REPUBLICAN COLORS ARE UP

Andrews Opens Headquarters For Presidential Campaign.

PARTY IN FIGHTING TRIM

Pennsylvania Will Try to Exceed Her Glorious Majority of Half a Million For Theodore Roosevelt at Next November Election, With Taft and Sherman as the Standard Bearer. The Party Organization Was Never in a More Harmonious Condition.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Sept. 1.

With the opening of the state headquarters in this city yesterday the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania is now fairly under way.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, was busily engaged all summer in arranging the preliminaries for the state canvass, so that everything was in good shape to begin the aggressive work which will be carried on until the polls close on election day, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

While even the Democrats concede Pennsylvania to Judge Taft and the entire Republican ticket, it will be the aim of the Republicans of the Keystone state to maintain the prestige which they have long enjoyed of being the banner Republican state of the Union.

It may be difficult to surpass the glorious record of half a million plurality given by Pennsylvania to President Roosevelt, but it is the purpose of the sturdy Republicans of this splendid commonwealth to endeavor to excel even that accomplishment at the coming election.

Organization in Splendid Shape.

During the last two months Chairman Andrews has been working untiringly to perfect the various county organizations, and he has succeeded in whipping matters into excellent trim for the starting of the more serious business of the canvass committee already upon the firing line, and they are alert and active in promoting the cause of the party nominees. The county chairman are now engaged in compiling their list of vigilantes who will comprise an army of 80,000 wide-awake and patriotic Pennsylvanians enlisted under the banner of Republicanism, and determined to rout the enemy at every point.

Every school district will be thoroughly canvassed, and early reports regarding popular sentiment in various parts of the state are most gratifying.

The Republican organization of Pennsylvania was never more harmonious, nor was there ever evinced a more pronounced spirit of loyalty to the party standard bearers.

Walton Heads Speakers' Bureau.

The announcement by Chairman Andrews of his appointment of former Speaker Henry F. Walton to be chief of the bureau of speakers was everywhere accepted as an assurance that this feature of the campaign will receive competent and careful attention. Mr. Walton is familiar with the interests of the several counties, and he has a wide acquaintance among public men of the different localities. He is in a position to enroll a formidable corps of spellbinders, and it is predicted that in arranging for meetings and providing them with speakers he will make an exceptional record.

Mr. Walton has already been in touch with Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican national committee, and he has been promised some of the most forceful and eloquent men who will be on the stump this fall for assignment to meetings to be held in the debatable congressional districts.

National Committee Support.

The fact that Senator Penrose has been appointed on the executive committee of the Republican national committee, and that private offices have been assigned to him in the national committee headquarters in New York, where he will spend much of the time during the campaign, will be of material assistance to Chairman Andrews and Mr. Walton in their efforts to have the committee send to Pennsylvania a strong assignment of speakers, and to otherwise assist the state organization in its ambition to surpass the Roosevelt plurality of four years ago.

Andrews is Sanguine.

"Republicans is Sanguine," said Colonel Andrews today, "will be true to their party at the coming election. There is no good reason why any Republican should desert his colors in this campaign, and we can fairly look for many gains from among the ranks of the first voters and the thousands of citizens who were formerly allied with the Democratic party, but who are not in sympathy with its present candidate or its policies, and who intend to vote the full Republican ticket in November.

"By its broad and wise policies the Republican party has developed the industries of this state until it is far more important in its interests than any other state in the Union, and it has more at stake in this campaign than any of them. A change in these policies would inflict more damage to Pennsylvania than to any other commonwealth, and, therefore, it stands to reason that Pennsylvania should support that party. What is true of Pennsylvania is in a degree applicable to many other states.

"Every man in Pennsylvania is directly concerned in the outcome of this contest. Every farmer, all of whom are prosperous, must recognize the fact that the perpetuation of Pennsylvania's manufacturing industries means continued prosperity for the tiller of the soil.

Farmers Directly Concerned.

"Farmers in Pennsylvania are prosperous to a greater degree than ever before, and they do not have to send their products to New York or other states, but they have a home market made up of the hundreds of thousands of citizens engaged in industrial enterprises in their very midst. They have a vital interest in the continuance of Republican administration of affairs in the state and nation which has developed these industries and brought about this condition. There is a healthier tone manifested in all business interests throughout the United States and the temporary stagnation is about over. Mills are starting up, and thousands who were idle are going to work. The country is settling down to normal conditions. After a period of unexampled prosperity, which was followed by a temporary cessation of business, there is now a resumption of trade, a revival of industrial activities and an assurance that with the continuance of Republican rule the country will expand in wealth and power in every direction.

"Pennsylvania will blaze the way in November in a national movement that will mean greater happiness for all of the American people during the next four years."

CLUB MEN WILL RALLY FOR TAFT

Great Gathering Anticipated at State League Convention.

[Special Correspondence.] Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 1.

A mighty host of stalwart young Republicans will assemble here on Wednesday, Sept. 16, to ratify the action of the convention which placed the Taft-Sherman ticket in the field, and to formally inaugurate the campaign in Pennsylvania to be waged by the State League of Republican Clubs.

This will be the twenty-second annual convention of the league, and all indications point to it being the most successful in the history of the organization.

Vice Presidential Candidate Sherman, Senator Boies Penrose, Congressman Nicholas Longworth and John Hays Hammond will be among the principal orators at the mass meeting to be held on the opening night of the convention.

This will be the first convention to be addressed by Senator Penrose for some years, and by reason of the prominent part he is to take in the management of the national campaign his remarks will have special significance.

Prizes For Clubmen.

Robert B. Habgood, president of the State League, has been here and has cordially approved of all of the arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors. Prizes are to be awarded to the clubs sending the largest delegations and for those coming the longest distance.

The league clubs are to take a conspicuous part in the campaign and will co-operate with State Chairman Andrews and the various county committees in arranging for mass meetings and providing the speakers and distributing literature.

Pennsylvania clubmen have a warm feeling in their hearts for Judge Taft, whose strong character and sturdy patriotism appeal especially to the young men.

First Voters' Club.

Plans are under way for the organization of First Voters' clubs in every school district in Pennsylvania to enlist those who will cast a presidential vote for the first time in the ranks of the militant Republicans in the great national contest.

Reports from every part of the country show that the trend of sentiment among the young men is toward the Republican party and its standard-bearers and that hundreds of thousands of first voters throughout the Union are being enrolled under the Republican banners.

Particular attention is to be given by the State League to the several congressional districts in Pennsylvania which have been classed as doubtful, and in this connection the officers of the league will work in harmony with the national and state committees and the Republican congressional committee in their efforts to get out every Republican vote.

The Democrats are making bold claims in the matter of congressional seats in this state. They now have seven representatives in the house and they are claiming ten.

If the Republican clubmen accomplish half of what they expect in the way of educating the voters and rousing enthusiasm for the Republican nominees, the Democrats will be lucky if they carry three districts in this state in November.

A POLITICAL SNAP.

"I see old Regulator has gone into politics."
"What's he after?"
"He's going to run for timekeeper at police headquarters."

OF TWO EVILS.

Prue—I don't think it was very becoming for that young widow to marry again so soon.
Dolly—What else could she do? She found that black wasn't very becoming, either.

AN EXCEPTION.

"To the pure all things are pure."
"Yes, but not to the pure food commissioners."

CUT OUT.

"Does Jawley still bore every one with his description of his operations for appendicitis?"
"Oh, no, he cut it out at last."

A SAD CHANGE.

"He used to be the glass of fashion."
"So I've heard; but now he's broke."

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Restorative—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend
