DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the best known pills, and the best pills made, are easy to take and act gently and are certain. We sell and recommend them. E. H. Miller. 5-1

March came in like a lamb, this year, and it also went out like a lamb. The fleece for it was furnished in liberal quantities on Tuesday, but it wasn't very warm fleece.

John Vought, a well-known farmer residing about a mile and a half south of Salisbury, has purchased a farm in Virginia, and is this week making preparations to move thereon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Haselbarth and Miss Lottie Boyer went to Friedens, last Saturday, where they made a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Miller, the parents of Mrs. Haselbarth.

It has been announced that John B. Schardt, proprietor of the American House, proposes to erect a new and modern hotel building upon the site of the present one on Centre street, Meyersdale.

Wm. H. Powell, the well-known auctioneer who resided at Boynton, a few years ago, but who later moved to Boswell, Pa., and from thence to Idaho, is now in Montana, and orders THE STAR sent to his new address.

The last and one of the best numbers of the Meyersdale Lecture Course, April 6th. The Orphean Musical Club, consisting of vocal quartets, horn quartets, illustrated songs and impersonations. Admission, 25, 35 and 50c. It Morgan Williams and Austin Brown, both residents of Johnstown and owners of property in Salisbury, were here last week attending to business. Both are getting along nicely in Johnstown, but old Salisbury still looks good to them.

E. E. Bach, former editor of the Rockwood Leader, but who is now editor of the Latrobe Daily Herald, is confined in a Greensburg hospital, suffering from an attack of appendicitis. At this time his condition is much improved.

If you have backache and urinary troubles you should take Foley's Kidney Remedy to strengthen and build up the kidneys so they will act properly, as a serious kidney trouble may develop. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

The W. H. Hill residence property, in Meyersdale, has been sold to the Brethren church congregation of that place, who will pull down the residence and erect on the lot a new church edifice and parsonage at a cost of at least $15,000.

As a certain minister sat down to a dinner, he looked at the fried poultry and helped himself, saying, "here's where that chicken enters the ministry." "Hope it will do better than while in the 'lay' work," said the lady of the house. Then they all cackled.—Ex.

Mr. Frederick Wagner, the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas A. Wagner, was quietly married in Meyersdale, a couple of days ago, to Miss Sarah Beynon. They will reside in Salisbury, and THE STAR joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes to them.

Foley's Honey and Tar is a safeguard against serious results from spring colds, which inflame the lungs and develop into pneumonia. Avoid counterfeits by insisting upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, which contains no harmful drugs. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 5-1

J. H. P. Long, one of Salisbury's best citizens, moved his family and household effects to Coal Run, last week. We understand he is sorry that he made the move, and we are sorry that Salisbury has lost him as a citizen. James Long is a very fine man, and we hope to see him return to Salisbury again.

Harry Anderson and wife have moved into a portion of the C. B. Dickey residence, on Mr. Dickey's farm adjoining town. Harry will assist Mr. Dickey on the farm when not otherwise employed. That ought to mean steady employment to him, and that's what good citizens like Harry generally aim for.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough, but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

W. T. Hoffman, who was deputy county treasurer during the incumbency of his father, Ex-County Treasurer Peter Hoffman, made his first visit to Salisbury one evening last week. We trust he will come again, for he is one of the best fellows we know of, and Salisbury always welcomes good fellows.

Last Saturday the editor and two of his sons, William and Theodore, were treated to a fine mess of maple taffy at the S. A. Beachy camp, which is being operated this year by John W. Ringler and "Zach" Wagner. Our thanks are due to both the operators of the camp and the owner, for all had invited us, and they certainly treated us fine.

Last Friday night about 28 young people gathered at the home of Chas. Crossen and family and spent the evening in general merry-making. It was a social party in honor of the Misses Zelma and Blanche Crossen, who departed for Ohio, yesterday, with their parents, who have decided to make their residence there for a year at least.

Yesterday Elijah Livengood, the maple sugar king, was a business caller at THE STAR office. When asked how much sugar his two camps produced this year, we were informed that the crop would total up to about 30,000 pounds. That's not so bad when we stop to consider that Elijah opened his camps rather late. Besides, he isn't done yet.

Mrs. Forsythe, a sister of Wm. Frye, died at the home of her brother, on Ord street, at an early hour last Friday morning. Deceased was aged 23 years, and is survived by two little children. The children have been adopted by Edward Engle and John Burkhard. The funeral of the mother took place Saturday afternoon. Death was caused by tuberculosis.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs, and is in a yellow package. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Samuel A. Philson, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Berlin, died at his residence in that town, last Saturday evening, aged 78 years. Mr. Philson was a director of the Berlin branch of the B. & O. railroad, and at one time was a leading Berlin merchant. He is survived by two sons, John A. Philson, a traveling salesman, and W. F. Philson, a Berlin merchant.

James Gaghagen, of Somerset, arrived in town yesterday evening to look after his property interests here. He has rented a farm near Somerset, and will do some farming during the coming summer, but will also continue to supply the people of Somerset with coal. May more and more prosperity be his, for he is a good fellow and has the regular Andrew Jackson quality of backbone.

Yesterday Chas. Crossen and family left for Talmage, Ohio, a town near Akron. They will locate on a farm near Talmage, where Mr. Crossen will follow tilling the soil. We wish the family much success in their new location, but regret that they are no longer residents of Elk Lick. Mr. Crossen has not sold his Elk Lick home, however, and some time we hope to see the family return.

C. W. Shanaberger, erecting electrical engineer for the Pennsylvania & Maryland Street Railway Company, recently returned from Mt. Vernon, N. Y., where he went to purchase several cars for the P. & M. Mr. Shanaberger succeeded in securing two of the latest style cars, and one of them is now at Boynton. As the P. & M. is to be extended northward, the coming summer, more cars will be needed.

We have on file, for publication, a very interesting article from the able pen of Dr. T. F. Livengood, of Elizabeth, N. J., concerning the two grand old educators, Prof. Jost J. and Joseph J. Stutzman, two men to whom Somerset county owes a large debt of gratitude. The article will appear just as soon as we have the available space required for its publication. Our readers will find it intensely interesting.

During the spring every one would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Last Saturday the following named persons, all applicants for the position of rural delivery mail carrier on R. F. D. No. 1, to be established at Elk Lick on May 1st, went to Somerset to take the required Civil Service examination: A. L. Lowry, Robt. H. Johnston, Stanley Boucher, Fred Harris, S. O. Wiley, Burtin Blough, Alfred Ringler, Wm. E. Haning, Stanley Livengood, Elmer E. Folk and Wm. Short. No appointment has yet been made.

A very enthusiastic Methodist revival recently came to a close at Jennings, Md. It was conducted by Rev. D. A. Friend, of Grantsville, who announces that 67 converts were made. Others should come running and repent also, for after a while the gang plank of the Gospel ship will be pulled in, and then only the fire works will be open. A new M. E. church is to be erected at Jennings, and over $700 has been subscribed towards paying for the same.

You should not delay under any circumstances in case of Kidney and Bladder trouble. You should take something promptly that you know is reliable, something like DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are unequalled for weak back, backache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, etc. When you ask for DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, be sure you get them. They are antiseptic. Accept no substitutes; insist upon getting the right kind. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

The mutual fire insurance company in process of formation at this place is making rapid progress. L. A. Maust, soliciting for the company, reports insurance written up to the amount of $125,000, with the promise of $25,000 more in a few days. The remaining $50,000 necessary before a charter can be secured, will be had, it is expected, in a few weeks. Efforts are being put forth to have everything ready for business by May 1, as will likely be the case. There is certainly nothing slow about this company. While they will seek business wherever possible, their aim will be to thoroughly work the Southern part of the county, particularly Garrett, Meyersdale, Salisbury and the surrounding localities.—Garrett Correspondent in Berlin Gleaner.
