COTE'S PIANOS

In buying almost any article, it pays to get the best. This is even more essential in buying a Piano as the reputation of a Piano is worth consideration. The BEST will always be a source of inexpensive pleasure, where the poor instrument by continually getting out of tune and order, will be an intolerable nuisance. Be wise and buy an artistic Piano to which class the COTE belongs. It has many superior features—quality of tone, delicacy of touch, greatest durability and excellence of design. A scientific evenness and perfection of scale which sustains an even singing and carrying quality throughout the whole instrument. Every instrument fully guaranteed.

Eat What You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak. You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly. But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach. The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Our Guarantee
Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay. We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you. It would bankrupt us. The dollar bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

THE HOME MODEL WASHER

contains new features worthy of your consideration. The tub is made of cypress wood. The inside is corrugated like a washboard. The lid fits tight and prevents the escape of steam and heat. The agitator or rub board is different from all others and a big improvement. You should know all about it. The lever, shaft and agitator are all connected together in a way so there is no lost motion. It cannot tear the clothes, and is rust-proof. By means of a thumb nut the lever can be set for long or short leverage and to turn the handle downward so the operator can be seated. Send for circular which shows and explains all the features. Guaranteed. Manufactured by

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. To subscribe for THE STAR means to have a good local and general newspaper visit your home once a week. It means a paper in your family circle that keeps its advertising columns clean, and its editorial columns always on the side of right. THE STAR does not carry beer and whisky advertisements or anything else to corrupt the morals of the boys and girls. If you like to read THE STAR, subscribe for it, and don't borrow it from some one else. "Loan of loses both itself and friend," and "who goes borrowing goes sorrowing."

W. C. Wiseman, one of the foremost farmers of the Negro Mountain district, came to town yesterday to market a big wagonload of sugar. Mr. Wiseman has one of the best sugar camps in Elk Lick township, and he knows how to run it, too. He sets 2,000 vessels, and his trees are said to be of the most thrifty in the township. Before departing for home, Mr. Wiseman called at THE STAR office and left $2.00 to apply on his subscription to the paper, and in doing so, said: "Of all the papers I read, THE STAR interests me the most. I would hate to do without it." Many other good people say the same thing.

We call the attention of our readers to the large advertisement of Miller & Maust, which appears on page eight. They conduct a very well stocked cash store in Grantsville, Md., and they surely quote some very attractive prices. Miller & Maust are enterprising and upright young men, and they are not afraid to let the public know what they have to sell and to quote prices. They don't need to be afraid, either, for goods cannot be bought cheaper anywhere in a hundred miles around than at the prices they quote. Grantsville is entitled to congratulations on having such an up-to-date firm, and THE STAR is pleased to carry Miller & Maust's price list into the many good homes it visits regularly in the locality where they do business, as well as into the homes it visits on special occasions. "Printers' ink makes millions think."

The Ladies' World for April again strikes a high note, and presents a table of contents that is remarkable for its quality. The number opens with a delightfully humorous love story by Elliott Flower, and the effect is increased by charming illustrations. Then follows fiction by Bessie R. Hoover, Annie Hamilton Donnell, Leona Anstine Sutter, Grace MacGowan Cooke and Albert Bigelow Paine. An article, With the President in the South, is short, but from it the reader gets a really intimate view of our popular executive. The departments seem to cover everything of interest to women in a most practical way—in fact, what particularly strikes the reviewer about this publication is the total absence of what we may call space filling. The contributions are bright, sensible and to the point. A charming Easter Song adds to the attractiveness of the number.—[New York; Fifty Cents a Year.]

John Krausse, Salisbury's expert baseball pitcher, returned home on Monday from the Williamson School of Mechanical Trades, near Philadelphia, from which institution he recently graduated. He is now a full-fledged brick-layer, and we feel sure that he will make good wherever he goes. There are only two things that can keep a young man of John Krausse's agility and natural ability from developing into an honored and successful mechanic and business man, and those two things are bad company and bad habits. We have confidence in John Krausse sufficient to believe that he will keep in clean and honorable paths. While many other boys in this town were wasting their time in idleness and pernicious habits, John was studying, learning and laying the necessary foundation on which to build a superb manhood and an enviable business career. He will soon depart from the parental roof to fight the world's battles on his own account, and no one wishes him more success than THE STAR. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Krausse, have every reason to feel proud of John, for one young man of his get-up is worth more than a million of the loafing lobsbers that are good only to depend on their old parents for three square meals a day and a bed on which to repose their mushy, lobster carcasses at night.
