The business men of Meyersdale have organized a board of trade, and expect soon to have a silk mill located there. They also have other industries in view. The business men of Salisbury should also organize a board of trade, as every town needs an organization of that kind. God helps those who try to help themselves.

D. Compton, the genial and popular Elk Lick miller, is not as well contented as the poet's "Miller of the Dee," and how in the deuce could he be contented and happy when suffering with a series of carbuncles? With all his suffering, however, he is able to get about and swap yarns with his friends, and we think he'll soon have the carbuncles knocked out.

Mrs. G. W. Robinson arrived home from Johnstown, Pa., last Sunday evening, very sick. She had been in Johnstown visiting her daughters, Mrs. Morgan Williams and Mrs. Austin Brown and their families. Richard Newman went to Washington, D. C., Monday, and returned home yesterday. He went there on business, and we just about half suspect that big "Bill" Taft sent for him to come down and accept a position in his cabinet. But "Dick" doesn't care for office as long as he can hold the high-salaried, honorable and thankless office of School Director in Salisbury.

Fire broke out in Kunkle's restaurant, in Meyersdale, Monday evening, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The building in which the fire occurred is located between the Colonial hotel and the Miller and Collins store. If the blaze had not been discovered in time, the entire business section of Meyersdale would likely have gone up in smoke.

Christmas was a rather quiet day in Salisbury, although about the usual number of people celebrated the Saviour's birthday by getting drunk and making hogs of themselves. By most of our people, however, the day was properly observed, and the Christmas services at the various churches were well attended. The charity offerings at the Lutheran church were quite liberal, and brought happiness to many hearts.

An exchange truthfully says: "It makes no difference what profession of religion a man may make, nor how loyal he is to his church and pastor, he can never get a glimpse of the pearly gates until he pays his debts. God has no use for a deadbeat, and men hate such vermin. It makes no difference how small the debt is, if it is honestly owed, it should be honestly paid before he can call himself a consistent Christian."

When the sun shines and the streets become dusty, you wish it would rain; when it rains and the streets become muddy, you wish the sun would shine. After you are married you wish you was single, and if you get a new dress you wish you had a new hat to match it; if it is a boy you wish it was a girl, and if it is a girl you wish it was a boy. Was human nature ever satisfied? Guess not, and glad of it, for then there would be nothing to "kick" about.

More people are taking Foley's Kidney Remedy every year. It is considered to be the most effective remedy for kidney and bladder troubles that medical science can devise. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities, builds up worn out tissues and restores lost vitality. It will make you feel well and look well. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor.

A circular issued by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials, states that hereafter passengers who travel on the 1,000-mile commercial books, and who have heretofore been compelled to sign their names to contracts, and also to sign the tickets in the presence of the conductors, will not be required to comply with this provision. This will be a great convenience to the ticket users, and will enable the conductors to collect the tickets more rapidly.

Walter Herring, a youth of sixteen years, was badly injured in the Somerset Coal Company's mine No. 1, Monday morning, while attempting to get on an electric motor. He was caught between the motor and a car, which resulted in a badly injured leg. No bones were broken, but a gash was cut about a foot long, extending downward from the knee, and deep enough to reach the bone. Considerable time will elapse before the young man will be able to work again.

The McClure brothers, Samuel, William and James, all came home to spend the Holiday season with their mother, Mrs. Q. A. McClure, and other Salisbury friends. Samuel took up the study of law, in Detroit, Mich., some time ago, where he also holds a lucrative position with the Remington Typewriter Company. William is a medical student at the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, and James a law student at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia.

Horse coughs and stuffy colds that may develop into pneumonia over night are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, as it soothes inflamed membranes, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 1-1

Life is too short to be overshadowed by gloom. Let us live bravely and cheerfully, as well as industriously and dutifully. The true heart recognizes the duty of happiness, and faces life with a certain courageous gaiety that solves many doubts and scatters the clouds of woe and disaster. Let us cultivate the habit of cheerfulness, and know that when we quench the innocent joy of a fellow creature by a word or a frown we are deliberately destroying a part of the world's most precious treasures.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Livengood, of Keyser, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Livengood, of Munhall, Pa., arrived here last week to spend Christmas and a few other days at the old home of the Messrs. Livengood, who are sons of Elijah Livengood, the maple sugar king. "Abe" and "Dan" report a sumptuous dinner at the old homestead on Christmas day, and the whole family partook of it in liberal doses, the occasion being a sort of family reunion. The Big Maple farm is as famous for good dinners as for maple sugar.

Every case of backache, weak back, bladder inflammation and rheumatic pains is dangerous if neglected, for such troubles are nearly always due to weak kidneys. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Miller. 1-1

George S. Warnick and son Lester, charged with causing the death of William Broadwater, a brother-in-law of Warnicks, at Bond station, some time in the early fall, were arraigned before the court, and George S. Warnick was acquitted, while the son was paroled for a term of three years on his good behavior, and to pay the widow of Broadwater the sum of twenty dollars per month, and to give bond for the faithful performance of the penalty. His father went on his bond. Lester, the accused son, is to appear at each term of the court for the three years.—Oakland Journal.

You should always remember that most cough and cold cures are constipating. Yet the most important thing to do when you have a cold is to move the bowels. You cannot promptly cure a cold until you do this. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup stops the cough by allaying inflammation of the throat and lungs, and it drives the cold from the system by gently moving the bowels. Children like it, for it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by E. H. Miller. 1-1

The January number of The Ladies' World has three features that would attract attention in any magazine because of their timeliness and method of treatment. Ella B. Argo, a Southern journalist, describes a ride taken one afternoon with John D. Rockefeller in Augusta, Georgia, and it is done so simply that you feel that you know more of the great man than ever before. The centenary of Edgar Allan Poe is to be celebrated next month, and Clara E. Laughlin, the well-known writer, tells the story of the poet's unfortunate life in a way that is more fascinating than any fiction. Laura A. Smith writes of the Country Life Commission and the influence the Consolidated School has on the social life of the rural districts. These contributions alone would make any issue notable, but there are besides several very interesting short stories, finely illustrated, the continuation of Grace MacGowan Cooke's novel, Hearts Inflight, Fashion and Dressmaking and Needlework departments, and some miscellaneous reading that is well worth while. If the standard of this number is kept up, the year will be a remarkable one.—[New York; Fifty Cents a Year.]

After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, proprietor. 1-1
