

IN DE SWEET, SWEET COUNTRY.

In de sweet, sweet country
What de Kingdom chillun stay, I one time see de angels A-makin' holiday;

She Just Wanted to Be Sure.

Tasker, most patient of men, gritted his teeth hard to hold back the retort that hovered on his tongue.

with sparkling eyes. "No woman wants to marry a man with no spirit," she added, in explanation, "and I was beginning to be afraid that that was your case."

Reflections of Uncle Ezra

I have seen a lot of French horns on automobiles, but, by gravy! I have seen a blame sight more greenhorns on 'em.

WISE WORD.

The only way to get all the happiness in life is to give for the happiness of all.

Reflections of Uncle Ezra

By ROY K. MOULTON.
I have seen a lot of French horns
on automobiles, but, by gravy! I have seen a blame sight more greenhorns
on 'em.

Reflections of Uncle Ezra

A fellow who puts a matrimonial ad. in the paper is running a long ways down the road to meet trouble.

Reflections of Uncle Ezra

Some men are born poor and others acquire automobiles.
A fellow who thinks he has got to tell you the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth about your-

TIMELY RECIPES
GERANIUM CAKE.
Cream one-half cupful of butter with one cupful of granulated sugar,

BRAN BREAD.

One cake of yeast, two cups of bran, two tablespoons of salt, two tablespoons of molasses, half cup of sugar, one cup of cornmeal, four medium sized potatoes.

INDIVIDUAL CHARLOTTE RUSSE.

Half a cup butter, one cup sugar, four eggs, one and one-eighth cups pastry flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one teaspoon of vanilla.

PENNSYLVANIA

Interesting Items from All Sections of the Keystone State.

COUNTY EMPLOYEES HELD

Matron of County Home Accused of Embezzlement and Steward of Assault.

Franklin.—Mrs. Lillian Sutton, who was recently removed as matron of the county farm, had a hearing on a charge of embezzling property of the county.

HUSTON TRIAL LATER

Capitol Architect Secures Postponement in His Case.

Harrisburg.—The trial of Joseph M.
Huston, architect of the State Capitol, upon the charge of conspiracy to defraud the State, was postponed without a date being fixed when called in the Dauphin county court because of a plea that the defense would be prejudiced by a severance recently granted to John H. Sanderson, the contractor; William P. Snyder, ex-Editor General, and James M. Shumaker, former superintendent of grounds.

Successful Candidates for Mine Jobs.

Washington.—The result of the examination for mine foremen and fire bosses, held at Monongahela last week, have just been announced. Of the 35 men who took the examination for mine foremen, A. M. Harper, Bellevue; John Carroll, Monongahela; Lewis Anderson, VanVorhis, and Dennis Kerwin, Elizabeth, were successful. Sixty-one took the examination for fire boss and 16 passed successfully. These 16 will be given an additional oral test next Monday at the Naomi mine.

Will Be Tried in Sharon First.

Sharon.—District Attorney J. Mede Linniger of Mercer county, said there is positively no chance of James H.
Boyle and his wife, now in the county jail, being taken to Cleveland until they have first answered to a charge of kidnapping "Billy" Whitla before the court of this county. District Attorney Linniger has received a letter from County Prosecutor Cline of Cuyahoga county, O., asking that the authorities of that county be allowed to have the Boyles to answer a charge of blackmail.

Miners' Home Burned.

Wilkes-Barre.—Eight houses were completely destroyed and 12 families were rendered homeless at Bresslau, a mining town adjoining this city.
One of a number of men who had been occupying a room in a boarding house threw a lighted cigarette on a bed which caught fire. With heavy wind blowing and no fire department near at hand, nothing could be saved.
The loss will reach $15,000.

Mrs. Patterson Dead at 102.

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Esther Hoge Patterson, who was 102 years old, died here. She was a member of the most exclusive society circles here. Until about two months ago she retained all her faculties, but recently has been confined to her bed. Her father was a Presbyterian clergyman, who came to this country from Tyrone, Ireland, in 1798, and married Elizabeth Clay Holmes of Carlisle, Pa.

Will Manufacture Perfumes.

Articles of incorporation were filed in Dover, Del., for the Nonpareil Manufacturing Company of Pittsburg, Pa., to manufacture, sell and deal in perfumes, chemicals, etc. Incorporators are L. Duncan, F. S. Aisfelder, S. W.
Cooney, all of Pittsburg, and Charles W. Bush of Wilmington, Del. Capital stock $50,000.

Negroes Rob Contractor.

Washington.—While driving from Houston to McDonald late at night George Lewis, a contractor, was held up and robbed by two negroes. Lewis put up a fight, but when revolvers were leveled at him he gave up a small amount of money, his knife and a watch.

Scarlet Fever Is Epidemic.

Johnstown.—Owing to an outbreak of scarlet fever, all public places in South Fork, near here, have been ordered closed. The order affects schools, churches, dance halls and theaters.

Oil City, Pa.—Mrs. Anna Hardinger, aged 59 years, committed suicide at the home of a daughter, at Torpedo, Crawford county, by hanging herself.

No cause for the act is known.

Sonnambulist Falls to Death.

Butler.—George J. Smith, aged 60, while walking in his sleep at the Good Will Hose Company's room, where he was employed as one of the night men, fell through the pole hole and sustained injuries from which he died an hour later.

Newspaper Changes Hands.

Meadville.—The Tribune Publishing Company purchased the plant and business of the Star Publishing Company, including the "Crawford Journal," of which Postmaster E. A. Hempstead was the principal owner.

KILLED BY FALLING WALL

Wind Blows Down Wall of Burned Opera House.

Greensburg.—Weakened by a heavy wind, the north wall of the Jeanette Opera House, gutted by fire several months ago, collapsed at night, demolishing the home of Dr. Allen A.
Custard, adjoining. One girl was killed and another was probably fatally injured.

DRIVES CHILDREN AWAY

Seek Asylum in County Home and Are Taken Care Of.

Washington.—"Please mister, won't you let us live here?" asked the oldest of five children who appeared at the Washington County Children's home.

ANOTHER COAL LAND DEAL

Josiah V. Thompson Buys Coal Tract for $1,087,000.

Washington.—Another mammoth coal deal has just been closed in Greene county by Josiah V. Thompson of Uniontown, who has bought 6,010 acres of land in one solid tract a few miles north of Waynesburg. The tract, known as Adams block, was owned by J. B. Adams and 125 others.

LEGISLATIVE APPROPRIATIONS

Chairman Woodward's Estimate for Lower House at Harrisburg.

Harrisburg.—The following statement of the appropriations of the legislature this session was made by Chairman James F. Woodward of the house committee on appropriations.
General appropriation bill, $27,697, 552.98.
For roads, $5,000,000.00.
Indigent insane, for maintenance, $3,000,000.00.
Indigent insane, for buildings and improvements, $2,037,401.97.
Prisons and reformatories, $1,288, 405.68.
State institutions under construction, $1,771,000.
Colleges and universities, $1,702, 500.
Armories, $400,000.
Primary elections, $1,000,000.
National guard, $1,785,000.
Capitol park extension, $2,030,000.
Homes, hospitals and miscellaneous, $8,000,000.
Grand total, $59,701,860.63.

Right to Punish Upheld.

New Castle.—Miss Bessie Holiday, a teacher in the Plaingrove township schools, was acquitted on a charge of assault and battery entered by John Sankey before Justice of the Peace J. B. Rodgers. Sankey alleged his son, John Sankey, Jr., had been punished so severely his face was cut.
The teacher said the boy resisted and his face was cut in the resulting scuffle.

Child Bleeds to Death.

Altoona.—While playing near his home in Tyrone, Gerald, the one-year-old son of Edward Lower fell and cut his mouth on a tin toy. He bled profusely, no clot formed and death resulted from loss of blood. Two other children in the family died from similar causes. The child is the seventh in the family connection who has died from loss of blood caused by a minor injury.

Divorce Court Makes Record.

Washington.—All divorce records in Washington county were broken when Judge J. F. Taylor handed down decrees separating 39 mismatched couples. All the cases were submitted to the court last week upon testimony taken before commissioners.

Coal Lands Are Sold.

Johnstown.—J. Earl Ogle of this city a trustee in bankruptcy proceedings, has sold the properties of the Seward Brock Company and the Seward Coal Company, located at Seward, to Blair Kennery of Philadelphia, for $75,000.
Mr. Kennery will resume operations at the mine next Monday, giving employment to about 200 men.

New Castle.—The Rev. T. W. Pearson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, tendered his resignation to take effect April 30. His health caused him to take the step.

BOSTON WOMEN WELL FED.

Variety in Little Restaurants at the Hub Not Matched in New York City.

Boston seems to appreciate the needs of a woman's stomach better than other cities. There a woman may eat better for less money than in any other big city in the country, and she doesn't have to go to a foreign restaurant to do it.

HINTS FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER

Apple sauce may be served with pork or duck.
Cracked ice may be used artificeally instead of merely as a chiller.