Monday morning there was snow about two inches deep all over Somerset county, except on the mountains where it was fully twice that deep. It has since melted, but the weather remains cool and wet. The fruit trees are nearly all in bloom, and, strange to say, the blossoms do not appear to have been injured much by the late freezing weather. 6-1

On Tuesday afternoon the triennial convention of Somerset county school directors was held in Somerset for the purpose of electing a County Superintendent. The only name presented for the office was that of Prof. Daniel W. Seibert, who was re-elected for a third term of three years by a unanimous vote. His salary was fixed at $2,000 per annum, the same as before. Prof. Seibert is the right man in the right place. 6-1

When you think of indigestion think of Kodol, for it is without doubt the only preparation that completely digests all classes of food. And that is what you need when you have indigestion or stomach trouble—something that will act promptly but thoroughly; something that will get right at the trouble and do the very work itself for the stomach by digesting the food that you eat, and that is Kodol. It is pleasant to take. It is sold by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Gen. W. H. Kooz, of Somerset, who is at the Seventh Avenue hotel, is making arrangements to celebrate his 78th birthday in July, and is still in harness. He arrived last night to be present at the Supreme Court sessions, where he has some cases. Although he has been in public life for many years, the most remarkable quality about the aged lawyer is that he is still in active practice and is one of the oldest lawyers in the state who still pleads before the bar.—Pittsburg Gazette Times. 6-1

It is a pity to see a person neglect indications of kidney or bladder trouble that may result in Bright's disease when Foley's Kidney Remedy will correct irregularities and strengthen these organs. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of danger. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 6-1

The commencement exercises of the Salisbury High School, held in Hay's opera house, last Friday evening, were attended by a large audience. The program well rendered, and the affair reflected great credit on the school and the graduates. We have been disappointed in getting a half-tone photo, engraving of the graduating class in time for this issue of THE STAR, and therefore we will not publish a complete write-up of the commencement exercises before next week, by which time we expect to have the desired engraving. 6-1

There is a Pink Pain Tablet made by Dr. Shoop, that will positively stop any pain, anywhere, in 20 minutes. Drug-gists everywhere sell them as Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets, but they stop other pains as easily as headache. Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets simply coax blood pressure away from pain centers—that is all. Pain comes from blood pressure—congestion. Stop that pressure with Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets and pain is instantly gone. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by all dealers. 6-1

A remarkable man is John J. Livengood, the veteran Grant street blacksmith. He is now in his 72nd year, and has been married more than 50 years. He still shoes horses and makes music on the anvil, and in the more than half-century of his married life, he has never missed a meal at the home table on account of sickness. He served three years in the War of the Rebellion as a member of the 54th Pa. Vol. Infantry, and escaped without injury, except a slight wound caused by the explosion of a shell that injured one of his feet. Several years ago uncle John helped to nurse several smallpox patients in his family, and, strange to say, neither vaccination nor the disease it is supposed to fortify one against, took any effect upon him. 6-1

A great many people imagine they have heart trouble when the fact is that the whole trouble lies in the stomach. The pains in the side around the region of the heart are not necessarily heart trouble. We suggest that you start with the stomach, and whenever you feel a depression after eating, or whenever your food seems to nauseate, take Kodol. It will not be very long until all these "heart pains" will disappear. Take Kodol now and until you know you are right again. There isn't any doubt about what it will do, and you will find the truth of this statement verified after you have used Kodol for a few weeks. It is sold here by E. H. Miller. 6-1

At Warsaw, Ind., it is said that a citizen has achieved wonderful success in teaching his dog to talk. He can already pronounce several words of the English language. His phenomenal intelligence is also strikingly manifested in the fact that he feeds the horses. Of course, this may well be true. In time this canine genius should not only speak English, but French and German. He may balk at Sanskrit, Chinese and Choctaw, as, indeed, some human beings do. No doubt, in due season, he will learn to cook breakfast for the family, cut the stove wood and do the weekly washing, besides playing the piano after supper. He ought to be able to render "Old Dog Tray" with great effect. But there is one thing the dog can never learn, and that is to be a first-class, able-bodied Indiana liar. 6-1

Tired nerves, with that "no ambition" feeling that is commonly felt in spring or early summer, can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. One will absolutely note a changed feeling within 48 hours after beginning to take the Restorative. The bowels get sluggish in the winter time, the circulation often slows up, the Kidneys are inactive, and even the Heart in many cases grows weaker. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is recognized everywhere as a genuine tonic to these vital organs. It builds up and strengthens the worn-out, weakened nerves; it sharpens the failing appetite, and universally aids digestion. It always quickly brings renewed strength, life, vigor, and ambition. Try it and be convinced. Sold by all dealers. 6-1

We know of one editor who is to be envied, and that is the editor of the Oakland Journal. He tells in his paper of last week how he and his family were treated to a fine mess of brook trout by Henry Leatham, the merchant and postmaster at Keyser, Md. That brings to mind a supper we once enjoyed in Carleton, Neb., when we conducted a newspaper there about 20 years ago. One evening we got around to our boarding house considerably late for supper, and had with us an appetite like a sawmill. When we were comfortably seated at the table, in came the waiter girl with a large platter filled with brook trout fried to the queen's taste, and we were informed that they were a present from a friend who conducted a bank in that town, and who had received a nice consignment of fresh brook trout packed in ice and shipped to him by his brother in Idaho. "Did we enjoy—that meal?" Well, say, that was just about the greatest treat that could be shoved up to an old trout fisher who had wandered far away from his native haunts and located on the plains, where trout are unknown. We shall always remember that mess of trout as the most delicious feast we ever partook of in the state of Nebraska, and we sent quite a number of good things down the "red lane" in that state, as well as here and wherever we have roamed. But of all good things to eat, nothing else can quite match a good mess of brook trout. 6-1

County Commissioner Josiah Specht & Son, of Kantner, Howard M. Horner, of Shade township, E. S. Clark, of Boswell, and C. T. Hay and P. L. Livengood, of Salisbury, all spent a couple of days in New York City, this week, taking in the many things of interest to be seen there, and examining a real estate proposition on Long Island, where some of them, at least, will likely make an investment. turn trip, Commissioner Specht went to Pittsburg, on business, while C. T. Hay made a stop in Baltimore, and the editor spent a night and a portion of a day visiting at the hospitable and picturesque home of Drs. Theodore F. and Horace Livengood, who reside in one of the most historic mansions in Elizabeth, N. J. No better entertainers can be found anywhere than the Drs. Livengood and their estimable wives, and it goes without saying that the editor enjoyed his visit immensely at the old General Scott mansion in which they reside. The editor also had a very pleasant visit with Mrs. Evora Carr Smith and daughters, a few hours on Tuesday evening, at their cozy little home in Philadelphia. They, too, are excellent entertainers, and always make it pleasant for their friends. In New York the prospective real estate investors were in charge of Mr. R. C. Correll, of Altoona, who is interested in Queens Estates, on Long Island, and who knows every nook and corner of New York. He is one of the best fellows we ever came across to show strangers the places of particular interest in that great city, and his real estate proposition must be seen to be appreciated. We think it is all right, and expect to invest.

HUMAN FILTERS.

Foley's Kidney Remedy makes the kidneys healthy, so they will strain out all waste matter from the blood. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once, and it will make you well. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 6-1

Probably Serious Result of an Assault.

Joseph Story, night engineer at the electric road power-house, Clarysville, was stabbed in the neck, Sunday night, last, by a man who turned out to be Moses Robinette. The latter wanted to sleep on the premises, to which Story objected. Story is in a serious condition at his home in Eckhart, says the Frostburg Journal. 6-1

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store. 6-1

PRESCRIPTION WISDOM

Alexander Pope Tells Us:

"A man should never be ashamed to own that he has been in the wrong, which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser today than he was yesterday."

Many a man is "wiser today than he was yesterday" when it comes to having a doctor's prescription filled. Many a man is patronizing our prescription department who did not some time ago. He has properly paid for his wisdom in cold cash.

Our Prescription Department is the department to which we give our most careful attention. It is equipped with all the modern conveniences for compounding prescriptions.

It is stocked with the best and always fresh drugs.
