller at THE STAR office, last Friday, and while here placed his announcement in the "Twinkler."

John's plea for office is that the honest working man should be given recognition at the hands of the voters, and so say thousands more. That John H. Shaffer is an honest man, none can deny. He had been a bankrupt with a number of outlawed accounts, which for a long time he was not able to pay. However, through successful litigation with a man who owed him a snug sum of money, and which recently fell into his possession, Mr. Shaffer at once proceeded to pay all his honest debts. Most men do not pay outlawed accounts, but all honest ones do so when they are able, and "Bully" John Shaffer is one of that kind. Because of his honest course after fortune smiled upon him, he will undoubtedly run a large vote for the office he seeks, and his many friends hope to see him win. It

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED. Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible, which is alone worth many times its cost. B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and 20 years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale at Miller's Drug Store. 4-1

NO CASE ON RECORD. There is no case on record of cough or cold resulting in pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it will stop your cough and break up your cold quickly. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. Sold by all druggists. 4-1

Democrat indulges in Rot and Misrepresentation.

Editor Livengood's repudiation of the agreement with the Local Optionists puts him in the position of a candidate without a party. His broadside in favor of temperance, a few weeks ago, alienated the liquor vote. His break with the committee now will deprive him of local option support. The prohibitionists have already named their own ticket. Such a combination of untoward circumstances would discourage the average man, but Brother Livengood rises above discouragement and cheerfully gives notice that there is yet one platform from which he cannot be dislodged—the platform of anti-vaccination.—Somerset Democrat.

For a sample of genuine rot and wilful misrepresentation, the above is entitled to first premium. This isn't the first time that the Somerset Democrat has tried to place the editor of this paper in a false light before the public, and THE STAR is beginning to get very tired of such disreputable and underhanded tactics.

The editor of this paper has at no time repudiated an agreement with the Local Optionists, and neither has he been dislodged from the Local Option platform. He stands as firmly on the Local Option platform today as he ever did, and if elected to the Legislature he will do all in his power to bring about Local Option Legislation. Neither is the editor of this paper without a party. He is a member of the great and grand old Republican party, and stands as firmly on its principles today as he ever did.

The editor of the Democrat is guilty of wilful misrepresentation, as THE STAR stated plainly in its issue of last week just what agreement we made with the Local Option or Anti-Saloon League committee, and the editor of the Democrat read what we had to say. That being the case, it must be plain to Editor Coffroth that there was neither a repudiation of an agreement nor a dislodgement from the Local Option platform, so far as P. L. Livengood is concerned.

Our agreement to withdraw from the race was only conditional, and if Editor Coffroth will take the matter up with the Anti-Saloon League committee, he will readily be informed by that body that certain conditions prevailed which left us under no pledge or obligation to withdraw from the race.

It is a serious matter to accuse a man of repudiating an agreement when there is no truth in the accusation, and if Editor Coffroth has made his unjust and unkind statement for the purpose of wilful and malicious deception, as appears to be the case, then, in that event, we must brand him as a wilful and malicious liar.

If Editor Coffroth is a gentleman, he will correct the erroneous statement he has given out to the public in regard to our candidacy, for we have not repudiated a single plank in our platform, and neither have we repudiated an agreement with anybody. We are not built that way. However, if it affords the Somerset Democrat any pleasure to lie about and misrepresent people who have never done that journal or its editor a wrong, it is welcome to all the consolation it can get out of such a course, which, perhaps, is necessary in conducting an organ of a degenerate organization like the Democratic party.

EDITOR P. L. LIVENGOOD, of THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR, who is a candidate for the Legislature from Somerset county, Pa., in his last issue publishes a lengthy letter defining his position on all public questions affecting his county. This is honest politics, and the kind that the people should demand of every candidate. We hope our neighbor may win out and have an opportunity to redeem his pledges to the people.—Oakland Journal.

For Free Distribution.

We have at THE STAR office a generous supply of valuable State publications for free distribution among our friends. The documents are from Hon. J. W. Endsley and will be distributed with his and our own complements. They consist of Smull's Legislative Handbooks, Digest of the Game, Fish and Forestry Laws, and many other important works. They are free to all our friends. First come, first served.

BEST HEALER IN THE WORLD.

Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it, too, with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 4-1
