Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trified with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

GUARD YOUR KIDNEYS

Does your back ache? Is your skin leathery and yellow. Is your urine murky? These symptoms are sure signs of the dreaded kidney trouble. Nine out of ten persons have kidney trouble. They don't always have it bad. That's why they neglect it. The kidneys have few nerves. They are ailing a long time before the terrible pain begins. In fact, kidney trouble may be well advanced before you feel it. That is why it is so necessary to notice the slightest irregularity. If anything is wrong with your kidneys it should be attended to at once. Don't take strong, drastic drugs. They are dangerous.

You will be perfectly safe and sure of a permanent cure by taking

DR. THACHER'S LIVER & BLOOD SYRUP

MOVING PICTURES.

BY THE BARD OF KIMBERLY RUN.

I, A SCENE BY DAY.

The Trolley line is on its way,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Two rails have been laid down today,
And everybody's glad;
These rails were laid on Sanner street,
Where franchise granted right complete,
And thus it did the Railroad beat,
But the B. & O. got mad.

These rails were laid by light of day,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
On ties sunk deeply down to stay (?)
To await the Trolley Car
That is coming up from Rockwood Town.

Soon cars will travel up and down—
A great convenience all will own—
But night does follow day.

The work completed, toilers gone,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Fatigued and muddy every one,
They bend their way of home.
Now night comes down upon the scene,
And where daylight had lately been,
Red torches cast their flickering gleam
On Street Car tracks laid down.

II, A SCENE BY NIGHT.

As Assyrian down upon the fold,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Brief consultation now they hold,
Then mud begins to fly.

As buzzards drop upon their prey,
They dig and shovel mud away
From Street Car ties that firmly lay.
They grunt, they dig and pry.

The breeze is fragrant (?) far and near,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Seems scented with both booze and beer—
On wings of night it came. (?)

Just whence or how, no one can swear,
It seemed to come from every where;
It came to lend its strength to tear—
A right of way to claim.

The toilers cease not in their work,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
But track won't yield to sudden jerk,
'Twas sunk too deeply down.
With might and main the work goes on
'Neath glimmering lights that shine upon

The dusky forms that fear the sun
Might find them in the town.

At last the only street car-length,
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Must yield to Herculean strength.
And now a mangled mass,

Near where the B. & O. is trying
To hold a right while time is flying.
On a single act it is relying,
'Tis simply this: Trespass.

And now the "General" fain would know
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
Why Trolley track was laid below—
In vain is the endeavor

To hold the B. & O. at bay—
Deny it of its lawful way
That 'twill likely hold till the Judgment Day,
Which may come at the end of never.

But hurrah for West Street Boulevard!
Hi! Ho! Hi! Ho!
A well laid plan will meet reward;
So, "General," "bide a wee."

On Trolley Car you'll float
Past Edgewood Park, oh, haste the day!
But just how soon we cannot say,
But this you'll surely see.

Endorses ABOUT ALL THE Star Man Writes.

In a letter written a few days ago to our brother, W. S. Livengood, our friend Franklin P. Beachy, of Carleton, Neb., sends the following kind message for the editor of this paper:

"Remember me to your brother P. L., and tell him I endorse about all he writes in his paper, morally, politically, and especially his stand on the Liquor question. The thing is going to win in the end, and is becoming more popular every day."

We thank our friend Beachy very much for his message of good cheer and endorsement. When such "bouquets" are thrown at us by men of his excellent standing and judgement, we feel justly proud. During our five-years' residence in Carleton, Neb., F. P. Beachy was one of our staunch and true friends, as were nearly all the other prominent and respectable people of that town and vicinity.

We often think of the many good people of Carleton, Neb., by whose co-operation we took hold of a struggling newspaper in that town, without any experience whatever of an editorial nature, and placed it on a paying basis. We had much opposition at times, but we overcame it all, through and by the good will and co-operation of the best people in the community. When we left there in October, 1891, the appreciation of that community of our labors in its behalf was amply attested by the large number of good people that congregated at the depot to bid us adieu, express regrets at our departure and wish us happiness and prosperity in our profession in the East.

We have never forgotten those expressions of good will, and though nearly 18 years have run their course since then, the same kindly sentiments concerning us and our labors are sent to us every once in a while by mail and otherwise, for which we feel deeply grateful to our many good Western friends.
