LADIES' SUITS at surprisingly low prices.

S. C. Hartley.

There's Not a Girl in Town that is not anxious to preserve the beauty of her complexion; the softness of her skin. When the balmy breezes of the summer time yield to the chilling winds of October, the tender skin is roughened by the sudden change, and the maiden no longer views with joy her matchless complexion—her soft, white hands.

You can laugh at the winds if you use Mentholoc Cream on your face and hands—there'll be no roughness, no redness there, but instead a skin as smooth as satin. Hundreds of ladies use Mentholoc Cream—you could not pay them to use any other. Ten cents a bottle. Sold only by

ADDISON NEWS.

Slayer of the Notorious Lupton Frantz Commits Suicide.

Oct. 26th.—Last Monday Jasper Augustine and family left here to take possession of their winter quarters in Uniontown, where they will remain until next spring.

Last Saturday evening Charles Liston, of Friendsville, Md., completed his journey here by shooting himself through the head. He fired four shots with suicidal intent, the first shot missing him entirely, the second grazing the scalp, and the third and fourth passing through his head. After shooting himself as described, the man remained conscious for an hour or more, recognized those about him, and talked freely. Dr. Louderbaugh, of this place, was sent for, but after arriving and examining the patient, he saw that nothing could be done for him. At 3 o'clock, Sunday morning, the wounds proved fatal, and the remains of Mr Liston were interred on the Frazee farm, near Friendsville. The funeral was largely attended, as many people go a long way to attend a funeral, out of mere curiosity, on occasions like this.

Mr. Liston, it appears, has not been altogether right in his mind since he shot and killed Lupton Frantz, a dangerous character well known in Somerset and Garrett counties, several years ago. However, as he killed Frantz in self defense, most people seem to think he did nothing that he should have grieved over.

Miss Blanche Donnell Goes to South Africa to Wed C. E. Knecht.

The following news item was sent to Wm. Knecht, of West Salisbury, by Miss May Cosgrove, of Santa Barbara, Cal., who says the Mr. Knecht mentioned in the item below is a relative of the Knechts in West Salisbury. Miss Cosgrove will be remembered as the genial and efficient telegraph and telephone operator who served this town so satisfactorily for a couple of years.

Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—To travel all the way alone from Los Angeles to Johannesburg, South Africa, there to meet and wed her fiancé and sweetheart of her schooldays, is the journey undertaken to-day by Miss Blanche Donnell, daughter of Major and Mrs. J. A. Donnell, 6312 Pasadena Ave., this city. Miss Donnell will complete her 18,000-mile journey in December, and her marriage will occur shortly after her arrival. The groom-to-be is C. E. Knecht, a mining engineer of South Africa, formerly of Los Angeles. Mr. Knecht's duties will keep him busily employed in the Boer country for several years, and this fact was responsible for the journey of the bride. Both parties are well known in local society. Miss Donnell will spend a few days in the east, and then sail for London, from where she will embark for Cape Town, South Africa. From there she will go direct to Johannesburg, where her future husband is awaiting her.

WOMAN INTERRUPTS POLITICAL SPEAKER.

A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently, by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 11-1

Convention of Officers.

The officers, ex-officers and other laymen of the Reformed church throughout Somerset Classis will hold a convention in Somerset, next Thursday, Nov. 5, for the purpose of discussing the topics in a program that has been prepared for the occasion. All the elders and deacons of the Salisbury and Keim congregations are expected to be present and take part in the deliberations. Among others who will make remarks are Hon. C. J. Otto, of New Germany, Md. M. H. Kramer, Esq., of Hyndman, C. W. Truxal, W. H. Habel, C. J. Knable, I. C. Miller, Hon. J. C. Weller, H. P. Hay, J. B. Schrock, Chas. F. Zimmerman, H. L. Baer, W. P. Hay and others. There will be forenoon, afternoon and evening sessions. Dr. D. B. Ludy, of Duquesne, will deliver an address in the afternoon, and Prof. J. C. Bowman will speak in the evening. The general public is cordially invited to the evening session.

Garrett County's Registration.

The following table shows the total vote of the several election districts of Garrett county, Md., as well as the gain in registration over last year:

No National Bank can have a smaller capital stock than $25,000.00. That is the minimum required by law. This bank could have been capitalized at that amount. However, having in view the better securing of its depositors, the stockholders of this bank have put in a cash capital of $50,000.00. This capital gives the depositors twice the security. Besides the capital, the stockholders have allowed $21,000.00 of earnings to remain in bank, which gives additional security to depositors. We endeavor in every way to safeguard the interests of our depositors.
