Si Husker—"Nobody shall say I'm cruel to my live stock. Spotty can carry Whitey until he gets tired—"

"And then Whitey can take his turn, giving Spotty a chance—"

"To rest awhile. So each of 'em will walk only half the distance to town and ride the other half."

Irish Wit.

O'Rourke's employer became talkative about his ancestry one day, telling the jolly Irishman that his forefathers came over on the Mayflower.

"Whin was that, please, soir?" asked O'Rourke, much interested.

The Mayflower descendant gave the date, to which O'Rourke replied with a poor disguise of contempt:

"Why, sor, beggin' ov yer parden, yer family was a mere mushroom of yeste'day. I lately seen inside of a family pedigree that filled hundreds of pages, and near the middle of it it says: 'About here the Lord created Adam.'"

Love an Appetite.

"But, Gladys, we should not let your mother's prejudice stand in the way of our marriage. What is money to true love?"
 "I know, Alfred, that money is not all, but hunger is something. Last night you walked past three restaurants on the way from the theatre, and never said supper once. But mother had something for me to eat when I got home."—Ally Sloper's Half-Holiday. 7-1
