The C. C. Livengood stable, one of the old landmarks of our town, is being removed this week. The stable was the property of Levi Lichter, who gave it to Charles Wagner for removing it. That was a good piece of luck for "Charley," as the value of the good, heavy framing timbers in the old building will foot up to a real snug sum.

We heard one of our citizens say a good word for insurance companies, the other day, and we hasten to give the companies the benefit of it. He said with all their faults they always gave away good blotters and calendars. This reminds us that if our business men are going to need any blotters or calendars they would do well to see us before ordering.

 Captain M. V. Sorber, one of the leading citizens of Stoyestown, died early yesterday morning, of paralysis, at the age of nearly 71 years. During the War of the Rebellion, Mr. Sorber was captain of Company I, 55th Pa. Vols. He had announced himself as a Republican candidate for Legislative nomination, last spring, but subsequently withdrew.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Lowry, the aged wife of the late George Lowry, is in very feeble health. Mrs. Lowry is a sister of the late John W. and Abraham P. Beachy, and is the last surviving member of that generation of the Beachys. She is 78 years old, and her many friends all hope she will recover her former good health and live to reach a much riper age.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It is different from the others as it does not constipate, but on the other hand it acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by E. H. Miller.

Our friend Walter DeLozier, who is holding a good position in the store of Woolworth Bros., in Johnstown, Pa., arrived in town yesterday evening, returning today. We never saw Walter looking better, and he informed us that he expects soon to be promoted to the position of assistant manager of the store he is employed in. We trust that his fondest hopes may be realized, for Walter is an all right fellow.

 William and James McClure have returned home from Gettysburg, Pa., where they recently graduated from Pennsylvania College. They are two young men our community is proud of. We understand that William will enter the medical profession, and James the legal profession. We think they will make good at whatever they undertake, as they are young men of ability, good principle and correct habits.

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses.  Mrs. E. J. Egan arrived here on Tuesday, and she and her husband will go to house-keeping in the Wm. Petry house, on Gay street. Mr. Egan is building up a nice grocery and confectionery business here, and with ordinary good luck, we feel sure that he will do all right in Salisbury. He deserves all the patronage that can be given to him, for he is a man who is upright and honorable in all things.

William and Ross Enos, of Black township, were business visitors in Salisbury, Tuesday. William will be remembered by some of our readers as one of the men who worked for A. P. Beachy between 25 and 30 years ago. Ross is his nephew, a son of Samuel Enos, who is also well known to some of our readers in this vicinity. The Enoses are cousins of the editor's, and cousins that we have a high regard for, too.

 Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Remedy works where others are a total failure. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 7-1

Lieutenant Samuel Lowry, of Salisbury, is spending a few days at the home of his son, Attorney J. C. Lowry, and incidentally giving the latter the benefit of his experience in building. Attorney Lowry is practically rebuilding the old Metzler home, a stone mansion a mile south of town, and persons who have inspected the improvement say that he will have one of the handsomest places in the county when the work is completed, says the Somerset Herald.

The editor is having his residence on Grant street completely overhauled and remodeled. When completed it will not look like the same house, and, in fact, it won't quite be the same house, as it will be much larger, and will contain a steam heating plant, sanitary plumbing, etc. We have not lost confidence in Salisbury, and whenever this town doesn't suit us, we will shake it dust from our feet and move elsewhere, as this old world is very large, and the millionaires do not yet own it quite all.

W. R. Ward, of Dyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Foley's Orino Laxative for chronic constipation, and it has proven without a doubt to be a thorough practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor.

 Mr. Harry Anderson and Miss Ethel Easton, both of this place, were married in Cumberland, Md., last Thursday. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Anderson, and the bride the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Easton. Both bride and groom have a host of friends in the community, who extend to them their best wishes and congratulations. They are excellent young people, and THE STAR wishes them a large measure of the joys that go with married life, and may their sorrows be few.

 Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen, painful, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all dealers.

 A barn owned by Uriah Stanton, near Grantsville, Md., was burned to the ground, Tuesday night. The building stood near the Grantsville railroad station and Eli Stanton's mill, and in it was a hay-baling machine owned by Jacob Folk, and worth about $400, which also went up in smoke, together with other contents owned by Mr. Stanton. The total loss will probably foot up to $2,500. There was some insurance on the barn, but none on Mr. Folk's hay-baler. The cause of the fire is believed to be due to fishermen sleeping in the barn at times, or to an incendiary.

 Mrs. S. Joyce, Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor.

 An editor approached St. Peter at the Golden Gate, and handing him a long list of delinquent subscribers, said: "Look this list over carefully and see if any of these fellows have sneaked through the pearly gates." "No," said St. Peter, "there are none of them inside, but a fellow slipped through here, the other day, who took the paper a year without paying for it, and had the postmaster mark it 'refused,' but we are after him, and when caught he will be consigned to the place where he properly belongs. He is meaner even than the delinquent subscriber, and Heaven is not his home."

 Hundreds of people who suffer from backache, rheumatism, lame back, lumbago and similar ailments are not aware that these are merely symptoms of kidney trouble. Pineules for the Kidneys, act directly on the kidneys, bringing quick relief to backache and other symptoms of kidney and bladder derangements. 30 days' trial $1.00 and guaranteed, or money back. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy.

 Some time ago a couple of boys entered John W. Ringler's residence while all members of the family were out, and spying Mr. Ringler's coat hanging on the wall, proceeded to rifle the pockets. They found a pocketbook therein containing $40.00, and they extracted a ten-dollar bill therefrom, then threw the pocketbook, with the balance of the money in it, on the floor, where it was found by a member of the family. Two boys confessed to some of their companions that they took the money, but to Mr. Ringler they denied it, and as there is no proof in the case, Mr. Ringler is out of pocket to the extent of $10.00, and that's about all there is to it, except that such stealing usually leads to greater crimes, and to the penitentiary for the guilty ones.

 Stomach troubles are very common in the summer time and you should not only be very careful about what you eat just now, but more than this, you should be careful not to allow your stomach to become disordered, and when the stomach goes wrong take Kodol. Judge Kooser recently handed down his decision in the celebrated coal assessment case, making liberal reductions in the coal lands held in several townships in this county by the coal companies. The County Commissioners are directed to note these reductions in the assessment records, and certify the amendments of the tax duplicates to the collectors of taxes of the said townships; that where paid, all excess taxes be returned to the companies, and that the county pay the costs of the proceeding. The decision is generally regarded as a righteous one, and the coal companies are happy.
