Do try to be as sweet and charm-ing at home as you strive to be else-where, says the New York Herald, speaking to girls. Get up and go to bed good natured. Speak to the members of your family as courteous-ly as you would to Mrs. Modish. It will charm the ear of your mother and gratify her. And keep a careful watch of your voice as well as your words at home, for one of the great-est attractions one can have is a speaking voice of sweet, modulated tones.

will charm the ear of your mother and gratify her. And keep a caréful watch of your voice as well as your words at home, for one of the great estatistications one can have is a speaking voice of sweet, modulated tones.
Take Warning, Girls.
Cupid is always painted with wings, perhaps to show how easily he can fly away. Many women forget this once they are married, and the man who wishes to is not apt to be of a kind worth her knowing. There are, of course, moments—at a dance, for instance—when the glamor of the conservatory overcomes good sense, or in wondrous moonlight, wherein responsibility ceases. This being the case the sometimes woefully disappointed to find how little care she takes over her appearance for ordinary, every day occasions afterward.
It isn't fair to any husband to let oneself go in this way. If you do, and find that very soon Cupid files out at the window, you will have only yourself to blame.—Home Chat.

than a week. "This kind can come forth by nothing but prayer." Do not think you are going to have it done because you have sent for a stranger. The stranger cannot do it. He is no magician, he is no conjurer, no trickster, no quack. He is only a man; an old-fashioned preacher of Christ's gospel. I do not believe in grating up a revival. I believe in praying one down. Hi it comes down it will be right. These things come to pass as we pray, and what is need-ed in our work for Christ is more prayer.

Operating on a Lioness. Operating on a Lioness. One of the rarest surgical opera-tions ever attempted upon an animal was recently performed at the Cincin-nati Zoological Garden in the remov-al of a 25-pound tumor from a lion-ess. Three surgeons, assisted by a halfdozen of the attendants, perform-ed the operation. Popular Mechanics describes the means by which the wild beast was kept in subjection during the operation. A pound can of ether was used.

Rheumatism Prescription.

Rheumatism Prescription. Considerable discussion is being caused among the medical fraternity by the increased use of whiskey for rheumatism. It is an almost infalli-ble cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken proper-ly. The following is the formula: "One ounce of Torls compound and one ounce of syrup Sarsapartilla com-pound. Add one-half pint of good whiskey. Take intablespoonful doses before each meal and before retir-ing."

Ing." This is said to produce almost im-mediate results.

Seward's Prophetic Words.

Seward's Prophetic Words. The Pacific ocean, its shores and its islands and the vast region be-yond, will become the chief theater. This prediction by Seward, more than half a century ago, is on the way to-ward reaization. The understanding which has been given formal expres-ion by the statement drawn up by Secretary Root and Ambassador Tak-ahir a will do much toward hastening that day. China has 400,000,000 of commodities which we have to sell, will increase many fold as these peo-people, who wants, in the way of commodities which we have to sell, will increase many fold as these peo-ters. When we consider that Asia hard e a few decades hence will probably reach proportion of Amer-holds half of the 1,600,000,000 people of the entire globe, this Root-Taka-hard half on terms of the greatest cor-diality with the United States, peace the pacific and the orient is assur-ed. ## Difficult Fact.

The fact that the impact of a bullet from a pistol shot in fun is similar to that of a bullet loosed in a spirit of hostility is uncertainly grasped by a certain order of intelligence—Phil-adelphia Public Ledger.

Overlooking an Opportunity. France, with savings of $1,000,000, 000 in a year, makes the question per-tinent whether the Paris stock ex-change is alive to its opportunities.— New York World.
