THE ORCHARD BLOOM.

BY SOLON L. GOODE.

The orchard bloom upon the trees, O,
whither has it gone,
As out into immensity it scents the breath of dawn?
Do spirits in yon azure sea distill its odors sweet,
And gather iridescent hues to store in love's retreat?
Do jasper walls reflect its glow in kaleidoscopic rays
To gladden the seraphic hosts when chanting hymns of praise?
Are rainbow arches builded high with bloom of softest hues—
Have setting suns in evening skies drunk up the orchard dews?
O, where is now the orchard bloom and whither has it fled?
Behold, it is not lost to men—'tis not among the dead.
'Tis stored within the luscious fruit—a nectar fit for kings;
'Tis sweeter than a maiden's lips of
whom the lover sings.
All hail, then, glorious orchard trees;
no eden can display
More brilliant hues with which to clothe God's glad eternal day.
—The American Farmer.

WAR AGAINST CONSUMPTION.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly, and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 8-1

How to Kill Your Town.

Kick.
Keep kicking.
And don't quit kicking.
One pull one way and one t'other.
Go to other towns and buy your goods.
Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.
Knife every man that disagrees with you on the method of increasing business.
Make your own town out a very bad place, and stab it every chance you get.
Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of the material interests of the people.
Tell your merchant that you can buy your goods a great deal cheaper in another town, and charge him with extortion.
Keep every cent you get, and don't do anything of a public nature unless you can make something out of it directly.
When you say anything of your town, say it in such a way that it will leave the impression that you have no faith in it.
Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own, and then denounce them for not being as large as the city papers.

THE REMEDY THAT DOES.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise, but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Rierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at E. H. Miller's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. 8-1

BUSH & GERTS PIANOS

The prestige of age and the high-born honor of a good name are precious things in the esteem of the people; but the credit for keeping the name good, "making good" with a high art product, is quite as potential and essential in this pre-eminently practical age. The Bush and Gerts Piano has been before the public twenty-one years, has consequently attained its majority, and has never been found wanting in possessing all the essentials of a high-grade instrument. The fact that over forty thousand Bush and Gerts Pianos have been placed in American homes, and in a large number of educational institutions East and West, indicates its admirable appreciation and its vast sphere of influence. Send for a list of 2000 patrons; also Catalogue and the name of nearest dealer handling our Piano. Always insist upon the Manufacturer's name being cast in the plate and placed on the fall-board of any Piano you buy. A postal will bring you a beautiful souvenir free. Live agents wanted in unoccupied territory. BUSH & GERTS PIANO CO., Chicago, Ill.
