Gold and Silver Development.

The Black Lick Gold and Silver Mining Company, whose development lies in District No. 11, of this county, near the Allegheny county line, and who were chartered for the purpose of developing a gold and silver deposit supposed to exist near Merrill, this county, a couple of years ago, will begin operations for a complete development as soon as a complete outfit of machinery can be installed at the mines. The stockholders are M. P. Gannon, J. C. Renninger, Judge Elias Merrill and two sons, I. H. Kooker and several other business men of Piedmont and Westernport. These gentlemen, though prevented from developing at an earlier date, owing to want of more funds, have now decided to make a complete investigation, and all of them have faith in the future of the enterprise.—Oakland Journal.
