THE CHILDREN LIKE IT KENNEDY'S LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP

NOVEL USE FOR SCISSORS.

Popular for Carving Because They Cut Meat, Gristle and Bone.

"I thought I knew all about scissors," said the man. "I had seen tailors' scissors for cutting heavy cloth, dressmakers' scissors for cutting flimsy fabrics and lace, and still other scissors for cutting paper, fingernails, grapevines, all kinds of metals and even for shearing sheep; but in spite of that wide knowledge of scissors I was puzzled when I saw the large, peculiarly shaped pair of scissors lying in the showcase.

"What are these scissors for?" I asked the clerk.

"Carving meat," he said. "With scissors of this kind carving becomes mere child's play."

"I never saw anybody use them," said I.

"Nobody does," said the clerk. "That is, only a very few. In Europe carving scissors are popular because they cut right through meat, gristle, bone and all, but it takes a little practice to learn to manipulate the things and nobody in this country has patience enough for that."

A Large Order.

The painter of portraits shook his head, but his visitor's jaw was firmly set. "Why can't you paint my father's portrait?" he persisted. "Because I have nothing to go by," said the painter. "You say you have no photograph or even tintype of the old gentleman."

"How about that picture of the prophet Elijah?" asked the visitor. "You say you painted that."

"Yes, but that is purely imaginary," exclaimed the artist, patiently.

"Well, see here," said the man. "the prophet Elijah's been dead hundreds of years, and father's only been dead thirty. Now if you can imagine Elijah so well, why not try your hand on more modern folks? Father was six foot tall, and had a prominent forehead, a big nose, and a kind of a smiling mouth. Now if you can paint something that looks like him, I'm willing to pay well for it."

The Curse of Wealth.

Lucas Cleve, the novelist, told this story:

An old nurse had a very pretty daughter. The girl met a millionaire broker at Broadstairs one week end. The man proposed and they were married. An excellent match.

Lucas Cleve saw the mother a short time after the wedding.

"Molly has a new well hasn't she?" she said.

"She has that ma'am" said the old woman.

"Her husband is very rich isn't he?" "Rich! Save us yes. Ye should see ma'am, Moll's brougham, her coachman and footman, her motor car, and her diamonds and pearls. Oh, she lives high. Quite like the nobility and gentry, ma'am. Why, she strips for dinner."

An Illinois Optimist.

Don't kick because you have to button your wife's waist. Be glad your wife has a waist and doubly glad you have a wife to button a waist for.

Some men's wives have no waists to button. Some men's wives waists have no button on to button. Some men's wives who have waists with buttons on to button don't care a continental whether they are buttoned or not. Some men don't have any waives with waists with buttons on to button any more than a rabbit.—Lacon Journal.

British Soldiers' New Outfit

An Aldershot correspondent writes: An important change is now being made in the infantryman's equipment. The old outfit is being superseded by the new "web equipment," which is sure to be heartily welcomed by the men. A great improvement has been effected in the distribution of weight. In marching order neither the hand-roller nor the haversack strap is worn, so the chest is left quite free and breathing is made easier. When in fighting kit nothing that is not essential to action will be carried, but the hand-roller will have to be added.

Cement-Protected Iron.

The use of cement to protect iron is not a new invention. At Brest the demolition of subaqueous constructions has brought to light iron bars which were thus covered, and which have remained in perfect condition for 100 years. At Rochelle a bridge erected in the 15th century was found to contain cement-protected iron, and the metal had not suffered from the effects of moisture.

Indian Philosophy.

Quannah Parker, a Comanche chief, recently visited an ice plant in an Oklahoma town. He was much interested in everything pertaining to the plant. After he had been shown throughout the building, he remarked: "White man smart. White man heap smart. White man smarter than God. God make ice in winter; white man make ice in summer."

"Aint He Cute?"

Recently a little Hoosier boy was taken to visit his aunt in the city, and, on seeing the parquet floors for the first time, was heard to exclaim, "Oh, mamma, look at auntie's patent-leather carpets!"

Etiquette a la Mode.

Augustus—Hullo, old man; how are you, and how are your people, and all that sort of silly rot?—London Globe.

SO MISCHIEVOUS.

Willie, with a keg of nails. Threw the engine off the rails. The train went crash! The steam went fzz!

Willie's grandpa said, "Gee-whiz!"

HAD NO CHANCE.

First Tramp—What did young Sleeper die of?
Second Tramp—Starvation. He read in a doctor's book that he mustn't eat when you tired.

EQUIVOCAL.

Friend—Did he like your work.
Artist—I don't know. He said I ought to send it to the comic papers.

IN EVERY SENSE.

De Hitt—This suits wears like iron.
De Witt—That accounts for its looking rusty.

CORRECTLY SIZED UP.

First Salesman (in hotel lobby)—Jones of Winterset Avenue is simply beneath contempt.
Second Salesman—That's so; I was unable to sell him anything either.
