Pays $1,000 a Night to Steep. Like most autocrats, the Sultan of Turkey goes about in hourly fear of assassination, and it is on this ac-count that he will never sleep in the dark. His constant dread of death as made him a prey to insomnia, and he does not often sleep for more than three or four hours at a time. It is said to cost him nearly $1,000 a night to have his bedroom guarded, for the attendants entrusted with this important mission are all tried re-tainers, who receive princely salarles for their work. Many are, the ruses adopted by the sultan to cscape from would-be assassins. About $120,000,000 Given to Various Good Causes. Nearly $120,000,000 was given to charitable, educational, and other caus-es during 1907, in the United States alone, according to figures prepared for the Chicago Record-Herald by Warwick J. Price. Of this huge total, miscellaneous charities received $15, 186,300, while hospitals, homes and asylums were the recipients of further bourty aggregating $7,582,500. About one-fifth of all sums given were contributed by women, Mrs. Russell Sage leading, with $13,530,000 dispensed in distributing some of the vast estate left her by her husband. Miss Anne T. Jeanes of Philadelphia also figures prominently with a be-quest of more than $2,000,000. Bedies four of these women who are in what may be called the "mil-lion clazs," there are eleven men, John D. Rockefeller leads with $10,0205, 000; P. A. B. Widener, a like sum, and Andrew Carnegie with $10,000,000 for general philantropies. Destruction of French Forests. A vigorous campaign is under way to prevent the destruction of the for-ests of France, which are gradually disappearing under the insistent axe of the woodman. Inventor of Envelopes. It is somewhat curious that such a simple contrivance as the envelope should be a comparatively modern in-vention. As a matter of fact it is just 100 years since a paper manu-facturer of Brighton named Brewes invented envelopes for letters in their present form. Even then it was some considerable time before their use became at all general, in fact, un-til this date (as many who are living now will remember) a letter, written only on one side, was folded in two, then in three, sealed with a wafer or sealing wax and addressed on one of the blank sides.—The Gaulois.

The aluminium books for the blind now being printed in Edinburg are of thin sheets embossed in the usual way. They are easier to read than paper books, do not soil and are practically indestructible. Their ex-pensiveness is their drawback. The british Columbia Grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen has seceded from the American Supreme lodge.

Aerial Letter Boxes. Aerial letter boxes have been placed in all large tenement houses and apartment buildings in Buda-pest, Hungary. When the postman enters the hall on the 'first floor of a building he places the letters in the boxes allotted to the different families. A spring is then pressed and electricity does the rest. The boxes are shot up to the floor re-quired, where they remain until emp-tied, or until the postman comes again and brings them down by touching another spring.—Popular Mechanics.

Old Horseshoes in China. The market in China for wornout horseshoes seems to be almost with-out limit. Chinese iron dealers buy the horseshoes and sell them to knife and tool manufacturers all over the province. It is claimed by the Chi-nese that the temper of this class of from makes it the best obtainable for knives and cutlery, and also good for tools. The reason ascribed for this is that the constant beating the shoes have received under the feet of the horses has given them a peculiar temper absolutely unobtainable in any other way, and that tools made from them are superior to all others. John Armstrong, Cloverport, Ky., says: "I was an invalid with kidney complaints for many years and cannot tell what agony I en-dured from backache. My limbs were swol-len twice natural size and my sight was weakening. The kidney secretions were discolored and had a sediment. When I wished to eat my wife had to raise me up in bed. Physicians were mable to help me and I was going down fast when I bogan using Doan's Kidney Pills. After a short time I felt agreat improvement and am now as strong and healthy as a man could be. I give Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit for it." · Population of the World. * Population of the World. Cheerfulness is like sunlight. It dispels the clouds from the mind as sunlight chases away the shadows of inght. The good humored man can pick up and carry off a load that the man with a grouch wouldn't attempt to lift. Anything that interferes with good health is apt to keep cheerfulness and good humor in the background. A Washington lady found that letting coffee alone made things bright for her. She writes: "Four years ago I was practically given up by my doctor and was not expected to live long. My nervous system was in a bad condition. "But I was young and did not want to die, so I began to look about for

But I was young and did not want to die, so I began to look about for the cause of my chronic trouble. I used to have nervous spells which would exhaust me and after each spell it would take me days before I could sit would take me days before I could it would take me days before I could sit up in a chair. "I became convinced my trouble was caused by coffee. I decided to stop it and bought some Postum. "The first cup, which I made ac-cording to directions, had a soothing effect on my nerves and I liked the taste. For a time I nearly lived on Postum and ate little food besides. I am to-day a healthy woman. "My family and relatives wonder if I am the same person I was four years ago, when I could do no work on account of nervousness. Now I am doing my own housework, take care of two bables—one twenty, the other two nonths old. From Malne. Jo Green, of Bowdoln, was a quaint character who is still remembered in Sagadahoo County. One day he went to Litchfield after a pig. "Hadn't more than started back with the pig." said Jo, according to the Lewiston Journal, "when I looked round and saw a big thunder head behind. I was in a beach wagon, and didn't rel-ish the idea of getting wet, so I drove like blazes until I found a big barn. I just made for that with the drove like blazes until I found a big barn. I just made for that with the shower getting nearer and nearer all the time. As I got into the barn, I looked back and there was my pig in the back of the wagon drowned dead. I had kept just ahead of that tarnal shower all the time!"
