Salisbury as a Picnic Resort.
 Since the completion of the P. & M. Street railway Salisbury is becoming famous as a picnic resort. Yesterday a party consisting of about 25 people from Rockwood, had a delightful basket picnic in Beachy Park, while the Christian church people, of Meyersdale, to the number of about 75, had a picnic in Wagner's Park. Today the Methodist people of Meyersdale are having a picnic in Wagner's Park. About 400 people are in attendance.
 Some very handsome groves adjoin Salisbury, and the P. & M. company ought to purchase them, put the necessary attractions therein, and go into the picnicking, summer outing and Chautauqua business on a large scale. It would pay the company and be a great help to our town.

Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at E. H. Miller's drug store, 50c. 8-1

Reformed Church Reunion.
 The annual reunion of the Reformed church in Somerset county will be held at Rockwood, on the 20th of August. The addresses will be made by Rev. Dr. E. S. Bromer, of Greensburg, and Rev. C. William T. Doney, of Boynton, Somerset county, father of Landlord John Doney, of Portage, was in the city a few hours, Monday, on his way home after a visit to his son and family. Mr. Doney, who is in his 74th year, is as active as many men half his age, and although not obliged to do manual labor, cannot content himself with retiring from active life. He is an interesting character whom it is a pleasure to meet.—Johnstown Democrat.

MET DEATH AT BOYNTON.
Struck by Trolley Car, but Death Likely Due to Unknown Cause.

A Mystery that Should be Investigated—Was Andrew Gregg Foully Murdered?

Last Saturday evening Andrew Gregg, a Meyersdale young man aged nearly 22 years, was a passenger on the trolley car leaving Meyersdale at 9:45 o'clock. It is said by reliable persons that he was sober, and that he stepped from the car when it stopped at Boynton. It is further stated that he went to the home of a lady friend, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melchoir Hochman, whose residence is but a short distance from where the unfortunate young man alighted from the car. Failing to find the young lady at home, he left the house and was not again seen until Motorman Wm. H. Bowman saw his prostrate body lying across the P. & M. track. This was when the car was making the return trip from Salisbury, and when the car was nearing the bend close to the E. & O. crossing.

Motorman Bowman applied the reverse as soon as he saw the man on the track, but was too close to stop the car before it struck him. However, the wheels did not pass over the body, but merely slid it along for a short distance. As soon as the car came to a stop, the body was rescued and examined, and all who examined it at the time were convinced that the man was dead before the car struck him. When the motorman first discovered the body, the head was resting on one rail and the feet on the other, while the face was turned upward.

The surrounding circumstances strongly point to foul play, and if certain rumors have any truth in them, the mystery may in due time be unraveled. It is almost a certainty that he was not killed by the car, and it is not at all likely that he had purposely lain down or accidentally fallen and landed in the position in which he was discovered. An inquest should have been held, and everything possible should yet be done to unravel the mystery.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gregg, Sr., who reside in Meyersdale. The question arises, Was murder committed in this case? It looks a good deal that way.

Another Windber Murder.
 A friendly game of cards at Windber, Wednesday night, led to the death of Antonio Potento, 38 years old, at the hands of Mike Battista, at Potento's home, between 8 and 9 o'clock. An altercation arose, and Potento was cut on the lip. After the wound was dressed, the men seemed to be still good friends, and resumed their card playing. Suddenly Battista drew a knife and slashed at Potento, cutting his neck from the windpipe to the ear, and severing the jugular vein. Battista made good his escape before the enormity of the deed could be realized by the neighbors. Potento died at midnight. He is survived by a widow and six children.—Somerset Herald.

If the Herald calls a card game over which murder is committed, a friendly affair, we would like to know what manner of or what amount of crime over a card game would be required to make it an unfriendly affair. We would also like to know how many murders have been committed in Windber and vicinity since that place is on the Somerset county map. The total must foot up to 25 or 50, and five of the Windber murders were committed in one day. Boozes figured in most of the Windber murders, and the other day we heard a man remark that Windber should be named either Boozeville or Murder City.

Timely Advice.
 Stop grumbling. Get up two hours earlier in the morning, and begin to do something out of your regular profession. Mind your own business, and with all your might let other people's alone. Live within your means. Sell or give away your dog. Smoke your cigar through an air stove. Eat with moderation, and go to bed early. Talk less of your own peculiar gifts and virtues, and more of those of your friends and neighbors. Be cheerful. Fulfill your promises. Pay your debts. Be yourself all you would see in others. Be good, do good and stop grumbling.

Confirmation Administered by Bishop Garvey.
 A committee composed of Michael Riley, Edward Laradige, Michael Kneet, Robert Brandler, William Derry and Julius Henry, of St. Michael's parish, left on a special car to accompany the Bishop from Meyersdale. The car returned at 3:30 p. m., and the Bishop was met by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Brady. They proceeded to the church, which was packed to the doors. The Bishop greeted them and began the ceremony. His sermon was based on the words of Christ to His Apostles, "All power is given to me in heaven and on earth, whose sins ye shall forgive, they are forgiven them," and the other command to St. Peter, "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church."

The text was clearly and strongly explained, and the Sacraments administered to the children.
 The Bishop was assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Brady, Fathers Dunlee of Pittsburg, J. P. Nolan, of Frostburg, F. J. McGraw and R. A. O'Hanley, of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.
Methodist Reunion.
 For several years the Methodist folk of Somerset county have met in annual reunion at Rockwood. The date set this year seems to be one that suits all churches that are in the movement—Tuesday, August 18th. A cordial invitation is given to all Methodists everywhere to get on the train and get off at Rockwood on that date. All bodies that sprung directly or indirectly from the teachings of John Wesley are invited to participate. A speaker of great reputation, in the person of Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon, of Emory church Pittsburg, has been secured, and one of the greatest addresses ever given in the county is confidently predicted by those who have the arrangements in charge. Dr. Wedderspoon has lectured at the Temple in Philadelphia, at Ocean Grove and many of the Chautauques of the country. While not a professional lecturer, his addresses always hit the mark and leave a delighted audience.
 Files are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen, painful, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all dealers. 8-1
