An 8-year-old daughter of M. D. Thomas has been quite sick for some time, and her father informed THE STAR, Monday, that her malady is typhoid fever.

People of all classes that need help are looking about for intelligent, industrious, well-behaved, gentlemanly boys. A boy of that kind is laying a good foundation for success in life.

Undertaker W. A. Clarke, of Meyersdale, was a business caller at THE STAR office, yesterday, but we are pleased to state that he wasn't on an undertaking mission. THE STAR never was more alive than right now.

Jonas Lichty, who had for some time been working in a manufacturing plant in Ohio, has returned to Salisbury. He says most Pennsylvanians who enter Ohio shops do not like working in them as well as in Pennsylvania shops.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 4-1

Dr. A. M. Lichty, of this place, and Noah Warnick, of Garrett county, Md., went to the inauguration of President Taft. We understand the trip was the result of a pre-election agreement, and that the trip of both men was paid by the doctor.

Stewart Smith, who for some time has been managing a company store at Star Junction, Fayette county, Pa., was a welcome caller at THE STAR office, last Friday. He arrived in town on Thursday, and returned to his employment Friday afternoon.

Lester Boucher, who is holding a weighman's position with the Pittsburgh Coal Company, in Westmoreland county, arrived in town Thursday evening last, and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boucher, until Sunday, when he returned to his employment.

Our old friend Wm. Wagner, a prominent and much respected citizen of Elk Lick township, had a light attack of apoplexy, Tuesday. We are glad that it was no worse, and we are pleased to report that his physician considers his case in a very favorable light.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Cures backache and irregularities that if neglected might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 4-1

Abraham Lincoln's head is to appear on the new one-cent pieces which will be coined by the Philadelphia mint within a few weeks. The representation of Lincoln, which will take the place of the Indian head, is that contained on a bronze medal recently executed by Victor B. Brenner, of New York, says an exchange.

Since the explosion in the mine of the Merchants Coal Company at Boswell, several weeks ago, several hundred persons have moved from the town. Outside of making repairs in the mines, nothing has been done. The heads of families being unemployed, they soon began to look elsewhere for support, says the Somerset Standard.

A Guaranteed Cough remedy is Bees Laxative Cough Syrup. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough, hoarseness and all bronchial affections. Best for children because it is quick to relieve and tastes good. Gently laxative. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

Miss Lucy Livengood, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Livengood, of this borough, was recently married to a young man named Davis, of Somerset, Pa. The bride had for some time been residing in Pittsburg. We have learned no particulars of the wedding, but we extend our best wishes to the couple. The bride is well and favorably known here.

We understand that our portly friend Dr. "Abe" Livengood, the well-known veterinary surgeon, has purchased a home in Elkins, W. Va., and is about to locate there. He has been located in Keyser, W. Va., for more than a year, and has already achieved great fame and success in his profession. The old Elk Lick boys nearly all have the knack of making good wherever they go.

Woods Liver Medicine is a liver regulator which brings quick relief to sick headache, constipation, biliousness and other symptoms of liver disorders. Particularly recommended for Jaundice, Chills, Fever, Malaria. The $1.00 size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 50c. size. Sold by Elk Lick Pharmacy. 6-1

At the municipal election held at Elkins, W. Va., Tuesday, the fight was between the "drys" and the "wets" for control of the city council, which body has the license-granting power over saloons. The dries elected the mayor and six out of ten councilmen, which means that the eleven saloons and one brewery now doing business in Elkins must close their doors on the 1st of next July.

The annual meeting of the Church of the Brethren of the Western District of Pennsylvania will be held on Wednesday, April 14th, at Salisbury, where ministers and delegates will be present from all the churches located in the western counties of the state. At this meeting a delegate will be chosen to represent the church on the General Committee at the Annual Meeting, which is to be held in June, at Harrisonburg, Va.

We say without hesitation that DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled for weak kidneys, backache, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary disorders. They are antiseptic and act promptly in all cases of weak back, backache, rheumatism and rheumatic pains. Accept no substitute. We sell and recommend them. E. H. Miller. 4-1

Mr. Thomas J. Wagner and Miss Estella Morrow were united in marriage at Meyersdale, last Thursday evening. We have not learned the particulars of the wedding, but we join the numerous friends of the newly wedded couple in extending best wishes and congratulations. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas A. Wagner, and the bride, we understand, is an adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow, of Meyersdale.

The local lodge of Odd Fellows had a banquet in the McKinley building, Tuesday evening, at which they royally entertained a number of invited guests. Some good speeches were made, we are told, and the supper was served by the local W. C. T. U., which organization gave a "sociable" in the same building the following evening, at which refreshments were served. The editor and wife return thanks for an invitation to be present, but regret to state that we could not be there.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative, and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 4-1

Last Friday morning W. H. Dill, business manager of the Meyersdale Republican, was summoned to the bedside of his mother, who was very ill at her home in Philadelphia. In response to a telegram, Mr. Dill started for Philadelphia at once, but arrived there a few hours after his mother died. The funeral took place at Lewisburg, their former home, last Sunday. Deceased was the wife of the late Andrew Dill, who in 1878 was the Democratic candidate for Governor of this state.

S. L. Livengood last week resigned his position as blacksmith at our local traction engine works, and on Friday he went to Chambersburg, Pa., where he has accepted a more lucrative position at blacksmithing for a carriage manufacturer. He has written home that he likes his new position and the town of Chambersburg very much, and it is likely that he will soon move his family to that place. The people of Salisbury would all hate to see "Sam" and his family leave our town, but all wish them success wherever they may reside.

How can any person risk taking some unknown cough remedy when Foley's Honey and Tar costs them no more? It is a safe remedy, contains no harmful drugs, and cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. Why experiment with your health? Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 4-1

A Meyersdale correspondent to the Connellsville Courier, reported the following news to that paper, last Sunday: Work in the mines is very slack in this region. Yesterday when the men received their pay, about 80 employees in Summit and Elk Lick No. 4 mines, mostly single men, were laid off. It is said that in the next two weeks more than 250 will be added to the list at the several mines in this region of the Somerset Coal Company. Coming as it does at this season of the year, it works considerable hardship to those who are forced to give up their jobs.

Bill Nye had the truth well told when he said: "A man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button; ride on the back coach of a railroad train to save interest on his money till the conductor gets around; stop his watch at night to save wear and tear; leave his 'i' or 't' without a dot or cross to save ink; pasture his mother's grave to save corn; but a man of this sort is a gentleman and a scholar compared to the fellow that will take a newspaper two or three years, and when asked to pay for it, puts it into the office and has it marked 'refused'."

This is the most dangerous time of the year to catch cold, and it is the hardest time to cure it. If you should take a cold, a few doses of Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup will act very promptly. Its laxative principle cures the cold by driving it from the system by a gentle but natural action of the bowels. Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes so good, nearly like maple sugar. It is sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1

Dennis Stevanus, one of THE STAR's Garrett county (Md.) friends and subscribers, was a business caller at THE STAR office yesterday. He is successor to Albert Bittinger in the slate and metal roofing business, and we wish him much success in his new venture. We feel sure that he will make good, for he is a hard and intelligent worker, as well as a young man of exemplary habits and high moral character. Dennis is quite a newspaper reporter, too, he having on several occasions reported for THE STAR the proceedings of farmers' institutes, and his reports were excellent in every particular.

"We wish to thank the city authorities for quarantining me and my family for two weeks, recently, because one of the children had smallpox. During that time my wife caught up with her sewing, undisturbed by callers. We had three square meals a day, and no one came in and my wife was not permitted to go out. We enjoyed two weeks of good, long nights' sleep, and best of all, a cousin with four children arrived to visit with us, saw the sign on the door, and left town so scared that she will never come back again. I wish to thank the city authorities and hope they will think of our comfort some time again."—Kincaid (Kan.) Dispatch.

Better and better grows The Ladies' World, judging by the March number just received. It has an unusual number of fine stories, among the authors being Hugh Pendexter, Alice MacGowan, Clara Morris, Shirley Carson, Grace Cain and Albert Biglow Paine. There is a timely article on Washington Social Life, and another on the dangerous side of the New Thought and similar movements. Catering as an occupation for women is sensibly dealt with; there is an attractive article on Garden Work, an original entertainment called A Presidential Party. The household departments are full of interest, and the housekeeper will find among the cookery recipes some very novel and appetizing dishes made from canned goods. There are, besides, a goodly array of Spring Fashions, A Lesson in Dressmaking, The Ways of Society, Health and Good Looks, Artistic Needlework, etc. Everything seems very good and very sensible.—(New York; Fifty Cents a Year.)

E. J. Egan, one of Salisbury's most progressive business men, says he finds that it pays him to make use of THE STAR's business local column, the locals bringing lots of inquiries concerning the goods advertised, and lots of sales follow. Mr. Egan is right, and there isn't a store in town that couldn't create a lively demand for certain goods on their shelves, if the goods were mentioned in the columns of the local paper. When special newspaper mention is made of certain lines of goods, a lively demand is often created for goods that otherwise are slow sale, simply because people do not think of them until the little business local jogs the memory. In our own case, we have purchased many a dollar's worth of advertised goods that we wouldn't have thought of buying, had their purchase not been suggested by newspaper advertisements. And the same is the experience of practically everybody else. Furthermore, it is sometimes interesting to note how long an advertisement will continue to do its intended work, even after its discontinuance. An instance of this kind was brought very forcibly to our mind just recently. For several years we had on hand some personal effects which we had no need for. The articles were valuable to those in need of them, but to us were merely dead stock. We advertised them by inserting a few little locals in THE STAR, a few times, a couple of months ago, and last week, which was long after the advertisements last appeared, Major Phil A. Shaffer, Superintendent of the Macdonaldton mines, sent us an order and the price for one of the articles advertised. If you have anything to sell, whether you are a business man, farmer, mechanic or laborer, there are many times when a little business local or two will readily dispose of your goods and convert dead stock into ready cash.

Curtin Chaney Breaks an Arm.
While trying to boom a load of lumber, Tuesday afternoon, Curtin Chaney, a teamster in the employ of R. Newman & Bro., had the misfortune to break one of his arms at the wrist. The accident was caused by the breaking of the chain while under heavy tension, throwing Mr. Chaney violently to the ground. "Curt" seems to be having more than his share of bad luck, but we trust that his recovery will be more rapid than when he had typhoid fever.

Death of Mrs. Marling Walker.
Mrs. Ada Bertha Walker, wife of Marling Walker, a clerk in the P. E. R. Supervisor's office, at Conemaugh, Pa., died Tuesday night of last week, at the Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, Pa., aged twenty-four years and twenty days. The remains were brought to Mr. Walker's home on Friday, and interred in the Hay's cemetery, Rev. Carney officiating. Deceased is survived by her husband, father, two brothers and three sisters.

Mr. Walker is a brother of Mrs. C. B. Dickey, of Elk Lick.

Wants His Record Cleared.
Prof. J. C. Beahm, recently deposed principal of the Grantsville high school, after being charged with a serious crime at Accident, early last fall, and who was tried at the December term of our circuit court and acquitted of the charge, appeared before the school board on last Thursday and Friday and asked to have his record cleared of the charge, and a restoration to the schools of the county. We are informed that Prof. Beahm did not get all he asked for, and there was some strong contention over the matter, and the end is not yet.—Oakland Journal.

Leg Badly Crushed While Logging.
While engaged at logging for the White's Creek Lumber Company, Christian Beachy, of Garrett county, Md., had the misfortune on Monday, the 1st inst., to get one of his legs caught under a rolling log, which resulted in badly crushing and mangling the leg from the knee to the foot. It is said that he laid in the woods an hour or more, in the greatest agony, before his pitiable condition was discovered. He was brought to Salisbury as soon as possible, where he was placed aboard a P. & M. trolley car at 6 o'clock in the evening, an attendant accompanying him on his way to a Baltimore hospital. The injured leg will likely have to be amputated, if that has not already been done. The unfortunate man is the youngest son of the late Aaron Beachy, and his place of residence is several miles west of Grantsville.

A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S STATEMENT.
Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble, and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days, unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently, day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased, and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 4-1
