GOVERNMENT PARTNERSHIP.
The government has no more right to be a partner with the liquor men in their business than it has to be a partner in the hardware or grocery business. It ought to divorce itself instantly from such an entangling alliance, and let the liquor business take care of itself, the same as any other business. It is simply a monstrous outrage for a civilized government to protect the nefarious business by a license take away government support from the business by all means, and its sojourn will be of "if w years and full of trouble."

TO LAND OWNERS.—We have printed and keep in stock a supply of trespass notices containing extracts from the far-reaching trespass law passed at the 1905 session of the Pennsylvania Legislature. Every owner should buy some of them, as the law requires land owners to post their lands if they want the protection of the latest and best trespass law ever passed. Send all orders to THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa.
