DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the best known pills, and the best pills made, are easy to take and act gently and are certain. We sell and recommend them. E. H. Miller. 5-1

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beal and their little daughter, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived here last Sunday for a visit with Mr. B.'s parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beal, and other friends.

If you have backache and urinary troubles you should take Foley's Kidney Remedy to strengthen and build up the kidneys so they will act properly, as a serious kidney trouble may develop. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Communion services will be held at the Lutheran church, next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, instead of 10:30, as previously announced. Rev. D. S. Kurtz, of Rockwood, Pa., will preach in the Lutheran church on Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Foley's Honey and Tar is a safeguard against serious results from spring colds, which inflame the lungs and develop into pneumonia. Avoid counterfeits by insisting upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, which contains no harmful drugs. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 5-1

J. P. Swindell, who some time ago moved from Meyersdale to Windber, where he served on the police force for a while, recently moved to Midland, Mich., where he intends to make his home. Mr. Swindell was Constable of Meyersdale borough for a number of years, and last spring he was a Republican candidate for nomination for the office of Sheriff.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough, but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Bishop Moore, of the M. E. church, has denounced "peach basket" hats as "Korean flap doodles." He said it was an outrage for women to wear them in church, and that they ought to take them off. He also said he feels like throwing a hymn book at such hats when he sees them obstructing some one's view in church, and that women who wore them in church were not real Christians.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs, and is in a yellow package. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Ernest Livengood went west on Monday, and he will spend about a month looking after his financial interests in Kansas and Oklahoma. Ernest and his friend Geo. W. Livengood recently sold an Oklahoma farm which they had purchased at a cost of about $1,200 or $1,500, but when rose in value to $10,500, the price they sold it for. That was surely a profitable investment, and we congratulate them on their good fortune.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles, by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints, causing rheumatism. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Here is a minister who appreciates the editor: At a recent editorial convention he offered the following toast: To save an editor from starvation, take his paper and pay for it promptly. To save him from bankruptcy, advertise in his paper. To save him from profanity, write plainly on one side of sheet and send in as early as possible. To save him from mistakes, bury him. Dead printers are the only ones who never make mistakes.

During the spring every one would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Robt. H. Johnston, who had been appointed as rural mail carrier on Route No. 1, to be established at Elk Lick postoffice, May 1st, resigned the appointment, and Wm. E. Haning has been appointed in his place. Mr. Johnston would have made an excellent carrier, as he is an intelligent, painstaking, courteous gentleman, and the same can be said of Mr. Haning. No better man could have been selected than either of them.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Rev. George Lobingier, formerly of Bedford county, Pa., died at Lincoln, Neb., on the 12th inst. He was aged nearly 78 years. Deceased went to Nebraska in 1878, and served several terms as County Judge of Thayer county. He is survived by his wife, who is a sister of the late Mrs. Henry F. Schell, of Somerset, and is also survived by one daughter and two sons, one of them United States Judge at Manila, P. I. The editor of THE STAR was well acquainted with the Rev. George Lobingier when the latter served as County Judge of Thayer county, Neb., in 1887, and esteemed him very highly.

You should not delay under any circumstances in case of Kidney and Bladder trouble. You should take something promptly that you know is reliable, something like DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are unequalled for weak back, backache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, etc. When you ask for DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, be sure you get them. They are antiseptic. Accept no substitutes; insist upon getting the right kind. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Married, Tuesday evening, April 20th, at the Reformed parsonage in Meyersdale, Pa., by the Rev. Dr. Truxal, Mr. Homer O. Anderson, of Salisbury, Pa., and Miss Ida Weible, of Holsopple, Pa. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther B. Anderson, of this place, and he is a young man of estimable qualities. He is engaged in the baking business at Holsopple. The bride is unknown to us, but is reported to be a very estimable young woman. The marriage was celebrated at the groom's home, on Ord street, soon after the nuptial knot was tied, and a number of the friends and relatives participated in the happy event. A sumptuous supper was served, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. THE STAR joins the numerous friends of the newly married couple in extending best wishes and congratulations.

Jacob Brown, Esq., the oldest lawyer of the Allegany County Bar Association, was recently highly honored by his fellow barristers, at Cumberland, Md., who celebrated the 85th anniversary of Mr. Brown's birth by calling a special meeting at which the venerable mentor of the aforesaid association was present. Appropriate speeches were made, and Mr. Brown was presented a purse containing a fine assortment of gold coins. The aged lawyer responded in a speech that expressed joy and gratitude mingled with pathos. He was admitted to the bar in 1849, and is still an active practitioner. Of the 23 lawyers that composed the Allegany County Bar Association when Mr. Brown was admitted to it, he is the only one now living. Jacob Brown is a man of fine ability, strict integrity, and a generous, whole-souled, kind-hearted disposition. He is a native of Garrett county, Md., and is probably better posted on the early history of Garrett county than any other man now living. Some years ago he published a book called "Brown's Miscellaneous Writings," which contains much interesting matter, principally of a historical nature, and the work is highly prized by all native sons of old Garrett county. The venerable lawyer is a brother of the late Hansen Brown, a well known resident of Garrett county who died nearly 30 years ago. May the remaining days of the venerable Cumberland lawyer be serene and happy ones.

CURES INDIGESTION.

All Distress from Stomach and Indigestion Vanishes in Five Minutes.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your stomach misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop that fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

All who intend to vote the Prohibition ticket next fall are earnestly requested to attend the convention, and everybody is invited to attend the mass meeting in the evening.

The Latest Ideas For Shirt-Waists.

With the shirt-waists for summer both standing and Dutch collars will be very much worn, and although the latter are certainly the cooler, they are not always becoming. Wear the style that suits you best.

Embroidery of every sort is more popular than ever before. The Wallachian embroidery still retains great favor with the woman whose time is limited. The centers of the flowers and the dots may be worked solid or in color, or in the regular Wallachian stitch. The embroidery is effective, developed in white or color, as best suited to the costume.

Cotton crepe and checked dimities are among the new foundations for embroidered waists this year. It is particularly necessary that all work on crepe should be padded, as the material stretches when working. French knots make the centers of the daises.

The scallops on the Dutch collars are padded and buttonholed. The design may then be worked either solid or in eyelet.

The jabots are the new plaited ones, and may be worn either with or without the collars designed for them.—The New Idea Woman's Magazine for May.

Words of Wisdom.

Love is sweet. In fact a good bit of it is taffy.
 Some men outlive their usefulness, and others never have any.
 Some things go without saying, but a woman isn't one of them.
 A man must marry before he can fully realize how many faults he has.
 Tell a woman you can read her like a book, and she immediately gets red.
 A little push will generally outlast a strong pull.
 Marriage is a contract, but there are lots of contract jumpers.
 The trouble with the upstart is that he never feels downcast.—Ex.
