SAVING!

If you were going to cross a desert which would require several days, you would provide necessary food and water before starting, to last until you reached the other side. Is it not just as wise and important to prepare for the deserts of life, such as sickness, "hard times" and old age by saving. Decide you are going to save, NOW, then call and start an account with us.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SALISBURY,
ELK LICK, PA.

A Fearful Cost to Pay For Lack of Grit.

If he who hesitates is lost,
As some old sage has writ,
It surely is a fearful cost
To pay for lack of grit.
Don't hesitate if you would win;
To save yourself is best.

MISERY IN STOMACH
And Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes and You Feel Fine.

Why not start now—today, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and Indigestion? A dieted Stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and Dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one triangle will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good. Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to be thoroughly cured of Indigestion.

Saturday Night Reveries.

Saturday night seems to have the happy faculty of making people human, set their hearts to beating softly as they used to do before the world turned them into war drums and jarred them to pieces with tattoos. On Saturday night the ledger closes with a bang, the iron-doored vault comes to with a bang, click, goes the key in the lock. It is Saturday night, and the business man breathes free again. Homeward, ho! The door that has been ajar all the week gently closes behind him, the world is all shut out. Shut out? Shut in, rather. At home are his treasures, after all, and not in the vault and not in the book—save the record in the old family Bible—and not in the bank. Maybe you are a bachelor, frosty and forty. Then, poor fellow, Saturday night is nothing to you, just as you are nothing to anybody. Get a wife, blue-eyed or black-eyed, but above all, true-eyed. Get a little home—no matter how little—a sofa just to hold two, or two and a half, in it, on a Saturday night, and then read this paragraph by the light in your wife's eyes, and thank God and take courage.—Exchange.

WHAT IT WOULD DO.

The money paid for one glass of beer would pay for one loaf of bread.

The money paid for one glass of whisky would pay for one pound of beef.

The money paid for two glasses of beer would pay for a half peck of potatoes.

The money paid for two glasses of whisky would pay for one pound of coffee.

The money paid for three glasses of beer would pay for a quarter of a pound of tea.

The money paid for three glasses of whisky would pay for a fowl.

The money paid for four glasses of beer would pay for a dozen of eggs.

The money paid for five glasses of whisky would pay for two pounds of butter.

The money paid in one month for two glasses of beer a day, would pay for a ton of coal.

The money paid in one month for two glasses of whisky a day, would pay for a suit of clothes.

The money paid in one year for three glasses of beer a day would pay the rent for a small suite of rooms for one year.

The money paid in one year for three glasses of whisky in a day, would pay for an outfit of household furniture.

The money paid in one year for four glasses of beer a day, would pay for a carriage.

The money paid in one year for four glasses of whisky a day, would pay for a horse and harness.

Thirteen Questions for the Thoughtful.

1. What have the saloon-keepers done to improve the condition of the working class?

2. Have you more comfortable homes through supporting the drink-seller?

3. Have you fewer jailers and magistrates through supporting the saloon-keepers?

4. Are your taxes less because drink-sellers are kept busy?

5. Is bread cheaper because nearly forty millions of bushels of grain go to the miller instead of the miller?

6. Is trade improved because money is spent at saloons instead of in clothes, furniture and food?

7. Are the articles manufactured by brewers and distillers worth the money that is paid for them?

8. If drink sellers had to keep all the paupers, lunatics and criminals they make, how many of them would be able to keep out of bankruptcy?

9. Is the health of these drinkers of intoxicants better than that of people who don't drink?

10. Are the neighborhoods most orderly and prosperous where the saloons are the most numerous?

11. Would your sons and daughters be improved if they were trained up behind saloon-bars?

12. Don't saloon-keepers generally vote for those candidates who promise to protect their trade, regardless of every other trade?

13. If a church were composed of nothing but malters, brewers, distillers, saloon-keepers and their assistants, what influence would it exert on the drunkenness of the country?
