DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the best known pills, and the best pills made, are easy to take and act gently and are certain. We sell and recommend them. E. H. Miller. 5-1

Geo. Huston, late a clerk in the Elk Lick Supply Company's store, but now a hustling Bedford county farmer and dairyman, was looking up fresh cows in this vicinity, Monday.

Wm. H. Engle, the genial clerk in the Hazelbarth hardware establishment, is now wearing the smile that won't come off. It's another boy, and he was born on Monday.

Baker Johnson, the faithful and accommodating Grantsville mail carrier, will retire from the mail service on June 30th, when his contract expires. The new contractor is George Younklin.

L. Morrell, a well-known citizen of Meyersdale, died at his home in that town, last Sunday. He was aged 70 years or more, and for many years conducted a furniture store and planing mill in Meyersdale.

Miss Lou Kurtz, of Grantsville, Md., was a welcome caller at THE STAR office, Tuesday. She renewed her subscription to the Twinkler for another year, and expressed herself greatly pleased with the paper.

Don't forget Dr. Ellis' lecture in the opera house, Friday night. We heard a commercial salesman who knows Dr. Ellis, remark in Miller's drug store, yesterday, that he is decidedly the finest speaker he ever heard.

If you have backache and urinary troubles you should take Foley's Kidney Remedy to strengthen and build up the kidneys so they will act properly, as a serious kidney trouble may develop. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

One more engine was recently added to the rolling stock of the Jennings railroad. It is a much larger one than the other two in use on that road, and it is beginning to look as though business is going to boom on the Jennings line in the near future.

Ex-District Attorney R. E. Meyers, Architect W. H. Stoddard, and H. J. Carbis, all of Somerset, were three jolly visitors in Salisbury, one day last week. They had a jolly time here with their popular friend Chas. H. Lantz, the well-known piano tuner.

Mrs. Mary Shannon, reputed to be the largest woman in Somerset county, died at her home in Conduene, last Sunday, aged 49 years. She was the wife of Alexander Thomas, a B. & O. freight conductor. Mrs. Thomas weighed 314 pounds.

The Salisbury High School Literary Society rendered a special program in the school building, last Friday afternoon. Some of the members of the Salisbury High School Alumni and a number of the patrons of our schools were present, and all report the program a rare treat.

Mrs. C. T. Hay injured herself quite badly one day last week by falling down the cellar steps in her store building. She was unable to walk immediately after the accident happened, and had to be carried out, placed in a buggy and hauled home. We have learned nothing of her condition since, but trust that she has fully recovered here this.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough, but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Foley's Honey and Tar is a safeguard against serious results from spring colds, which inflame the lungs and develop into pneumonia. Avoid counterfeits by insisting upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, which contains no harmful drugs. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Prop. 5-1

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Livengood, of Berkeley, Cal., who had been visiting friends and relatives in Salisbury during the past two weeks, took their departure last Thursday. From here they went to Uniontown and Pittsburg to visit friends. It may be that Mr. Livengood will fill an engagement with one of the Pittsburg daily newspapers before leaving that city.

A judge in New York says this promiscuous shooting of husbands must be stopped. The judge said that the husband should be protected just as well as any game. Fish, birds and deer are all given certain seasons of the year in which to mind their own business without being shot and peppered with bullets. He has now declared the season for shooting husbands closed.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs, and is in a yellow package. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Concrete bridges and culverts have recently been put in all along the Jennings railroad. This would indicate that the Jennings road has come to stay, and we predict that much coal will be shipped over it from the now undeveloped coal fields of Garrett county, Md., within the next ten years. Garrett county has valuable coal deposits, and the Jennings road taps some of the richest territory.

"The same old sorrow you have today, was old when Adam was baling hay; the worry that makes your bosom dark, was old when Noah was in the ark. The grim foreboding that makes you pale, was old when Jonah was in the whale. There is nothing new in this world so wide, so do not worry, but let things slide. Your hopes and doubts, your dreams and fears, are but the dust of a million years."

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles, by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints, causing rheumatism. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Do you know that you can write your name on the metal of your farm tools? You can. Just take a little tallow or beeswax, melt it and spread it over the place on which you want your name—write your name down through the wax, with a big needle or awl, and pour a few drops of nitric acid over the letters you have made. Leave a few minutes, then wipe off the wax, and your name will be on the iron.—Ex.

Unusual things happen in the human family, and there is no reason why they should not occur among the lower animal creations. A cat belonging to the family of L. S. Cunningham gave birth on last Saturday to five kittens of the Siamese kind, being attached together. They were alive this morning, with no more indications of dying than any other kittens that can't see what they are doing.—Moundsville (W. Va.) Echo.

During the spring every one would be benefited by taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. It furnishes a needed tonic to the kidneys after the extra strain of winter, and it purifies the blood by stimulating the kidneys, and causing them to eliminate the impurities from it. Foley's Kidney Remedy imparts new life and vigor. Pleasant to take. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Mr. Henry Miller, Beachley street, has a hen that is a record breaker. She lays two eggs every other day, and rests on the alternate day. The first egg is laid about 1 p. m., then the hen comes out and cackles and then goes back and lays the second one. The next day the hen does not even look at the nest. A number of the neighbors have visited Mr. Miller's and watched this odd performance.—Meyersdale Republican.

Application for a charter has been made to the proper authority to convert the Markleton Sanatorium into a free hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis and other diseases of like nature. Those interested are James S. Hitchman, of Mt. Pleasant; James E. Barnett, of Washington, Pa.; George Kreger, of Kingwood, and M. B. Barnett, of Markleton, being the applicants, and Messrs. James E. Barnett, James S. Hitchman and M. B. Barnett are named as trustees.—Rockwood Leader.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble."

Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. Elk Lick Pharmacy, E. H. Miller, Proprietor. 5-1

Here is a boy's poetical essay on the traditional pants: "When dad has worn his trousers out, they pass to brother John, then mother trims them 'round about, and William puts them on. When William's legs too long have grown, the trousers fail to hide 'em, so Walter claims them for his own and hides himself inside 'em. Next Sam's fat legs the pants invest, and when they won't stretch tighter, they're turned and shortened up for me—the writer. Ma works them into caps and rugs when I have burst the stitches; at Doom's day we shall see, perhaps, the last of dad's old breeches."

You should not delay under any circumstances in case of Kidney and Bladder trouble. You should take something promptly that you know is reliable, something like DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are unequalled for weak back, backache, inflammation of the bladder, rheumatic pains, etc. When you ask for DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, be sure you get them. They are antiseptic. Accept no substitutes; insist upon getting the right kind. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

The Cumberland Alleganian tells of a seven-foot rattlesnake swallowing a cast iron frog that weighed several pounds. The cast iron frog, so the story goes, was used by a family near Cumberland to hold their front door open on warm days. It was painted green, and when the rattler espied the frog, his snakeship readily took it for the real article, and proceeded to swallow it, which it accomplished in course of time. After the frog was down, however, the snake was unable to leave the spot, owing to its heavy meal. Well, that's a pretty good snake story for the first of the season, and it isn't any wonder that Dr. Enfield, of Bedford, places some editors in the Ananias Club.

The rage for souvenirs and gifts, "to take home to the folks," has made a splendid opening for women who can make dainty articles of almost any description. If this line of work appeals to you, no time is better than the present to start in it. First study well the thing you make best and can supply a large demand for. Then study localities. If you are a home body, perhaps you can start a booth in your own town. If you have the wandering spirit, branch out and go as far away as you dare. You will enjoy the change of scene, the new faces and new experiences. Write to the big hotels or the management of summer resorts and find out what commission or rent they will charge. Do not expect they will allow you valuable space free of charge. They are furnishing you patrons and advertisement, and will expect you to pay therefor. Spend your utmost limit on a first-class location.—"What Women Can Do to Earn Money," in The Ladies' World for May.

Northwest Salisbury News.
The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bodamer, of West Salisbury, one night last week, and left an 11-pound boy.

Ernest Weifley, while returning from C. H. Knox's Tuesday night, was held up and robbed between the residences of Milton Meess and Dr. A. O. McKinley. He was relieved of a purse containing the sum of $95, and a diamond ring he recently purchased for his fiancée. He was then followed to S. A. Beachy's, where he is making his home. There is no clue to the identity of the highwaymen.

Wm. C. Wagner and sons are busily engaged rebuilding the Auditorium on their premises, which was destroyed by fire, last fall. They have employed several men to clean and sod the porch. They expect this season to excel all former ones for able speakers. The McDermott Orchestra and the Great Hand Bell Ringers, of Spokane, Wash., will be with them in August, during the Chautauqua.

E. R. Weifley gave a barn dance at his home, last Saturday night. Several were in attendance, and a fine time is reported. A beautiful prize was awarded to George Long and Annie Wagner. A sumptuous supper was served at 12 o'clock, after which all started for home.

Mr. Alfred Wagner is on the sick list at this writing. INDIA RUBBER.

No Hard Times in Canton, Ohio.
Herbert C. Engle, who recently moved from this town to Canton, Ohio, writes to THE STAR as follows: "Well, I am in Canton, and so far like it real well. The prospects for Canton, this summer, seem to be encouraging. The only trouble is, there seems to be more work than workers. Every day the papers are full of 'ads' for carpenters, brick-layers and different other vocations for men and women."

"We are nicely located in a five-room house, and will be ready for business in a few days."
