CIRCUMSTANCES ALTER CASES.

Margie—The minister never seems to pray for rain any more.
Marjorie—He stopped doing that when he got the golf fever.

DEFENDING THE TITLE.

The Bar-Keep—"Why, I t'ought you came outer yer iast fight wit-out a mark?"
The Pug—"Sure, but I got married since."

DELAYING DINNER.

Mother Bug—"I sent Willie to the butchers an hour ago, for meat for dinner, and I can't imagine what is keeping him."

THE OTHER END.

Minister—"Doesn't your conscience hurt you when use profanity?" Tommy (saully)—"Faint my conscience, mister; Pa heard me."

CUTTING REMARKS.

"So you and your boss are having trouble, eh?"
"Yes; I gave him an awful raking today."

Birth of Crystals.

The bloscope is proving itself to be an instrument of some value in scientific investigation.

At Washington certain scientists have made a series of instantaneous microphotographs of growing crystals, their object being to determine the manner in which crystallization begins.

With high microscopic powers some observers have thought that they could detect the formation of minute globules immediately preceding the appearance of crystal forms.

But the new bloscopic pictures of forming and growing crystals show only crystalline shapes from the beginning. They also reveal the fact that the growth in diameter in the first second of a crystal's existence is vastly more rapid than during the subsequent period, and it is thought that this swift growth at the start is the cause of a lack of definition which deceives the eye, but not the photographic film.

Transparent Eels.

There are not very many transparent animals, but recent studies of two larval eels which possess this peculiarity, and which belong to the National Museum, seem to show that among the possible advantages of being transparent is economy in personal decoration.

In ordinary opaque animals the color markings are symmetrical on the two sides of the body, but this is not the case with the transparent eels. Each of them, who looked at from one side, appears to have seven large black spots arranged at nearly regular intervals along the length of the body, but closer examination shows that in each case three of the spots are on the left side and four on the right, and irregularly spaced, but in such a manner that on looking through the body, all seven appear in a symmetrical row.

Chance For a Laborer.

Wiltshire (England) advertisement: "Man wanted as laborer on a private estate, to see to the ducks, chickens and ferrets; hours, 8 to 5, with two hours for dinner; wages, £1 a week, with occasional presents of money, eggs, cigars, rabbits, milk, whiskey and firewood; no work on Sundays, bank holidays, Saturday afternoons, or wet days, but for which wages are always paid in full; one thing required will be not to worry about others employed on the property, but to make himself happy."

Wage of Workers in China.

In China wages of women operatives are nearly at the vanishing point. It is said that in the silk mills at Shanghai there are 20,000 workers, among whom are children that work at 3 cents a day and women at 5 cents. The highest paid get 26 cents for a 13-hour day. In the Shanghai cotton mills the best women workers get 14 cents a day, the poorest 5 cents, the hours being from 6 to 8, with 30 minutes at noon for dinner.

Translating the Bible.

As an instance of the tragedy of foreign missions Dr. Hoskins of Beirut, Syria, referred to the fact that four of the members of that mission gave four years of devoted work to preparing an Arabic translation of the Bible and then found all their labor lost because the American Bible Society could not provide the necessary $10,000 for the publication.

Beneficial in Tuberculosis.

It is estimated that last year Paris ate altogether 40,000 horses, or more than 22,000,000 pounds of horseflesh. In 1899 the consumption was less than 10,000,000 pounds.
Besides the low price there has been a demand for the meat because it is supposed to be wholesome in case of tuberculosis and tuberculosis tendency. Many people regard it more healthful than beef.

Fist Fights in India.

In the kingdom of Baroda, India, a favorite sport is a fist fight in which the fighters wear a steel cascus which has formidable claws. The combatants, who have been crazed with a drink of liquid opium mixed with an infusion of hemp, enter the arena singing. One of them is certain to be killed.

Progress of Trade.

The fact that a man today can sit down in a restaurant overlooking the Thames embankment, or at a table under the trees at the edge of the Thiergarten and dine on fresh salmon brought from the waters of California, Oregon and Alaska, shows graphically how industrial efficiency has given romance to modern trade.

Argentina's Wheat Export.

Argentina now seems fixed at the top of the list in exports of wheat to Great Britain. It has held that post for three years, with steadily increasing figures, while the British imports from every other country have either declined or fluctuated.
The United States is second at present.

Philippines Valuable Crop.

The most valuable crop in the Philippines is hemp; rice comes next, followed by tobacco. The export of Manila cigars amounts to nearly $1,000,000 a year, and the home consumption is probably larger.

BURIED ALIVE.

"Old Jones wore a grave look as we passed him, didn't he?"
"Yes, he was buried in thought, I guess."

ON THE MEND.

"How's that troublesome clock?" inquired the repairer.
"It's convalescing," replied the customer.
"Keeping good time?"
"No, gaining."

FUNNY ANYWAY.

Mr. Cadwalader—Aw, I say, everybody seemed to think I was very funny when I was pretending to act silly at the masquerade the other evening.
Miss Boardman—Yes, I laughed a good deal myself. By the way, during what part of the evening was it?

DIDN'T GIVE HER A CHANCE.

"Do you mean to say that that ugly Roberts girl once had a man at her feet and didn't marry him?"
"Yes; he was a chiropodist."

A BIG ONE.

"Did the bigges' one get away?"
"Naw, got it in my pocket."

HUMAN NATURE IN SHARKS.

Observing Shark—There goes a man overboard!
Philanthropic Shark—Poor fellow! We'll have to eat him or he'll drown.

NEVER.

Patient—Is it true, doctor, that persons are buried alive?
Doctor—Not my patients.

MERELY A BURST OF SPEED.

Pastor—I hope the report that you raced horses going home from church last Sunday is not true.
Deacon Pillar—No, sir; but if you think I'll let Jim Blaze's rackabone nax pas me, you're mistaken.

CONSIDERATE.

Girl (in hotel)—O ma, look at those vulgar people putting their fingers in the lemonade bowls—Mother—Hush! If they heard you they might be mortified.

SUGAR-COATED.

Mother—Mercy, Willie! Don't eat those pills, they will make you sick.
Willie—Who's eatin' 'em? I'm only tryin' to see if their vests is like their coats.
