Born, last Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barchus, a son. We understand the newcomer has been named Daniel Quincy, in honor of his two grandfathers. That's a good name, much better than some of the modern monstrosities in the name line by which children are all too frequently encumbered with.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Cures backache and irregularities that if neglected might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 4-1

Last Thursday evening the Lutheran parsonage was the scene of a happy gathering, which came in the nature of a surprise to the pastor's wife, Mrs. L. P. Young. The event was in honor of Mrs. Young's birthday, and the hostess was the recipient of many useful presents and kind wishes. The affair was arranged for by the Ladies' Aid Society and choir of the Lutheran church, and was participated in by nearly fifty guests. Refreshments were served, and all enjoyed themselves immensely.

A young Chicago drummer was taking a vacation with his uncle in the country, and was called upon to ask the blessing, and not being accustomed to it, he promptly "tackled" the difficulty in the following words: "We acknowledge the receipt of your favor of this date. Allow us to extend our gratitude for this expression of good will. Trusting that our house may merit your confidence and have many orders from you this fall, we are yours truly, amen." The old man will say grace hereafter.

We say without hesitation that DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled for weak kidneys, backache, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary disorders. They are antiseptic and act promptly in all cases of weak back, backache, rheumatism and rheumatic pains. Accept no substitute. We sell and recommend them. E. H. Miller. 4-1

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fuller, who had been visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Cochran, died of spinal disease, at the Cochran home, last Sunday. Deceased was aged about 15 years. The remains were taken to Grantsville, Monday, for interment, but of the funeral service we have received no report. Deceased had her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowser, who reside just across the Pennsylvania and Maryland line, about 2 miles south of Salisbury.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative, and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 4-1

Our friend Wm. D. Miller, late a citizen of Elk Lick township, has moved to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and orders THE STAR sent to his new address. He was in THE STAR office a couple of months ago, at which time he apprised us of his intended move. He does not state in his letter what he intends to follow where he is now located, but if our memory serves us right he stated on a former occasion that he would engage in the "truck" farming business. Well, we wish him lots of success, anyway, at whatever he may engage in.

How can any person risk taking some unknown cough remedy when Foley's Honey and Tar costs them no more? It is a safe remedy, contains no harmful drugs, and cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. Why experiment with your health? Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 4-1

The Wisconsin girl who advertised for a husband, and incidentally that she owned a good farm, and who got a thousand answers from men anxious to marry her farm, selected one of the number and wed him. She made a poor selection, for she lived with him only thirty days, and then went back to single blessedness. Another blow to the mail order business. Mail order mates are proving unreliable right along. It is easy to send a pretty picture and write nice letters, just as it is easy to make a pretty picture in the catalogues of goods not worth two cents, and write a nice description of them. The mail order goods seldom give satisfaction.

This is the most dangerous time of the year to catch cold, and it is the hardest time to cure it. If you should take a cold, a few doses of Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup will act very promptly. Its laxative principle cures the cold by driving it from the system by a gentle but natural action of the bowels. Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes so good, nearly like maple sugar. It is sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1

Our friends Samuel A. Beachy, John W. Ringler and "Zach" Wagner have our thanks for an invitation to visit the Beachy sugar camp and indulge in a good full of that most delicious of all sweets, maple taffy. Messrs. Ringler and Wagner are operating Mr. Beachy's camp, this season, and as all three of the men from whom our invitation comes are noted for treating their guests handsomely, we'll be sure to visit the camp if we can possibly find time before the season is at an end. In this issue of THE STAR Mr. Beachy advertises the fact that he is agent for the celebrated Dr. P. Fahrney remedies, and those in need of medicine will do well to try them. The Fahrney remedies made the owner of the formulas a fortune of over $3,000,000, on their merits, yet, for reasons best known to himself, Dr. Fahrney would never allow his valuable remedies to be sold by the drug trade. The remedies can be procured only through authorized agents.

Are Eggs Legal Tender?
 The delicate question, Are eggs legal tender? was raised in the local post-office recently. A rural mail carrier found in a box on his route an unstamped letter and two eggs to pay the postage. Eggs are now worth two cents each, so there was two cents change due the writer of the letter. The matter is still under consideration.—Somerset Democrat.

Funny Boys or Funny Girls, Which?
 The Belvidere Bulletin says a young fellow of that town was seen walking along, the other night, with his arms around two girls. Funny boys, down there. Up this way the fellows wouldn't give a snap of their finger to hug more than one girl at a time.—Carleton (Neb.) Leader.

Perhaps the Belvidere girls are funnier than the Belvidere boys. Some girls can't stand a good hug, and there are several brands of girls that it would require more of than a bunch of two to make a good hug. There is just as much difference between some girls and other girls as there is between Belvidere and Belya deer.

Three Meyersdale Men Arrested for Roadwily on a Train.

For raising a disturbance on train No. 15, Walter Tressler, P. S. Gows and Stephen McClintock, all of Meyersdale, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Captain P. Moran, of the Baltimore & Ohio police force. The men were turned over to Constable I. P. Crossland, who made information against them before Justice of the Peace W. P. Clark, and had them committed to jail for court.

The men, it is said, were intoxicated, and almost created a riot on the train. It was necessary for Captain Moran to use his mace freely before the pugna-cious spirits of the trio could be subdued.—Connellsville Courier.

The Encampment.

As an advance guard of the coming encampment, Majors W. H. Corrin and J. M. Reed, of General Willis J. Huntington's staff, came to Somerset last week to "take in the lay of the land" which later in the summer will be used as the camp for the Second Brigade, Pennsylvania National Guard. Beside this brigade it is expected that a company of Uncle Sam's regulars, will go into camp here at the same time, July 27th., so that the militia may profit by the experience of the presence of the United States troops. The Brigade consists of about 5,000 enlisted men, and officers; this includes two batteries of artillery, and three troops of cavalry.

The plans now include the coming of Governor Stuart and his staff, who will remain during the encampment week and most likely establish headquarters at Highland Inn.—Somerset Democrat.

A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S STATEMENT.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble, and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days, unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently, day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased, and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 4-1

SAVE THIS, ANYWAY.

Put It in Some Safe Place, for it May Come in Handy Some Day.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe. Try it: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

A GREAT EVENT.

Getz Holds His Own in Lively Latrobe Fight.

Joe Getz, of Johnstown, easily held his own in a six-round bout with Young Ziringer, of Pittsburgh, in the Showalter Theatre at Latrobe, Monday night. The entire exhibition was marked by fast and clean work.

The bout between Getz and Young Ziringer was fast and clean. The first two rounds showed the Pittsburgh boxer at best advantage, but in the third and fourth rounds, Getz evened up by excellent work. The last two rounds were about even.

This same Joe Getz will appear in Meyersdale, in the Donges Theatre, on Saturday night, March 27th, to box six rounds with Beatty Hammond, champion lightweight boxer of Ohio, who has the reputation of being fast, and claims he will show Joe Getz a few points he has never known. Besides this main bout, which will take place at 10:15, there will be several preliminaries in point of attractiveness. Seats will be on sale a few days in advance, at Thomas' drug store. Jack Phenice, the well known boxer of Somerset county, will referee the boxing show.

David Kelso Dead.

David, the eldest son of the late Bishop Jonathan Kelso, who resided many years on the farm now occupied by John M. Wright, near Boynton, this county, died at his home in Carleton, Neb., last Friday or Saturday. Deceased was President of The State Bank of Carleton, and his wife, who survives him, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Miller, of Somerset, Pa.

David Kelso was born and reared in Elk Lick township, but moved to Nebraska with his father and brother Edward more than 20 years ago. His mother died in Elk Lick many years ago, and his father died at an advanced age about two years ago. The father was for many years Bishop of the Elk Lick congregation of the Church of the Brethren.

The subject of this sketch died very suddenly and unexpectedly. He had a slight attack of what was believed to be tonsillitis, but the malady did not seem to be in a severe form, and Mr. Kelso kept right on attending to his duties at the bank. His friends were greatly shocked, therefore, when he was found dead in bed a few mornings after his throat became sore. Whether death was due to the sore throat or some other cause, is a matter which can only be guessed at.

Mr. Kelso's many old-time friends in and about Salisbury will be very sorry to learn of his death. He is another one of the editor's old school-mates who has answered the last summons.

Do Ministers Lack Courage?

A few ministers, in different parts of the county, have mustered enough courage to ask the ladies to remove their hats in church, and this leads an exchange to remark that while this is heroic, the brave gentlemen may not know there is more behind the big hat business than the disgusted gentlemen on the back seats. It says: These dreams of the milliner's art may cover a multitude of "rats" that have not been sufficiently caged for exhibition, and to ask a woman, without previous notice, to uncover a nest that has been insecurely built, is too much like a hold-up. Why not ask the ladies merely to tilt their aeroplanes as they had to in order to pass through the church door?—Ex.
