MARCHERS AND GLEES FIGURE

Recruits Called For From the Rank and File of the Great Army of Pennsylvania Republicans, and a Prompt Response is Anticipated All Along the Line, With Victory in November Assured.

[Special Correspondence.]
 Philadelphia, Sept. 23.
 Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, as chairman of the Republican state committee, has sounded the slogan to the Republicans of Pennsylvania for the inauguration of a campaign for the closing days of the state canvass which must appeal to every stalwart Republican in the land.

The colonel, himself a veteran of the Fremont campaigners in the cause of true Republicanism, has called for a revival of the spirit of the olden days, of a recruiting of the Republican hosts as in the memorable struggles in which the "Wide Awake" clubs, by their patriotism and party fervor, stirred the nation from end to end, and for an expression of sentiment which shall be emphasized by bringing "Old Glory" to the front as the Republican forces march on to victory.

Colonel Andrews has just addressed the following letter to each of the chairmen of the Republican county committees throughout Pennsylvania:

A Call to Action.
 "Dear Sir—We have reached a period in the national campaign when party lines are tightly drawn, the issues well defined, and the voters are rallying around the banners of their respective parties.
 "Republicans of Pennsylvania have reason to be proud of their candidates and all can consistently and cordially endorse the platform upon which they have been nominated.
 "It devolves upon the county chairmen, in the closing days of the canvass, to marshal the Republican hosts in their respective bailiwicks, and I suggest that we have an old-fashioned canvass, along the lines of the campaign of 1860, when the young men of the country gathered in "Wide Awake clubs," supplying at their own expense their uniforms and making demonstrations at all political meetings in their neighborhood.
 "What was done in 1860 can be done now.
 "The country is fully as patriotic today.
 "In later years contributions have been depended upon to meet expenses, but in the old times each man not only contributed his time, but also his share of the expenses of the meetings which were held.
 "These thoughts are suggested by the calls upon the Republican state committee for financial assistance to provide for meetings, with which it is not possible to comply. This prompts the inspiration to recall the faith of the fathers of the Republican party, who, without outside aid of any kind, rallied everywhere and overthrew the Democratic party, then strongly entrenched in power, and elected the immortal Lincoln, through whom the Union was saved.
 "What was done in 1860, I repeat, can be done now.
 "In this day, when in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and elsewhere the past is being recalled in Founders' Week and like celebrations, it is fitting that an old-fashioned marching and singing campaign be inaugurated to rouse the voters throughout the length and breadth of the state.
 "To Have Campaign Glee Clubs.
 "Additional interest will be given to the meetings in many localities if a musical program shall be arranged in connection with the practical work of expounding the principles of the party and discussing the live issues of the campaign.
 "In such cases, you are advised to enlist the services of one or more soloists, and, where possible, a quartet or glee, to intersperse the proceedings with musical selections.
 "For this purpose there will be forwarded to you a compilation of campaign songs, written to popular tunes, which can be distributed among the audiences that all may join in the singing.
 "Anthem For Pennsylvania.
 "In connection with this collection of songs is presented the new state anthem, 'Pennsylvania,' in the chorus of which all loyal Pennsylvanians can readily unite.
 "It was given with great success at the recent gathering of the State League of Republican clubs at Wilkes-Barre, and the convention adopted a resolution endorsing a proposition to make it the 'Official Song of the Keystone state.' The aim of the composer is to give what has long been lacking, a song that shall be typical of the commonwealth, and which shall become as affectionately associated with Pennsylvania and Pennsylvanians, wherever they may be, as have 'Maryland, My Maryland,' 'My Old Kentucky Home' and like state songs to the citizens of the states with which they are respectively identified.
 "Let this and the songs lauding the party and its candidates be sung upon all appropriate occasions.

 "Get the 'First Voters,' those who will, in November next, cast their first presidential vote, to form in line and march to the meetings, if only with a file and drum at their head, and with 'Old Glory' always carried proudly in the van.
 "Let us have enthusiastic, patriotic Republican rallies everywhere and roll up an unprecedented majority for our gallant standard-bearers, Taft and Sherman, and the full Republican ticket.
 "Let the spirit of the days of Lincoln pervade the entire party, and a record-breaking victory will be the result. Respectfully,
 "WESLEY R. ANDREWS,
 "Chairman."

There was a very successful gathering of active Republicans from all parts of the state here yesterday, in attendance upon the meeting of the Republican state committee, which was called primarily to fill a vacancy upon the electoral ticket, but which was principally valuable for the opportunity it afforded men of the several congressional and senatorial districts to get together to confer upon plans for the closing days of the canvass.

Senator Penrose met the committeemen and gave them very encouraging reports, as a member of the national committee, about the outlook throughout the country for Republican victory in November.
Dangers of Bryanism.
 Will Mr. Bryan please inform all the people to what particular class of people he refers when he assumes the people do not rule? Is it the poorer classes and those largely infected with socialist and anarchistic ideas and theories with whom Bryanism greatly sympathizes, professionally at least, or is it the farmers, merchants, manufacturers and the great national railroads and their employes? Were Bryanism (with his superficial and wildcat ideas of banks, currency and finance; his hostility to all corporations; and his determination to destroy all manufacturing industries, which he denominates as trusts, by inaugurating another Gorman and Wilson tariff bill for revenue only, and strike down the protective principle) to dominate the country, surely the majority of the people would not rule. The administration, with his extraordinary views of his powers as president, and with his vagaries and chimerical theories of government, would be in a state of chaos; and the collapse of all industries, of the farmer and the wage earner, would be such as to cause a further trend toward socialism and anarchism.—Keystone Gazette.

Penrose as Aid to Hitchcock Keeps Tariff to Front.
IN INTEREST OF THIS STATE
 Manufacturers and Artisans, and All Engaged in Industrial Enterprises, and Grangers and Business Men of the Keystone Commonwealth Exhibiting a Natural Loyalty to the Cause of Republicanism.
 [Special Correspondence.]
 New York, Sept. 23.
 Pennsylvania is becoming daily more prominent in the national Republican campaign. If one is to judge from the activity of Pennsylvanians about the national committee headquarters, and the consideration that is being paid to the claims of the state and her party leaders.
 Since Senator Penrose was called to the assistance of Chairman Hitchcock as a member of the executive committee of the national committee, and was urged to make his headquarters in the offices fitted up for him in the national committee's building, he has had to make many appointments with Pennsylvanians about both state and national campaign matters to meet him here. He will have little time to give to personal or local matters until after the national election shall be over. The direction of the campaigns in a number of doubtful states has been left to Senator Penrose, and he is called into consultations daily upon questions affecting the management of the general canvass.
Tariff Issue Made Prominent.
 Bryan's attitude, particularly upon the tariff issue, has been of special concern to Pennsylvanians, who are so vitally interested in the maintenance of a tariff which shall protect the workmen and the farmers of the Keystone state from foreign competition.
 Senator Penrose, in all of his speeches this year, and in exerting whatever influence he may have in shaping the policy of the other campaign managers, has made the tariff an issue of special prominence, and he does this as a particular champion of the industries and the other interests of his native state which he believes would be jeopardized by the election of Bryan and an inauguration of the free trade doctrines of the Democracy.
Pennsylvania Interests Concerned.
 Many of the great Pennsylvania concerns, the carpet manufacturers of Philadelphia, the steel mills in western and northeastern Pennsylvania, the coal companies of the bituminous and anthracite regions, the great coke and cement interests, and the many other industrial enterprises which have millions of Pennsylvania capital invested, and which employ hundreds of thousands of men and women, have offices in this city.

 The officials of these companies are pleased to see the interest taken in the national campaign by Senator Penrose, as they recognize the importance of the outcome of the election not only to those who have money invested in their plants, but to those who look to the successful operation of those firms and companies for employment.
 The great granger and dairy interests of Pennsylvania, which find ready markets for their products right at home when these industrial plants are running and their employes are getting remunerative wages, are just as much concerned and are evincing just as much interest in the efforts to elect the Republican national ticket.
Farmers Are For Taft.
 Reports from the farming districts of not only Pennsylvania, but New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana and like states, which have large manufacturing interests, show that the trend of sentiment is very strongly toward the Republican party this year.
 Taft and Sherman are as popular with the farmers as they are with the wage earners, who realize the importance of a continuance of the policy of a protective tariff under which American industries have been built up and developed.
 There are marshalling in the various industrial centers great armies of American workmen, who will march to the polls in November and vote the full Republican ticket.
A Great Army Lining Up.
 Reports received at the national committee headquarters show that in Pennsylvania the steel workers, the miners, the cokers, the furnace men, the weavers, the cement workers, the mill men, the railway employes and other workmen employed by tributary interests, are going to vote with the Republican party.
 Business men realize the disaster that would come to them with Bryan in the White House and Democrats in control of the lower house of congress, and with some of the so-called Republican senators not to be depended upon in tariff legislation. They are also lined up for Taft.

All reports to the contrary, there is absolute harmony among the managers of the Republican national committee, and all information points to the election of Taft and Sherman by a good majority in the electoral college.
Bryan's Mistakes.
 If the Bryan monetary scheme had been accepted, the country's industries, agricultural and manufacturing, would have been demoralized. We should, as Governor Hughes puts it, "have been overwhelmed with disaster," for both theories could not be right, and if the gold standard theory was right, as it has been proven to be, Mr. Bryan's free-coinage-of-silver theory was wrong. As to the government ownership of railroads, even Mr. Bryan seems quickly to have recognized the revolutionary and chaotic consequences which must follow any governmental attempt to put such a scheme to realization. It is for presumptuous and absurd it is for any party to ask the American people to accept a man as the chief executive of the nation who has stood sponsor for two such governmental policies. The man who reasoned so crudely in 1896, in 1900 and later cannot be supposed to have escaped the limitations with which he was encumbered. On who has been twice wrong in his monetary theories is not the man to be put in a place of the highest responsibility.—Allentown Chronicle and News.

The Drift From Bryan.
 This drift of Democrats away from Bryan and over to Taft in many of the southern states has more significance than may appear on the surface. It marks a tendency which is undoubtedly in operation all over the country. While the change of base may not be great enough to sweep any of the old southern Democratic fastnesses into the Republican column, it will count for much in the northern and western states, where there is no negro issue to hold men in line for a ticket whose head they distrust and whose principles they hate. Hundreds of thousands of men who voted for Bryan in his two previous canvasses will be against him this year.—Coatesville Times.

No Transfer For Bryan.
 W. J. Bryan makes a frank statement of his resources, and tells how and where he got his money. He is worth $125,000, and made most of it lecturing. Owing to the fact that he is doing so nicely on the platform, it would be hardly right to transfer him to a field where he might make a mess of things both for himself and the rest of us.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Bryan As a Rider.
 It is to be presumed that Colonel Bryan could easily pass the "riding test" for admission to the army service if again required. He has ridden so many hobbies in the past few years that he is getting to be a past master in the art.—Brookville Republican.

Bryan and the Crusher.
 Bryan wouldn't run a steam roller over Guffey just now. Oh, no. He will first try to squeeze a $10,000 contribution out of the Pennsylvania boss by gentler means. But if that doesn't succeed, look out for the crusher again.—Mount Union Times.

APPEAL TO CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Made by Judge Taft In Behalf of the Filipinos.

"A Great Missionary Work That is Certain to Promote Christian Civilization."

The extension of a vitalizing Christianity among the Filipinos as advocated by Judge Taft both before his speech of acceptance and in the nomination to the presidency and in that document itself has been widely commented upon in the pulpits of the United States. The voice of the clergy has given earnest commendation to the attitude of Judge Taft, who when governor general of the islands exerted the utmost influence for amelioration of the condition of the inhabitants of the archipelago, and that, too, at the cost of great self sacrifice on his own part in refusing the seat on the supreme bench, to which he was both called and commanded by President Roosevelt.
 Never since he first assumed the burden of the governorship of the Philippines has the welfare of the Filipinos ceased to be close to the heart of Judge Taft. In his speech of acceptance again he reminded the Americans that it is the duty of this country as a strong, Christian and enlightened nation to give spiritual as well as material aid to the distant brown brethren.

Taft's Appeal to Church.
 Rev. Albert Hurlstone, pastor of Roberts Park church, Indianapolis, Ind., in a recent sermon thus spoke of Judge Taft's appeal to the Christian people of America:
 "Mr. Taft used words of wisdom in referring to this question in his notification speech. His appeal is not only to his party, but it is to the Christian church of America. It seems to me that every man whose heart beats loyally to Jesus Christ must rejoice in the statement so truthfully made. Mr. Taft said: 'We have established a government with effective and honest executive departments in the Philippines and a clean and fearless administration of justice; we have created and are maintaining a comprehensive school system which is educating the youth of the islands in English and in industrial branches; we have constructed great government public works, roads and harbors; we have induced the private construction of 800 miles of railroad; we have policed the islands so that their condition as to law and order is better now than it has ever been in their history.'

"Mr. Taft is better fitted to speak on this question than any other man in the government today by virtue of his close connection with the problem, his experience and personal observation of the work being done; hence what he says will be heeded by the Christian church with intense interest.
Influence of Christian Civilization.
 "More than ten years before Dewey sailed into Manila, Bishop Thoburn, an missionary bishop for fifty years in India, predicted that ere long the missionary would find an open door in the Philippines, but God alone knew how the door was to be opened.
 "Now we hear Mr. Taft saying: 'We are engaged in the Philippines in a great missionary work that does our nation honor and is certain to promote in a most effective way the influence of Christian civilization. It is cowardly to lay down the burden until our purpose is achieved.' True, nor do we believe that the American people will allow this to be done. The sacrifice has been made, the song of the redeemed people will ere long fill heaven and earth with gladness. The selfish are ever lonely and joyless, but they who bring the sacrifice to the altar will find the joy of the Lord arise within them."

"According to His Folly."
 "Shall the people rule? is declared by the Democratic platform and candidate to be 'the overshadowing issue now under discussion.' It is no issue. Surely the people shall rule; surely the people have ruled; surely the people do rule." Thus Candidate Sherman replies to Candidate Bryan, and if the latter was looking for a straight answer he certainly got it. But those familiar with the mental processes of Mr. Bryan know that he would welcome no reply, but that his absurd question was asked to instill doubt in the minds of his more thoughtless followers.

Democratic Discouragement.
 At the risk of calling down upon ourselves further execrations from a few of the faithful and fanatical we make bold to remark that the indifference of the South Carolina Democrats to the cause of Mr. Bryan seems to justify our prediction some months ago that the campaign would end with the Denver convention. We wish that we could be disillusioned; we wish that the Democrats of South Carolina and of the country would sharply rebuke us for saying that there was an absence of enthusiasm for Mr. Bryan.—Charleston News and Courier (Dem.).

Making or Keeping Promises.
 The difference between Mr. Taft's promise of tariff revision and Mr. Bryan's pledges in the same direction is that Mr. Taft if elected will be in position to redeem his pledge, while Mr. Bryan if elected would be powerless to accomplish anything with a Republican senate arrayed against his free trade plans.—Omaha Bee.

Heart Strength
 Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.
 This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—the popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen those nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
